

To die or not to die, that is the question; it is nobler to live in torment and rage than not to live at all?

Anne Rice

Thomasma, 1998-08-31 In the Netherlands euthanasia is legal and doctors can openly and intentionally end the life of their patients This book addresses the debate among Dutch physicians policy makers lawyers and bioethicists as well as families using academic papers as well as personal experiences A Library of Fathers of the Holy Catholic Church, Anterior to the Division of the East and West, 1848

Law, Immunization and the Right to Die Jennifer Hardes, 2016-03-10 Law Immunization and the Right to Die focuses on the urgent matter of legal appeals and judicial decisions on assisted death Drawing on key cases from the United Kingdom and Canada the book focuses on the problematic paternalism of legal decisions that currently deny assisted dying and questions why the law fails to recognize what many describe as compassionate motives for assisted death When cases are analyzed as discourses that are part of a larger socio political logic of governance judicial decisions it is argued here reveal themselves as relying on the construction of neoliberal fictions fictions that are here elucidated with reference to Michel Foucault's theoretical insights on pastoral power and Roberto Esposito's philosophical thesis on immunization Challenging the socio political logic of neoliberalism the issue of assisted dying goes beyond the predominant legal concern with protecting or immunizing individuals from one another in favor of minimal interference This book calls for a new kind of politics one that might affirm people and their finitude both more collectively and more compassionately

Preparing to Die Andrew Holecek, 2013-07-09 We all face death but how many of us are actually ready for it Whether our own death or that of a loved one comes first how prepared are we spiritually or practically In Preparing to Die Andrew Holecek presents a wide array of resources to help the reader address this unfinished business Part One shows how to prepare one's mind and how to help others before during and after death The author explains how spiritual preparation for death can completely transform our relationship to the end of life dissolving our fear and helping us to feel open and receptive to letting go in the dying process Daily meditation practices the stages of dying and how to work with them and after death experiences are all detailed in ways that will be particularly helpful for those with an interest in Tibetan Buddhism and in Tibetan approaches to conscious dying Part Two addresses the practical issues that surround death Experts in grief hospice the funeral business and the medical and legal issues of death contribute chapters to prepare the reader for every practical concern including advance directives green funerals the signs of death warnings about the funeral industry the stages of grief and practical care for the dying Part Three contains heart advice from twenty of the best known Tibetan Buddhist masters now teaching in the West These brief interviews provide words of solace and wisdom to guide the dying and their caregivers during this challenging time Preparing to Die is for anyone interested in learning how to prepare for death from a Buddhist perspective both spiritually and practically It is also for those who want to learn how to help someone else who is dying both during the time of illness and death as well as after death
