1. According to PAS 1, an asset shall be classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria, except
 - a. it is expected to be realized in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the entity's normal operating cycle
 - b. it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded
 - c. it is expected to be realized within twelve months after the balance sheet date
 - d. it is cash or a cash equivalent that is restricted

2. A liability shall be classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria, except
 - a. it is expected to be settled in the entity's normal operating cycle
 - b. it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded
 - c. it is due to be settled within twelve months after the balance sheet date
 - d. the entity has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the balance sheet date.

3. If an entity expects, and has the discretion, to refinance or roll over an obligation for at least twelve months after the balance sheet date under an existing loan facility, it classifies the obligation as non-current,
 - a. even if it would otherwise be due within a shorter period.
 - b. even if the original term was for a period longer than twelve months
 - c. even if an agreement to refinance, or to reschedule payments, on a long-term basis is completed after the reporting period and before the financial statements are authorized for issue
 - d. choices b and c

4. When an entity breaches an undertaking under a long-term loan agreement on or before the end of the reporting period with the effect that the liability becomes payable on demand, (choose the incorrect statement)
 - a. The liability is classified as current, even if the lender has agreed, after the balance sheet date and before the authorization of the financial statements for issue, not to demand payment as a consequence of the breach.
 - b. The liability is classified as current because, at the balance sheet date, the entity does not have an unconditional right to defer its settlement for at least twelve months after that date.
 - c. The liability is classified as non-current, even if the lender has agreed, after the balance sheet date and before the authorization of the financial statements for issue, not to demand payment as a consequence of the breach.
 - d. The liability is normally classified as current; however, the liability is classified as non-current if the lender agreed by the balance sheet date to provide a period of grace ending at
