Rise of the Red Engineers explains the tumultuous origins of the class of technocratic officials who rule China today In a fascinating account author Joel Andreas chronicles how two mutually hostile groups the poorly educated peasant revolutionaries who seized power in 1949 and China s old educated elite coalesced to form a new dominant class After dispossessing the country s propertied classes Mao and the Communist Party took radical measures to eliminate class distinctions based on education aggravating antagonisms between the new political and old cultural elites Ultimately however Mao s attacks on both groups during the Cultural Revolution spurred inter elite unity paving the way after his death for the consolidation of a new class that combined their political and cultural resources This story is told through a case study of Tsinghua University which as China s premier school of technology was at the epicenter of these conflicts and became the party s preferred training ground for technocrats including many of China s current leaders The Social Engagement of Social Science, a Tavistock Anthology, Volume 1 Eric Trist,Hugh Murray,Beulah Trist,2016-01-11

World War II brought together a group of psychiatrists and clinical and social psychologists in the British Army where they developed radical action oriented innovations in social psychiatry They became known as the Tavistock Group since the core members had been at the pre war Tavistock Clinic They created the post war Tavistock Institute of Human Relations and expanded on their wartime achievements by pioneering a new mode of relating theory and practice called in these volumes The Social Engagement of Social Science There are three perspectives the socio psychological the socio technical and the socio ecological These perspectives are interdependent yet each has its own focus and is represented in a separate volume Volume I The Socio Psychological Perspective extends the object relations approach in psychoanalysis to group organizational and wider social life This extension is related to field theory the personality culture approach and open systems theory Action oriented papers deal with key ideas in social psychiatry varieties of group process new paths in family studies the dynamics of organizational change and the unconscious in culture and society The Institute s dynamic social science approach to industrial problems which will be presented in Volume II began with Eric Trist s coal mining program for the development of more productive and personally satisfying self regulating forms of work organization The whole Quality of Working Life movement owes its theoretical and empirical basis to this pathfinding endeavor Volume III will focus on non hierarchical forms of organization facilitating inter organizational relations in complex and rapidly changing environments the socio ecological perspective This perspective is offered as a guide to institution building for the future Federal Register ,1992-03-02 South Pacific Bulletin ,1973 (5 th International Conference on Lifelong Education and Leadership for ALL-ICLEL 2019 Prof. Dr. Osman TITREK,Assist.
