Tirupati Laddu Recipe:

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Indian Cuisine Colleen Taylor Sen, Sourish Bhattacharyya, Helen Saberi, 2023-02-23

This reference work covers the cuisine and foodways of India in all their diversity and complexity including regions personalities street foods communities and topics that have been often neglected The book starts with an overview essay situating the Great Indian Table in relation to its geography history and agriculture followed by alphabetically organized entries The entries which are between 150 and 1 500 words long combine facts with history anecdotes and legends They are supplemented by longer entries on key topics such as regional cuisines spice mixtures food and medicine rites of passages cooking methods rice sweets tea drinks alcoholic and soft and the Indian diaspora This comprehensive volume illuminates contemporary Indian cooking and cuisine in tradition and practice Eating Traditional Food Brigitte Sebastia, 2016-11-18

Due to its centrality in human activities food is a meaningful object that necessarily participates in any cultural social and ideological construction and its qualification as traditional is a politically laden value This book demonstrates that traditionality as attributed to foods goes beyond the notions of heritage and authenticity under which it is commonly formulated Through a series of case studies from a global range of cultural and geographical areas the book explores a variety of contexts to reveal the complexity behind the attribution of the term traditional to food In particular the volume demonstrates that the definitions put forward by programmes such as TRUEFOOD and EuroFIR and subsequently adopted by organisations including FAO which have analysed the perception of traditional foods by individuals do not adequately reflect this complexity The concept of tradition being deeply ingrained culturally socially politically and ideologically traditional foods resist any single definition Chapters analyse the processes of valorisation instrumentalisation and reinvention at stake in the construction and representation of a food as traditional Overall the book offers fresh perspectives on topics including definition and regulation nationalism and identity and health and nutrition and will be of interest to students and researchers of many disciplines including anthropology sociology politics and cultural studies Sweet Excess Ishita Dey, 2025-09-09

This book is an ethnographic work on excess Based on a decade long field work of a single food substance sweets it follows sweet making in sweetshops domestic spaces fairs festivals and its representation in recipe books to understand how caste religion science and law inform the life of a food item with an extremely short shelf life It shows how food items of conspicuous consumption find a meaning in everyday lives of people through its socio cultural meanings ritual pride of craftsmanship heritage and cultural identity It also shows how sweets continue to be a ubiquitous part of Bengali diet in a geography that has been witness to acute hunger starvation food movements and social welfare programmes to ensure food security As a multi sited ethnography on sweetness in diverse settings and its associated meanings in West Bengal and Bangladesh this book explores everyday workplace hierarchies between artisans that reveal how caste and religion inform the choice of who is hired into this line of work It also highlights how discourses on food safety and the overpowering presence of World Trade Organization have affected the life of the Bengali mishti The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of ethnography sociology history and South Asian studies And if you dear reader love mishti you will love this too The Braid Laetitia Colombani,2019-09-24 In this unforgettable international bestseller three women from very different circumstances around the world find their lives intertwined by a single object and discover what connects us across cultures across backgrounds and across borders In India Smita is an untouchable Desperate to give her daughter an education she takes her child and flees her small village with nothing but resourcefulness eventually heading to a temple where she will experience a rebirth In Sicily Giulia works in her father s wig workshop the last of its kind in Palermo She washes bleaches and dyes the hair provided by the city s hairdressers which is now in short supply But when her father is the victim of a serious accident she discovers that the company s financial situation is dire Now she must find a way to save her family s livelihood In Canada Sarah is a successful lawyer and twice divorced mother of three children whose identity is wrapped up in her work Just as she expects a big promotion her life is shattered when she s diagnosed with cancer A moving novel of hope and renewal The Braid is a celebration of womanhood and the power of connection and perseverance
