Small Business Administration Microloan Program Crs Reports:

Empowering Women Entrepreneurs United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship, 2015 Small Business in America Arnold Gould, 2002 Small businesses are a key cog in the American economy as firms of under 100 employees represent 98% of the country's enterprises In 1953 Congress created the Small Business Administration to help small firms face the problems of large scale industry mobilisation Congress declared that preserving free and competitive markets are dependent on the vitality of small companies Since the temporary inception of the SBA the federal government has expanded its agencies for and involvement in small businesses This new book examines issues key to small business

Small Business Administration Microloan Program Congressional Research Service, 2014-12-22 The Small Business Administration's SBA's Microloan program provides direct loans to qualified nonprofit intermediary lenders who in turn provide microloans of up to 50 000 to small business owners entrepreneurs and nonprofit child care centers It also provides marketing management and technical assistance to microloan borrowers and potential borrowers The program was authorized in 1991 as a five year demonstration project and became operational in 1992 It was made permanent subject to reauthorization in 1997 The SBA's Microloan program is designed to assist women low income veteran minority entrepreneurs and small business owners and other individuals possessing the capability to operate successful business concerns by providing them small scale loans for working capital or the acquisition of materials supplies or equipment In FY2014 Microloan intermediaries provided 3 919 microloans totaling 55 7 million The average Microloan was 14 210 and had a 7 54% interest rate Critics of the SBA's Microloan program argue that it is expensive relative to alternative programs duplicative of the SBA's 7 a loan guaranty program and subject to administrative shortfalls The program's advocates argue that it assists many who otherwise would not be served by the private sector and is an important source of capital and training assistance for low income women and minority business owners Congressional interest in the Microloan program has increased in recent years primarily because microloans are viewed as a means to assist very small businesses especially women and minority owned startups to get loans that enable them to create and retain jobs Job creation always a congressional interest has taken on increased importance given continuing concerns about job growth during the current economic recovery This report opens with a discussion of the rationale provided for having a Microloan program describes the program's eligibility standards and operating requirements for lenders and borrowers and examines the arguments presented by the program's critics and advocates It then discusses P L 111 240 the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010 which increased the Microloan program's loan limit for borrowers from 35 000 to 50 000 and the aggregate loan limit for intermediaries after their first year of participation in the program from 3 5 million to 5 million The act also authorized the SBA to waive in whole or in part through FY2012 the nonfederal share requirement for loans to the Microloan program's intermediaries and for grants made to Microloan intermediaries for small business marketing management and technical assistance for up to a fiscal year The report also discusses several bills introduced in the 113th Congress H R 3191 the Expanding Opportunities to Underserved Businesses Act would have increased the Microloan program s loan limit for borrowers from 50 000 to 75 000 S 2487 the Access to Capital Access to Opportunity Act would have increased that limit to 100 000 S 2693 the Women s Small Business Ownership Act of 2014 would have among other provisions increased the Microloan program s aggregate loan limit for intermediaries after their first year of participation in the program from 5 million to 7 million The bill would have also removed the requirements that no more than 25% of Microloan technical assistance grant funds may be used to provide information and technical assistance to prospective borrowers and that no more than 25% of those funds may be used on third party contracts for the provision of technical assistance Women's Entrepreneurship Policy Colette Henry,Susan Coleman,Kate V. Lewis,2023-01-17 Bringing together scholars from around the world this book provides extensive coverage of the academic literature and research on women s entrepreneurship policy

Small Business Administration Congressional Research Service,2014-10-09 The Small Business Administration SBA administers several types of programs to support small businesses including loan guaranty and venture capital programs to enhance small business access to capital contracting programs to increase small business opportunities in federal contracting direct loan programs for businesses homeowners and renters to assist their recovery from natural disasters and small business management and technical assistance training programs to assist business formation and expansion Congressional interest in the SBA s loan venture capital training and contracting programs has increased in recent years primarily because small businesses are viewed as a means to stimulate economic activity create jobs and assist in the national economic recovery Many Members of Congress also regularly receive constituent inquiries about the SBA s programs This report provides an overview of the SBA s business loan guaranty programs including the 7 a loan guaranty program the 504 Certified Development Company CDC program International Trade and Export Promotion Loan programs and the Microloan program venture capital programs including the Small Business Investment Company program and the New Markets Venture Capital program entrepreneurial development programs including Small Business Development Centers Women s Business Centers and SCORE government contracting and business development programs including the 8 a Minority Small Business and Capital Ownership Development Program the Historically Underutilized Business Zones HUBZones program the Service Disabled Veteran Owned Small Business Program and the Women Owned Small Business WOSB Federal Contract program and capital access programs including the Surety Bond Guarantee Program The report also discusses programmatic changes resulting from the enactment of P L 111 5 the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 P L 111 240 the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010 P L 112 239 the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2013 and P L 113 76 the Consolidated Appropriations Act 2014 In addition it provides an overview of the SBA s budget and references other CRS reports that examine these programs in greater detail Small Business Administration
