Language, Culture, Literature and Education Marta Degani, Werner Delanoy, 2023-04-24 In one of the contributions to this edited volume an interviewee argues that English is power For researchers in the field of English Studies this raises the questions of where the power of English resides and which types and practices of power are implied in the uses of English Linguists scholars of literature and culture and language educators address aspects of these questions in a wide range of contributions The book shows that the power of English can oscillate between empowerment and subjection on the one hand enabling humans to develop manifold capabilities and on the other constraining their scope of action and reflection In this edited volume a case is made for self critical English Studies to be dialogic empowering and power critical in approach

Tamar Kamionkowski, 2022-11-28 The book of Leviticus provides two different theologies related to God's presence within ancient Israel Leviticus 1:16 was written by an elite caste of priests P and Leviticus 17:26 H was added to the book to democratize access to God While the Priestly work has hardly inspired lay readers the Holiness Writings provide some of the most inspiring and well known verses from the Bible This volume shows how gender dynamics shift between the static worldview of P and the dynamic approach of H and that ironically as holiness expands from the priests to the people from the temple to the land of Israel gender behaviors become more highly regulated This complicates associations between power and gender dynamics and opens the door to questions about the relationships between power gender and theological perspectives
