The SAGE Handbook of the 21st Century City Suzanne Hall, Ricky Burdett, 2017-10-16 The SAGE Handbook of the 21st Century City focuses on the dynamics and disruptions of the contemporary city in relation to capricious processes of global urbanisation mutation and resistance An international range of scholars engage with emerging urban conditions and inequalities in experimental ways speaking to new ideas of what constitutes the urban highlighting empirical explorations and expanding on contributions to policy and design The handbook is organised around nine key themes through which familiar analytic categories of race gender and class as well as binaries such as the urban rural are readdressed These thematic sections together capture the volatile processes and intricacies of urbanisation that reveal the turbulent nature of our early twenty first century Hierarchy Elites and Evictions Productivity Over investment and Abandonment Authority Governance and Mobilisations Volatility Disruption and Adaptation Conflict Vulnerability and Insurgency Provisionality Infrastructure and Incrementalism Mobility Re bordering and De bordering Civility Contestation and Encounter Design Speculation and Imagination This is a provocative inter disciplinary handbook for all academics and researchers interested in contemporary urban studies Art, Space and the City Malcolm

Miles, 2005-08-16 This book examines public art outside the normal confines of art criticism and places it within broader contexts of public space and gender by exploring both the aesthetic and political aspects of the medium The Transformation of Cities David C. Thorns, 2017-03-14 The aim of the book is to examine the transformation of the city in the late 20th century and explore the ways in which city life is structured The shift from modern industrial to information consumption based post modern cities is traced through the text The focus is not just on America and Europe but also explores cities in other parts of the world as city growth in the twenty first century will be predominantly outside of these regions The Urban Geography Reader NICK FYFE, JUDITH KENNY, 2020-04-15 Drawing on a rich diversity of theoretical approaches and analytical strategies urban geographers have been at the forefront of understanding the global and local processes shaping cities and of making sense of the urban experiences of a wide variety of social groups Through their links with those working in the fields of urban policy design urban geographers have also played an important role in the analysis of the economic and social problems confronting cities Capturing the diversity of scholarship in the field of urban geography this reader presents a stimulating selection of articles and excerpts by leading figures Organized around seven themes it addresses the changing economic social cultural and technological conditions of contemporary urbanization and the range of personal and public responses It reflects the academic importance of urban geography in terms of both its theoretical and empirical analysis as well as its applied policy relevance and features extensive editorial input in the form of general section and individual extract introductions Bringing together in one volume classic and contemporary pieces of urban geography studies undertaken in the developed and developing worlds and examples of theoretical and applied research it provides in a convenient student friendly format an unparalleled resource for those studying the complex geographies of urban areas

Image of Istanbul, Impact of ECOC 2010 on the City Image Evinc Dogan, 2016-07-31 Istanbul took the stage as one of the three European Capital of Culture ECoC cities in 2010 In this spectacle the urban spaces were projected as the theatre d cor while residents and visitors became the spectators The images of Istanbul pile up in videos and posters to show the city in every aspect in which everything becomes mishmash and the message gets lost in the chaos While Istanbul is depicted as a mystified city through Orientalist representations this image of Istanbul moves between the opposite ends of the contrasting pairs and in contestation Culture defined as making sense of the world Hall 1997 2 is an integral part of branding a place which involves cultural exchange Anholt 2005 140 Mega events may be used as forms of advertising for city marketing and branding where the signification is not only about production of meaning but also staging of the meaning The cities hosting mega events can be turned into the protagonists of the spectacle by showcasing their cultural products as well as cultural being Thus what staged there are the city its image as well as the events The mega events are helpful to spread the word about the city but the meaning is created also through imaging the city and positioning this image in the minds of the people

CONTENT Introduction Chapter 1 Understanding and dissecting the city image Chapter 2 Marketing the city and the city image Chapter 3 Istanbul European Capital of Culture 2010 Chapter 4 Posters of Istanbul 2010 Chapter 5 Istanbul in between Conclusion

Building Modern Antiquity Georgia Giannakopoulou, 2024-11-29 This book considers post 19th century Athens as a unique instance of a secret side of metropolitan capitalism With a focus on modern antiquity as the hidden element of the dialectic between the past and the present it suggests that the sociological study of one of the great European capital cities a city not intended as a modern capital and its architectural representations may expose part of the veiled processes of the reconstruction of the past thus shedding light on the abuse of antiquity for the celebration of European capitalist metropolitan modernity From the glorious white marble cityscape of the 19th century that aimed at re-enchanting metropolitan modernity to the inglorious grey reinforced concrete 21st century metropolis modern Athens exposes the battle between the modern and a modern image of antiquity a false socially constructed historiography born of the dialectics between the ancient and the modern the new and the old collective memory and collective forgetting As such The Building of a Modern Antiquity will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in social and critical theory urban studies sociology of architecture and visual sociology

Splintering Urbanism Steve Graham, Simon Marvin, 2002-09-11 Splintering Urbanism makes an international and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex interactions between infrastructure networks and urban spaces It delivers a new and powerful way of understanding contemporary urban change bringing together discussions about globalization and the city technology and society urban space and urban networks infrastructure and the built environment developed developing and post communist worlds With a range of case studies illustrations and boxed examples from New York to Jakarta Johannesburg to Manila and Sao Paulo to Melbourne Splintering Urbanism demonstrates the latest social urban and technological theories which give us an understanding of our contemporary metropolis

Urban Constellations Zoë Thompson, 2016-02-11 This book investigates the iconic architectural cultural spaces of the contemporary cityscape as engines of regeneration Promising much to their fading locales these spaces locate culture in the space where production once ruled in order to revitalise post industrial urban provinces With close attention to four sites across the UK Urban Constellations engages with the work of Walter Benjamin and Jean Baudrillard to read these spaces and in so doing offer a critical intervention into the theory and experience of contemporary cityscapes Developing the notion of surface ethnography as a methodological approach to examining the form of cultural experience produced by urban cultural spaces the author sheds light on the manner in which they transform cultural spectatorship express wider political and ecological concerns and offer differing views to the native and the tourist in the construction of local history The book also examines the decline of the idea that iconic projects can drive regeneration in the failures and delays that can beset such undertakings Offering a rich examination of the legacy of urban change in its most recent formulation that of cultural regeneration this book reveals the fragile potential of the spaces produced by contemporary dream houses and as such will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies sociology and social theory urban studies cultural geography and architecture

Ideologies and Infrastructures of Religious Urbanization in Africa

David Garbin, Simon Coleman, Gareth Millington, 2022-11-17 How do urbanization and development intersect with religious dynamics to shape contemporary African cityscapes To answer this timely question contributors from across Europe North America and Africa are brought together to explore mega cities including Lagos Cape Town Dar es Salaam and Kinshasa as powerful venues for the creation and implementation of religious models of urbanization and development This book interrogates how religious socio spatial models and strategies engage with challenges of infrastructural development urban social cohesion inequalities and inclusion Chapters explore how faith based practices of urban and infrastructural development link moral subjectivities with individual and wider aspirations for modernization change deliverance and prosperity The volume brings together ethnographically rich and theoretically grounded case studies of religious urbanization across the African continent It advances discussions of the ambivalent role of urban religion in development and documents the complex multifaceted socio cultural and political dynamics associated with religious urbanization in Africa
