Time S Potential Power Petitions 133:

Petitions and Petitioning in Europe and North America from the Late Medieval Period to the Present Richard Huzzey, Maartje Janse, Henry Miller, Joris Oddens, Brodie Waddell, 2024-06-20 The first study of petitioning from the late medieval period to the era of e petitions Petitions and Petitioning in Europe and North America explains why these practices have been central to the exercise and contestation of power across North America and Europe Liquor and the Liberal State Dan Malleck, 2022-05-01 Cultural pastime profitable industry or harmful influence on the nation Liquor was a tricky issue for municipal provincial and federal governments after Confederation Liquor and the Liberal State traces how the Ontario provincial government s takeover of liquor regulation in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries involved both discrete local politics and expansive constitutional questions Dan Malleck explores how notions of individual freedom equality and property rights were debated challenged and modified in response to a vocal prohibitionist movement and equally vocal liquor industry While the liquor licensing regime helped build a vast patronage base for the governing Liberal Party some believed it exceeded the constitutional authority of the province The drink question became as political as it was moral a key issue in the establishment of judicial definitions of provincial and federal rights and ultimately in the crafting of the modern state This lively and meticulous work demonstrates the challenges governments faced when dealing with the seemingly simple but tremendously complicated alcoholic beverage Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy United States. Congress. Senate, 1971 Reporting the Cuban Revolution Leonard Ray Teel, 2015-12-16 Reporting the Cuban Revolution reveals the untold story of thirteen American journalists in Cuba whose stories about Fidel Castro s revolution changed the way Americans viewed the conflict and altered U S foreign policy in Castro s favor Between 1956 and 1959 the thirteen correspondents worked underground in Cuba evading the repressive censorship of Fulgencio Batista s dictatorship in order to report on the rebellion led by Fidel Castro The journalists stories appeared in major newspapers magazines and national television and radio influencing Congress to abruptly cut off shipments of arms to Batista in 1958 Castro was so appreciative of the journalists efforts to publicize his rebellion that on his first visit to the United States as premier of Cuba he invited the reporters to a private reception at the Cuban Embassy in Washington where he presented them with engraved gold medals While the medals revealed Castro s perception of the correspondents as like minded partisans the journalists themselves had no such intentions Some had journeyed to Cuba in pursuit of scoops that could rejuvenate or jump start their careers others sought to promote press freedom in Latin America still others were simply carrying out assignments from their editors Bringing to light the disparate motives and experiences of the thirteen journalists who reported on this crucial period in Cuba s history Reporting the Cuban
