World University Rankings and the Future of Higher Education Downing, Kevin, Ganotice, Jr., Fraide A., 2016-10-06 Delivering quality education to students while remaining competitive at an international level is only one of the many challenges universities face today To attain their goals universities must adopt new strategies to achieve academic excellence World University Rankings and the Future of Higher Education is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on the implementation of a ranking system for higher education institutions providing a thorough overview of the impacts of these rankings on educational quality Exploring the benefits and challenges of this system in a global context this book is ideally designed for academicians researchers students administrators and policy makers interested in the effects of university rankings in the education sector and beyond Global University Rankings and the Mediatization of Higher Education Michelle Stack, 2016-04-12 Higher Education Institutions simultaneously critique and participate in national and international rankings of universities However this creates a difficult situation since if universities do participate in rankings they acquiesce to a system based in media logics that has little to do with academic norms of research If they do not participate in the rankings they risk losing public funding students and donors in an increasingly competitive and globalized environment This book delves into the influence of journalists business tycoons and multinational corporations in defining what world class is and how it will be measured Rankings provide us with a rich study for understanding how universities define deploy and manage their assets and liabilities in a mediatized globalized economy Research Handbook on University Rankings Hazelkorn, Ellen, Mihut, Georgiana, 2021-12-10 Gathering unique and thoughtful contributions from leading international scholars this timely Research Handbook offers diverse perspectives on university rankings twenty years after the first global rankings emerged It presents an in depth analysis that reflects the current state of research on rankings their influence and impact The New Flagship University John Aubrey Douglass, 2016-01-26 The New Flagship University is an expansive vision for leading national universities and an alternative narrative to global rankings and World Class Universities The Flagship model explores pathways for universities to re shape their missions and operational features to expand their relevancy in the societies that gave them life and purpose The Global Academic Rankings Game Maria Yudkevich, Philip G. Altbach, Laura E. Rumbley, 2016-03-02 The Global Academic Rankings Game provides a much needed perspective on how countries and universities react to academic rankings Based on a unified case methodology of eleven key countries and academic institutions this comprehensive volume provides expert analysis on this emerging phenomenon at a time when world rankings are becoming increasingly visible and influential on the international stage Each chapter provides an overview of government and national policies as well as an in depth examination of the impact that rankings have played on policy practice and academic life in Australia Chile China Germany Malaysia the Netherlands Poland Russia Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States The Global Academic Rankings Game contributes to the continuing debate about the influence of rankings in higher education and is an invaluable resource for higher education scholars and administrators as they tackle rankings in their own national and institutional contexts University of Waterloo , Handbook of Operations Research and Management Science in Higher Education Zilla Sinuany-Stern,2021-09-09 This handbook covers various areas of Higher Education HE in which operations research management science OR MS techniques are used Key examples include international comparisons university rankings and rating academic efficiency with Data Envelopment Analysis DEA formulating academic strategy with balanced scorecard budgeting and planning with linear and quadratic models student forecasting E learning evaluation faculty evaluation with questionnaires and multivariate statistics marketing for HE analytic and educational simulation academic information systems technology transfer with systems analysis and examination timetabling Overviews case studies and findings on advanced OR MS applications in various functional areas of HE are included Advancing Higher Education with Mobile Learning Technologies: Cases, Trends, and Inquiry-Based Methods Keengwe, Jared,Maxfield, Marian B.,2014-07-31 This book examines the implementation and success of mobile digital learning tools with the inclusion of data on specific learning environments enhanced by ubiquitous educational technologies Provided by publisher Measuring University Internationalization Catherine Yuan Gao,2019-08-07 This book investigates university internationalization in different national contexts and compares internationalization performance across national boundaries Internationalization has been recognised by policymakers as the key to perform successfully within the new global context the author identifies primary motivations for universities to embrace this agenda and deconstructs the phenomenon into measurable dimensions and components Using extensive qualitative data from university leaders and practitioners this book analyses the global forces that shape the international education landscape and reviews the existing instruments for measuring internationalization In doing so the author proposes an integrated understanding of university internationalization and indicates benchmarks that can help to quantify and measure this phenomenon This book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of university internationalization Quality Assurance and University Rankings in the Asia Pacific: Country and Institutional Contexts (Penerbit USM) Koo Yew Lie,Sarjit Kaur,Morshidi Sirat,2011 University league tables at national regional international levels are increasingly complex influential and controversial In spite of criticisms on robustness of methodology and bias of indicators higher education institutions continue to have an appetite for them and use or misuse them in their planning policymaking and promotion activities This publication will contribute to the much needed analysis of the implications benefits and unintended consequences related to rankings and the broader issues of quality assurance in the Asia Pacific region The Oxford Handbook of Higher Education in the Asia-Pacific Region Devesh Kapur,Lily Kong,Florence Lo,David M. Malone,2023-01-11 Since the turn of the millennium it has become clear that the Asia Pacific Region is economically the fastest growing continent in the world and is likely to remain so for some time despite the setbacks of the COVID 19 pandemic Asia Pacific s share of the world s Gross Domestic Product

GDP doubled from 15 per cent to 30 per cent between 1970 and 2017 and is projected to account for half of global GDP by 2050 With South East and South Asia also growing rapidly with over half the world s population and three of the world s five largest economies Asia is soon poised to home half of the world s middle class a class that is both the driver and the product of higher education The quality of a country s system of higher education may be seen both as a gauge of its current level of national development as well as of its future economic prospects It is therefore natural that the putative Asian Century should generate interest in the region s higher education systems which on the one hand share common characteristics a fixation with credentials and engineering high technology especially among male students and business degrees while at the same time are also highly differentiated not only across countries but also within As such a better understanding of higher education achievements failings potential and structural limitations in the Asia Pacific Region is imperative This handbook presents a number of significant country case studies and documents cross cutting trends relating to among other things the trilemma faced by governments juggling competing claims of access accessible cost and quality the balance between teaching and research the links between labour markets demand and higher education supply preferred fields of study and their consequences the rise of the research university in Asia the lure of institutions of international reputation within the region new education technologies and their effects and trends in government policy within the wider region and sub regions

America Providing analysis that can be used to engage institutions of higher education in the difficult but necessary conversation of accountability The ^AHuman Rights-Based Approach to Higher Education Jane Kotzmann,2018-04-05 This book seeks to determine if there is still a place for the human right to higher education in the current international context It compares and contrasts two general theoretical models that are used to frame higher education policy the market based approach and the human rights based approach It contributes to an understanding of the likely effectiveness of each approach to higher education provision in terms of teaching and learning This understanding should enable the development of more improved sophisticated and ultimately successful higher education policies Academic Irregularities Liz Morrish,Helen Sauntson,2019-08-23 This volume serves as a critical examination of the discourses at play in the higher education system and the ways in which these discourses underpin the transmission of neoliberal values in 21st century universities Situated within a Critical Discourse Analysis based framework the book also draws upon other linguistic approaches including corpus linguistics and appraisal analysis to unpack the construction and development of the management style known as managerialism emergent in the 1990s US and UK higher education systems and the social dynamics and power relations embedded within the discourses at the heart of managerialism in today s universities Each chapter introduces a particular aspect of neoliberal discourse in higher education and uses these multiple linguistic approaches to analyze linguistic data in two case studies and demonstrate these principles at work This multi layered systematic linguistic framework allows for a nuanced exploration of neoliberal institutional discourse and its implications for academic labor offering a critique of the managerial system in higher education but also a larger voice for alternative discursive narratives within the academic community This important work is a key resource for students and scholars in applied linguistics Critical Discourse Analysis sociology business and management studies education and cultural studies

Higher education for public good Noluthando S. Matsiliza,2023-03-01 This book focuses on the knowledge area of higher education governance organisational dynamics leadership and decolonisation We have observed that governance discourse has been excluded in debates that concern the public good The construct of public good seeks to support higher education that does not support a capitalist view of profit making arguably to respond to societal demands and needs such as developmental efforts through academic functions Higher Education focuses on interconnected multi disciplinary constructs intending to provide services for the public good The issue of public good is an interesting construct that puts universities on the spot since they are expected to be responsive to environmental changes and stakeholder needs through the functioning of accountable governance structures These governance structures are compelled to comply with policy demands within external and internal environmental factors This experience has exposed universities to systematic challenges that are local regional and global and which forces them to adapt while serving stakeholders and society This book will also interrogate the governance of South African public universities in the post decolonisation era and new demands from stakeholders A
