Discretionary maize policy interventions in Malawi Edelman, Brent, 2016-07-28 This study assesses the efficacy of maize export bans in improving food security in Malawi and of minimum farm gate prices in increasing the incomes of Malawian smallholder farmers It relies primarily on price and trade flow analysis using secondary data In brief the analysis shows that neither tool has been particularly effective in recent years in achieving their stated policy objectives On the contrary both maize export bans and minimum farm gate prices have been mostly non binding or even counterproductive in their effects

Religious Education in Malawi and Ghana Yonah Matemba, Richardson Addai-Mununkum, 2021-03-15 Religious Education in Malawi and Ghana contributes to the literature on opportunities and complexities of inclusive approaches to Religious Education RE It analyses how RE in Malawi and Ghana engages with religious pluralisation and provides a compelling case for the need to re evaluate current approaches in the conceptualisation curriculum design and delivery of RE in schools in Malawi and Ghana The book explains how a pervasive tradition of selection involving exclusion and inclusion of religion in RE leads to misrepresentation and in turn to misclusion of non normative religions where religion is included but marginalized and misrepresented The book contributes to wider discourse of RE on opportunities as well as complexities of post confessional approaches including the need for RE to avoid perpetuating the continued legitimisation of selected religions and in the process the delegitimization of the religious other as a consequence of misrepresentation and misclusion Inspired by Braten s methodology for comparative studies in RE the book draws on two qualitative studies from Malawi and Ghana to highlight the pervasive problems of religious misclusion in RE This book will be of great interest for academics scholars and post graduate students in the fields of RE African education educational policy international education and comparative education
