Whiteness in the Ivory Tower Nolan L. Cabrera, 2024 Whiteness is the foundation of racism and racial violence within higher education institutions It is deeply embedded in the ideologies and organizational structures of colleges and universities that guide practices policies and research The purpose of this book is not to simply uncover these practices but rather to intentionally center the harm that Whiteness causes to communities of Color broadly in order to transform these practices For example Cabrera explores what academic freedom and tenure could look like if they actually divorced themselves from Whiteness Readers will dive into these and other pressing issues guided by both critical social analysis as well as hope for the possibilities of human liberation from oppression This is important reading for university and college professors scholars diversity officers student affairs professionals and everyone looking for ways to center the needs of historically marginalized students

Book Features Extends the work of Beverly Daniel Tatum classic text Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria Explores what truly embedding anti racism and decolonial praxis into higher education institutions could look like Uses critical race theory to analyze the cause of racism and the effect Whiteness has on people of Color Offers a critical but concurrently hopeful view that anti racist futures are both possible and necessary

Breaking Ranks Colin Diver, 2022-04-12 Some colleges will do anything to improve their national ranking That can be bad for their students and for higher education Since U S News World Report first published a college ranking in 1983 the rankings industry has become a self appointed judge declaring winners and losers among America's colleges and universities In this revealing account Colin Diver shows how popular rankings have induced college applicants to focus solely on pedigree and prestige while tempting educators to sacrifice academic integrity for short term competitive advantage By forcing colleges into standardized best college hierarchies he argues rankings have threatened the institutional diversity intellectual rigor and social mobility that is the genius of American higher education As a former university administrator who refused to play the game Diver leads his readers on an engaging journey through the mysteries of college rankings admissions financial aid spending policies and academic practices He explains how most dominant college rankings perpetuate views of higher education as a purely consumer good susceptible to unidimensional measures of brand value and prestige Many rankings he asserts also undermine the moral authority of higher education by encouraging various forms of distorted behavior misrepresentation and outright cheating by ranked institutions The recent Varsity Blues admissions scandal for example happened in part because affluent parents wanted to get their children into elite schools by any means necessary Explaining what is most useful and important in evaluating colleges Diver offers both college applicants and educators a guide to pursuing their highest academic goals freed from the siren song of the best college illusion Ultimately he reveals how to break ranks with a rankings industry that misleads its consumers undermines academic values and perpetuates social inequality U.S. News & World Report ,2008 An Epidemiological Study of Leadership Garry Wade McGiboney,2021-11-03 While there are hundreds of books on leadership no other book links epidemiological concepts to leadership Epidemiologists look for treatments by matching the determinants to the disease As such this book not only identifies leadership determinants but also matches research based antidotes to them at the end of each chapter The book includes over 550 references on leadership psychology epidemiology management systems theory and others as well as over 60 case studies analyzed to illustrate points about leadership and determinants Additionally each chapter includes a list of key terms and concepts discussion items and highlights of lessons learned At the end of the book there is a section on leadership and motivation theories and models as well as a section that provides leadership style surveys and assessments that can help readers identify their leadership style while also becoming aware of what changes in leadership style can improve workplace climate Pay-to-Play Ryan Kraski,2021-07-16 Pay to Play bietet einen zug nglichen Ansatz zum Verst ndnis zweier Systeme zur Wissenserschaffung und verbreitung die in das US Rechtssystem eingebettet sind private gemeinn tzige Universit ten und das Urheberrecht Pay to Play zeigt die harte Realit t auf dass ein umfangreicher Bestand an akademischen Werken hinter gewinnorientierten digitalen Paywalls verschlossen bleibt Der Zugang zu diesen Werken ist f r den Einzelnen unerschwinglich und wird in der Regel nur durch noch teurere institutionelle Mitgliedschaften erm glicht Infolgedessen werden die meisten Menschen unn tigerweise vom Innovationsprozess ausgeschlossen der den Kern der Urheberrechtsklausel der Verfassung darstellt Accountability in American Higher Education K. Crafting a Class Elizabeth A. Duffy,Idana Goldberg,2014-07-14 Admissions and financial aid policies at liberal arts colleges have changed dramatically since 1955 Through the 1950s most colleges in the United States enrolled fewer than 1000 students nearly all of whom were white Few colleges were truly selective in their admissions they accepted most students who applied In the 1960s as the children of the baby boom reached college age and both federal and institutional financial aid programs expanded many more students began to apply to college For the first time liberal arts colleges were faced with an abundance of applicants which raised new questions What criteria would they use to select students How would they award financial aid The answers to these questions were shaped by financial and educational considerations as well as by the struggles for civil rights and gender equality that swept across the nation The colleges answers also proved crucial to their futures as the years since the mid 1970s have shown When the influx of baby boom students slowed colleges began to recruit aggressively in order to maintain their class sizes In the past decade financial aid has become another tool that colleges use to compete for the best students By tracing the development of competitive admission and financial aid policies at a selected group of liberal arts colleges Crafting a Class explores how institutional decisions reflect and respond to broad demographic economic political and social forces Elizabeth Duffy and Idana Goldberg closely studied sixteen liberal arts colleges in Massachusetts and Ohio At each college they not only collected empirical data on admissions enrollment and financial aid trends but they also examined archival materials and interviewed current and former administrators Duffy and Goldberg have produced an authoritative and highly readable account of some of the most important changes that have taken place in American higher education during the tumultuous decades since the mid 1950s Crafting a Class will interest all readers who are concerned with the past and future directions of higher education in the United States Originally published in 1997 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Research Handbook on University Rankings Hazelkorn, Ellen, Mihut, Georgiana, 2021-12-10 Gathering unique and thoughtful contributions from leading international scholars this timely Research Handbook offers diverse perspectives on university rankings twenty years after the first global rankings emerged It presents an in depth analysis that reflects the current state of research on rankings their influence and impact

Competition in Higher Education Branding and Marketing Antigoni Papadimitriou, 2017-10-06 This volume provides a critical examination of branding and marketing in higher education from national regional and global perspectives Contributors with expertise in higher education sociology comparative and international education marketing rankings and educational philanthropy use novel theoretical frameworks and cases from Africa Asia Europe Latin America and the US to map the brandscape of higher education Empirical cases and literature analysis show that brand building is becoming a deliberate goal for higher education This book illustrates student institution dynamics as well as the critical role of policy and professionalization to support branding and marketing strategies in higher education in relation to equity The College Completion Glass—Half-Full or Half-Empty? Tiffany Beth Mfume, 2018-12-21 Despite the Great Recession and looming student loan debt crisis college education remains the most proven invaluable lifetime investment and serves as the most reliable path to upward mobility and socioeconomic class reassignment Mfume suggests that the value added of even one year of college can be transformative As higher education professionals and partners continue to advocate for new and improved college retention and graduation measures The College Completion Glass Half Full or Half Empty Exploring the Value of Postsecondary Education presents a new paradigm for higher education one that focuses on the value added of postsecondary education as well as on student success beyond the traditional measure of college graduation rates a model which merges conventional practices and supports for students with non traditional partnerships with and advocacy from successful non completers
