Knitting Classic Style Véronik Avery, 2012-10-30 A top knitwear designer offers thirty five retro inspired patterns that put a new spin on fashion's timeless trends In fashion one day you're in the next day you're out and the day after that you're back in again Designers are always referring to fashion's rich history as they imagine its present and future and retro looks remain ever fresh as they are renewed and restyled for the next generation of wearers That's precisely what top knitwear designer Véronik Avery is up to in Knitting Classic Style Mining fashion's endless archive Avery has created 35 smashingly contemporary garments that take their cues from decades and designers past The collection of clothing and accessories Avery presents is organized into four thematic chapters that highlight women's wear men's wear and its influence on women's and children's clothing traditional ethnic garb and sportswear Aimed at both beginning and more advanced knitters the book's projects range in difficulty from a simple drawstring purse French beret and Afghan inspired slipper socks to a shawl collared cardigan a geometric ski sweater based on a popular 1950s Native American design and Avery's own reinterpretation of the trimly elegant Chanel jacket The author introduces each project by explaining its historical cultural roots Sara Cameron's moody photos evoke the settings that have inspired Avery's reworkings of the classics The Homestead, 1918

Knitting Anne Bartlett, 2006-08-09 In the tradition of Anita Brookner and Barbara Pym Anne Bartlett has written a sly stirring look at women's lives Meg Wolitzer author of The Female Persuasion Sandra a rigid academic is struggling to navigate the world after losing her husband to cancer Martha a self taught textile artist with her own secret store of grief spends her days knitting elaborate projects charged with personal meaning After a chance meeting sparks a friendship between these two very different women they begin to collaborate leading to surprising events that will help heal them both in a novel of subtle beauty The Washington Post A moving story about true love and haunting grief Adriana Trigiani A wonderful tale deeply satisfying Connie May Fowler An experience as sensual and mystical as plunging your hands into skeins of wool and color A joyful narrative of creating and connecting Sena Jeter Naslund Letters from Malaya Joan Frances Mills, 2006-10-31 My father was a captain in the Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers R E M E and was sent to Malaya with his young family as part of the British government's response to the armed revolt of the Malayan Communist party An emergency was declared which lasted from 1952 until 1960 The British encouraged Merdeka Independence through political means whilst instigating military counter insurgency measures against the MCP This remains the only successful jungle campaign against Communism ever to be fought by a Western power The Tiny Museums Carolyn Abbs, 2017 Highly Commended in the 2016 Dorothy Hewett Award for an Unpublished Manuscript Carolyn Abbs's poems in her poised collection The Tiny Museums live in the gap between deep time and now They are insistently alive to the rich tensions between those two registers This pairing of past present plays out in other unifying doublings and mirrorings particularly those between the UK and Western Australia between photography and poetry and a fertile creative relationship shared by sisters Abbs deftly creates the world of her book through a phenomenological approach. Elegant layers of textures, colours, sounds and movement invite the reader into an experiential sense of this trench between the past and the present. In this way, her sensibility is painterly but it's a Northern light in her poems reminiscent of the crisp mysteries of Vermeer. Abbs's poems dealing with family grief are the centrepieces of the book and are admirable in their ability to move the reader without any cloying sentimentality. Along with a skilled attentiveness to the ways in which sound moves through a line, this beautifully modulated emotional intelligence is a very great strength of her poetry. Doing Prison Work Elaine M. Crawley, 2013-01-11. This book provides a much needed sociological account of the social world of the English prison officer, making an original contribution to our understanding of the inner life of prisons in general and the working lives of prison officers in particular. As well as revealing how the job of the prison officer and of the prison itself is accomplished on a day to day basis, the book explores not only what prison officers do but also how they feel about their work. In focusing on how prison officers feel about their work, this book makes a number of interesting revelations about the essentially domestic nature of much of the work they do, about the degree of emotional labour invested in it, and about the performance nature of many of the day to day interactions between officers and prisoners. Finally, the book follows the prison officer home after work, showing how the prison can spill over into their home lives and family relationships. Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in different types of prisons, including interviews with prison officers, wives and children, as well as prison officers themselves, this book will be essential reading for all those with an interest in how prisons and organisations more generally operate in practice.

Creative Approaches in Dementia Care Hilary Lee, Trevor Adams, 2017-09-16. A practical introduction to the use of the arts in dementia care. Based on experience, the book provides clear guidance on how to employ a variety of innovative techniques, including art, music and dance therapies, to promote the physical, psychological, emotional, social and spiritual well-being of people with dementia.

A Quick Fix Barbara J. Blyth, 2012-07-13. An Edwardian seaside town is labeled the drug capital of north Norfolk, and an unlikely group of people find their lives inextricably linked to it, and each other. They are the following: Deeanna, the beautiful young wife of an MEP. She is desperately trying to save her family's country estate following her father's death, and the discovery that they are broke. An opportunity to make quick money is just too tempting, and she has never been afraid to live life on the edge. Deeanna's brother Jonathan always wants to emulate his sister. He takes over the running of the estate when the decision is made to open it to the public. His partnership in a flying school in Holland leads him to become an unwitting courier with dire consequences. The mysterious Peter, who takes a job as security man to Deeanna's husband Nigel. But that is just a cover while he works for a drug enforcement agency. His dilemma is what to do about the stunningly beautiful Deeanna, once he discovers that she is a main player. Crab fisherman Whitebait. Highly respected in a tight-knit community, he worries that his pension will not be enough to give his wife Mary the rewards she deserves after all the years of hard work. During his last seasons at sea, with his brother Larry they bring ashore more than crabs and lobsters But Larry is weak and careless He is tempted to try the drugs himself The owners of a Dutch cargo vessel Struggling to stay in business against increasingly difficult competition they are also lured into temptation to pay off the crippling cost of their boat Marti is a mixed up young car salesman His one ambition in life is to bring to justice the foster father who abused him as a child He becomes a courier and quite by chance meets up with Terry one of the other boys from the foster home Terry already an addict introduces Marti to his boss Joe Smith that is probably not his birth name is obese suffers from angina and is no longer a main player in the Amsterdam drug world He has been hard and ruthless over the years to maintain his slice of the business but now he is losing out to the big dangerous international syndicates His sidekick Roberto is a suave Italian and Deeanna likes what she sees But he is plotting to desert Joe and move to the opposition where he believes a bigger pot of gold is waiting Lured by the promise of quick financial gains for their own particular needs or greed they all become entangled in a dark and dangerous network Their lives are changed forever as they opt for A QUICK FIX

Wragg, 2007-02-28 There was a time where I had actually reached the anaesthetics room I had already had my pre med and I remember singing about bikes I m not sure why because to be truthful I can t even ride one so that must have been a sight for sore eyes I ll bet the staff had a real good laugh about it mind you I didn t care as I was in a world of my own The staff and I also arranged to have my pacemaker mounted on marble everything was going great I was relaxed and I was certainly ready Come on guys get a wriggle on I urged them They were just about to put me to sleep when all of a sudden the swinging doors to the anaesthetic room burst open Stop it s been cancelled I heard someone shout At that particular time I didn t care you could say I was high on pre med which was a good job really because all the tubes I had put in to prepare me for the operation had to be quickly taken out I was then taken back to my room where I found my mum huddled into a corner crying hey mum what s up don t worry chick I ll be right there s always another time She was absolutely distraught it s hard to imagine how she must have felt especially as only a few moments ago I had said good bye to her She had been in such high spirits because at last I was having my transplant but then to hear it had been cancelled AGAIN it s got to have been worse than torture Eventually I came down to earth but during the night I was going mad with pains down my arms I m not sure what had caused this but possibly it could have been something to do with the anaesthetic room because I did learn they had to get me out of there pretty quickly to get someone else in This time it was the heart which had let me down when before it had been the lungs so they were being used for another transplant patient The next morning I saw everything in a different light remembering what had happened the night before and when I got my thoughts together I couldn t believe it As far as I was concerned they were mine those organs were mine I d waited long enough plus I d had more cancellations than anyone else for god sake it was my turn I couldn t wait to get home and when the transplant doctor came to see us before we left my mum asked him if the heart was better than the one I had then why in heavens name couldn t he use it especially if the lungs were good When I give her new heart and lungs they have to be the best or not at all she deserves that he replied a little emotionally That day was hard enough but I do have one regret because something happened on the way out of the hospital While I was being taken out to the ambulance the mother of the young girl who had had my lungs came over to talk to me and I was really rude to her I remember shoving her away I didn t want to talk to her I couldn t talk to her I felt so angry Her daughter had been saved whereas my little girl could lose her mum at any time I needed that transplant more than anything and I was blaming her for it I didn t know it then but she was really upset when she returned to the ward Babies Growing

Up Nurse McKay,2022-11-21 Originally published in 1956 Babies Growing Up aims to compress in to a brief yet readable form the essentials of successful parentcraft at the time bearing in mind the four elements of developing a new life physical mental emotional and spiritual It seeks to sum up the essence of the mothercraft advice given over the years through the pages of Woman s Pictorial and Mother and Home where some material had appeared previously It is a comprehensive guide through a baby s life from birth through the early years and today can be enjoyed as a historical look at parenting and child development in the 1950s

If Only Elaine Blick,2022-05-10 The pampered daughter of a wealthy man Alice has the choice between two eligible and attractive men But this is the era of suffragettes and Alice is looking for satisfaction in a career rather than marriage A succession of hard knocks changes the once spoilt beauty into a compassionate woman willing to put others before herself in a life of service Set against the dramatic background of the Boer War Alice s private story unfolds Even in the midst of dirt disease and death love is able to blossom This epic wartime romance is played out under the South African sun

The Unmarried Mother Sheila Tofield,2013-03-28 Sheila Tofield tells her moving true story about being a single mother in 1950s Britain in The Unmarried Mother A searing honest testimony Lesley Pearse Sheila grew up in Rotherham the daughter of an uncaring mother who made her believe she was useless stupid and most painfully of all unlovable As a young woman her worst childhood fears were confirmed when her fianc broke off their engagement without an explanation Heartbroken and vulnerable Sheila was easy prey to the worst type of man a man who turned his back on her when she told him she was carrying his child In Fifties Britain an unmarried pregnant girl received not sympathy but censure and contempt Shunned by most of her family Sheila ended up in a Church of England home for unmarried mothers with no apparent alternative than to give up her child for adoption But when she held her newborn daughter in her arms for the first time Sheila knew she had to do the unthinkable bring up her baby on her own in a society that would condemn her for it Sheila Tofield is a proud grandmother living in Chichester and The Unmarried Mother is her first book Her touching story was picked up by Penguin when she entered the hugely successful life story competition with Saga Magazine
