Siren Songs Mary Ann Smart,2014-12-25 It has long been argued that opera is all about sex Siren Songs is the first collection of articles devoted to exploring the impact of this sexual obsession and of the power relations that come with it on the music words and staging of opera Here a distinguished and diverse group of musicologists literary critics and feminist scholars address a wide range of fascinating topics from Salome s striptease to hysteria to jazz and gender in Italian English German and French operas from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries The authors combine readings of specific scenes with efforts to situate these musical moments within richly and precisely observed historical contexts Challenging both

formalist categories of musical analysis and the rhetoric that traditionally pits a male composer against the female characters he creates many of the articles work toward inventing a language for the study of gender and opera The collection opens with Mary Ann Smart's introduction which provides an engaging reflection on the state of gender topics in operatic criticism and musicology It then moves on to a foundational essay on the complex relationships between opera and history by the renowned philosopher and novelist Catherine Clement a pioneer of feminist opera criticism Other articles examine the evolution of the trouser role as it evolved in the lesbian subculture of fin de siècle Paris the phenomenon of opera seria's absent mother as a manifestation of attitudes to the family under absolutism the invention of a hystericized voice in Verdi's Don Carlos and a collaborative discussion of the staging problems posed by the gender politics of Mozart's operas The contributors are Wye Jamison Allanbrook Joseph Auner Katherine Bergeron Philip Brett Peter Brooks Catherine Clement Martha Feldman Heather Hadlock Mary Hunter Linda Hutcheon and Michael Hutcheon M D Lawrence Kramer Roger Parker Mary Ann Smart and Gretchen Wheelock
