The Platform Sutra Red Pine, 2006-11-10 An accessible translation of Hui neng's autobiography and teachings completing the classic triumvirate of Zen Ch'an Buddhist sutras It is often linked with The Heart Sutra and The Diamond Sutra to form a trio of texts that have been revered and studied for centuries However unlike the other sutras which transcribe the teachings of the Buddha himself The Platform Sutra presents the autobiography of Hui neng the controversial 6th Patriarch of Zen and his understanding of the fundamentals of a spiritual and practical life Hui neng's instruction still matters the 7th century school of Sudden Awakening that he founded survives today continuing to influence the Rinzai and Soto schools of contemporary Zen Red Pine whose translations of The Heart Sutra and The Diamond Sutra have been celebrated and widely received now provides a sensitive and assured treatment of the third and final sutra of the classic triumvirate He adds remarkable commentary to a translation that combined with the full Chinese text a glossary and notes results in a Mahayana masterpiece sure to become the standard edition for students and seekers alike Higher Truth Irv Jacob, 2013-12 What we need to know about meditation and mindfulness to eliminate stress in our lives is contained in this book This book follows and discusses the Satipatthana meditation scheme pronunciation sati PA tana too often neglected in the West Many additional details about Buddhism are discussed including the very nature of spirituality This as a mysterious human capacity in the way that electricity or mechanics are for most people but more like a puzzle once understood it becomes useful Reading this is a way of doing Buddhism as long as the reader continues meditation The virtue of participating in chanting and other rituals is also explained This is intended as a thorough well documented and simply written presentation Teachings about Purification Anapanasati Heart Precious Bodhicitta Realization Enlightenment and many other technical Buddhist concepts are described There is an extensive glossary and bibliography Domesticating the Dharma Richard D. McBride II, 2007-10-31 Western scholarship has hitherto described the assimilation of Buddhism in Korea in terms of the importation of Sino Indian and Chinese intellectual schools This has led to an overemphasis on the scholastic understanding of Buddhism and overlooked evidence of the way Buddhism was practiced on the ground Domesticating the Dharma provides a much needed corrective to this view by presenting for the first time a descriptive analysis of the cultic practices that defined and shaped the way Buddhists in Silla Korea understood their religion from the sixth to tenth centuries Critiquing the conventional two tiered model of elite versus popular religion Richard McBride demonstrates how the eminent monks royalty and hereditary aristocrats of Silla were the primary proponents of Buddhist cults and that rich and diverse practices spread to the common people because of their influence Drawing on Buddhist hagiography traditional narratives historical anecdotes and epigraphy McBride describes the seminal role of the worship of Buddhist deities in particular the Buddha kyamuni the future buddha Maitreya and the bodhisattva Avalokite vara in the domestication of the religion on the Korean peninsula and the use of imagery from the Maitreya cult to create a symbiosis between the native religious observances of Silla and those being imported from the Chinese cultural sphere He shows how in turn Buddhist imagery transformed Silla intellectually geographically and spatially to represent a Buddha land and sacred locations detailed in the Avata saka S tra Huayan jing Hwa m ky ng Emphasizing the importance of the interconnected vision of the universe described in the Avata saka S tra McBride depicts the synthesis of Buddhist cults and cultic practices that flourished in Silla Korea with the practice oriented Hwa m tradition from the eighth to tenth centuries and its subsequent rise to a uniquely Korean cult of the Divine Assembly described in scripture

AN4 - Collection of Numbered Speeches Tomás Morales y Durán, 2024-03-31 The fourth book of the A guttara Nik ya the Collection of the Numbered Discourses of the Buddha collects 783 suttas or discourses whose subject matter is centered on groups of four topics For example suttas are collected that speak of the four elements The groups of four give rise to repetitions of the type A B A and B and not A and not B or even A not A A and not A and not A and not A They are also employed using four of the five precepts or groups of three to which a third component is added such as belief for example Although this is a book made to be read it is of little or no interest Only some sutta may be interesting although there are none that have a theme that is not intensely explained in the Sa yutta Nikaya Anecdotally it is worth mentioning the suttas AN 4 61 where he says that with his legitimate wealth he defends himself from the threats of such things as fire floods rulers bandits or hateful heirs and AN 4 120 which tells us that the four dangers are fire floods rulers and bandits It is not the only time that the Buddha puts the critical focus on the figure of the rulers whose functions are against all ethics since their job is precisely to steal kill and lie On the opposite side and marked with a double
