- A Valid Passport
- The Visa Fee (Axis/Citibank Receipt)
- The SEVIS Fee
- The Visa Form (DS-160 Confirmation)
- The I-20 Form, Letter of Admission and Aid letter
- IELTS/ TOEFL/ GRE/ GMAT score sheet
- Affidavit of Support on Rs 20 Stamp Paper

Financial Documentation

- If you have got aid then you can chill out. Usually, they will not ask you about your financial position. For those who haven't got any financial assistance see that you show sufficient funds for the duration of the course.
- The most common document students take is a CA certificate. This is a certificate stating that your sponsor has the required funds to finance your entire educational, living and other expenses. It gives a summary of the funds of the sponsor.
- Just the CA certificate will not suffice. You may be asked to produce all the original documents that were used to evaluate the funds. Some of the documents used for evaluation are - the Tax returns of parents, salary certificate, bank passbooks, bank FD receipts, company FD receipts, share certificates, property documents, gold evaluation and any other document that you may have used. It is very important that you carry along all these documents.

Visa Procedure

- Do not take electronic equipment with you. Also the documents that you carry should be in a folder so that you can easily remove when asked. Keep the folder in a plastic bag if you wish. Leather bags, suitcases are not allowed in the consulate.
- The problem is that the line is common for all Non-Immigrant visas (Students F1, visitors B1, Business L1, Work H1B etc...).
- People are allowed inside at around 7:00am. After you get in you will be asked by the security to sit and wait for your turn to come. At this point keep your passport, I-20 and the completed form ready. You will be asked to go to a particular counter. Submit the above documents and collect a pink token given to you.
