Rave On Matthew Collin, 2024-05-31 Peace Love Unity and Respect Cultural liberation and musical innovation Pyrotechnics bottle service bass drops and molly Electronic dance music has been a vital force for more than three decades now and has undergone transformation upon transformation as it has taken over the world In this searching lyrical account of dance music culture worldwide Matthew Collin takes stock of its highest highs and lowest lows across its global trajectory Through firsthand reportage and interviews with clubbers and DJs Collin documents the itinerant musical form from its underground beginnings in New York Chicago and Detroit in the 1980s to its explosions in Ibiza and Berlin to today s mainstream music scenes in new frontiers like Las Vegas Shanghai and Dubai Collin shows how its dizzying array of genres from house techno and garage to drum and bass dubstep and psytrance have given voice to locally specific struggles For so many people in so many different places electronic dance music has been caught up in the search for free cultural space forming the soundtrack to liberation for South African youth after Apartheid inspiring a psychedelic party culture in Israel offering fleeting escape from and at times into corporatization in China and even undergirding a veritable independent republic in a politically contested slice of the former Soviet Union Full of admiration for the possibilities the music has opened up all over the world Collin also unflinchingly probes where this utopianism has fallen short whether the culture maintains its liberating possibilities today and where it might go in the future Festivals and Values Waldemar Kuligowski, Marcin

Poprawski, 2023-11-27 This is an original book covering all the past areas of research anyone would need to know about festivals and event based culture It is based on academic research but written in a way relevant for cultural professionals uniquely explaining the cultural power of festivals and with original empirical research the realities of organisation and management and social and economic value Dr Jonathan Vickery Reader in Cultural Policy Studies and Director Centre for Cultural and Media Policy Studies University of Warwick This book discusses music festivals in the context of the specific values they convey Today music festivals are a permanent feature of national regional and local cultural policies a valuable asset in the tourism industry and a significant source of income for an industry that has been adversely affected by the steady decline in physical sales of music For the audience on the other hand it is an opportunity to escape from everyday life multi sensory contact with art an activity that stands for full body participation a cultural phenomenon that drags people out of their homes like no other There is one common denominator linking the above mentioned features of contemporary music festivals namely the world of values This is evident from the non accidental locations festivals spaces design planning and the line ups created consciously with great care The organisers missions logos and other symbolic organisational artefacts communicate specific values These values are explicitly mentioned by artists and audiences they can be easily identified in online forums and media reports participant behaviour festival rituals and additional festival programs are shaped on the basis of values and cooperation is built between the festival and the local community As the reader will quickly realize numbers and statistics sit alongside descriptions and quotations in this book and the organisers statements are accompanied by the opinions of academics but above all the festival audience is given a voice both through quotations and their drawings This voice is by no means uniform as it turned out that research into values was often transformed into a pretext for spinning tales about one s life situation one s political preferences and one s understanding of freedom and responsibility Memories were mixed with declarations joy with regret curses with dreams prose with poetry Thomas Pettitt was not wrong in noting that Social history has learnt to appreciate festival as a valuable window on society and its structures The authors have tried to open all the windows available Students and researchers in the fields of cultural anthropology social psychology folklore studies comparative religion sociology of culture cultural policy cultural history and cultural management will find this book

P. E. Harper-Scott,2021 Brings musicology to the cutting edge of debates in the postmodern philosophy of history This book presents a new theory of how to write music history and offers an exemplar of this new theory in action in a series of four chapter length reflexions on Beethoven's heroic style The first book length theory of music history since Carl Dahlhaus's Foundations of Music History it brings musicology to the cutting edge of debates in the postmodern philosophy of history While the book engages with current thinking it also goes further than the postmodern critique of history writing to find a new and positive basis for the writing of music history In so doing the book revisits the philosophy of Alain Badiou in place of a focus on the facts the objects of history whose problematic relation to history writing the theorists have demonstrated the book proposes a focus instead on the subjects of history the faithful reactive and obscure responses to an Event a kind of rapture of ontology which brings the actors involved closer to a truth It sees musical materials the styles techniques and musical language handed down to composers by history in a dialectical relationship with the human beings who are music's manifold historical actors Engagingly written this new short theory of music history will be essential reading for scholars and students of the many area studies within music history It will also attract those of neighbouring disciplines dealing with the philosophy of history or the history of historiography      Music Trades ,1919      The Musical Monitor ,1919      Musical Digest ,1926      Music Festivals in Europe and Britain Carol Price Rabin,1984      Music Everywhere Jourard, Marty,2016-04-26 Florida Book Awards Bronze Medal for Florida Nonfiction When the Beatles launched into fame in 1963 they inspired a generation to pick up an instrument and start a band Rock and roll took the world by storm but one small town in particular seemed to pump out prominent musicians and popular bands at factory pace Many American college towns
