God I Am Hurting and I Want to Be Made Whole Again Martha M. Boyd, 2013-09-30 As I look around day after day at the body of Christ as a whole many members but one body of Christ my spirit is grieved Pastor teacher preacher Christian leader our leaders are becoming weary and they are no longer walking in the strong faith they once walked in Day after day I am face to face with yet another weary wounded believer who is willing to quit and give up rather than get to the secret of the matter at hand I have found myself teaching preaching to another with a wounded broken heart while my heart was bleeding worse than the one whom I was helping I found depression whatever pressed you could name I was connected to it Just down and out I could not even get out of bed for weeks at a time All I wanted to do was to help others become healed of their wounded issues while I was covering up still in fragments myself I see so many wounded leaders in charge of so many souls who are hurting and needing Gods help to make them whole they are hurting and wounded themselves A question of our covered up wounded heart that my spiritual radar tuned into is whom do we as spiritual leaders turn to when we are wounded and bleeding from our issues I hear over and over from spiritual leaders whom do we talk to when we find ourselves as Paul puts it in trouble on every side case down perplexed and even persecuted who do we turn to What step or tools does a leader who shepherds over many souls have to use to express in daily life how not to feel distressed despair forsaken or destroyed How can you and I as leaders help a wounded Christian in the need to be made whole when we ourselves are still in fragments uncompleted fragile easily broken broken in many pieces not all together ourselves I have learned over the years as a spiritual leader that we have learned how to cover up our wounds well we have learned to cover up our pain and hurt that were afflicted upon us by Broken: Only to be Made Whole Mariea Calhoun Smith, 2009-10-30 Joyce I often called you by your name and very seldom called you momma but I must admit that you did the best that you could with what you had I truly forgave you in my heart but there were times when it wasn't shown I miss you momma I missed you as friend and someone to talk to Even though the time was lost and is no more I promised myself to do better and be the best mother I can be God has given me another chance to be a mother and I will love hard and even harder because I want what's best for my children Even though my children are grown I can't undo what has been done but if given a chance I will love them hard and be there for them when they call And All Is Made Whole Once Again Katherine Alley, 2010-10-26 Im pregnant The words hang suspended and Annette Anderson feels like all the air is suddenly gone Annette and her seventeen year old daughter Issie are about to embark on a compelling journey together through a controversial choice that will tear at the fabric of their relationship expose Annettes childhood secrets and feelings of inadequacy as a mother and help both realize that love has the capability to heal even the deepest wounds Everyone thinks Annette is taking a day off from work to relax and have fun when in reality she is accompanying Issie to an appointment that will change their lives and their relationship As both women navigate a challenging path of not just one but many complex decisions traumatic memories rise to the surface and Annette realizes she must reconcile her own past experiences in order to help Issie move forward through her own pain Life is about choices and many choices have no clear answers And All Is Made Whole Once Again is a poignant love story that illuminates the human experience an emotional test and the inner strength of two women who manage to transform an all too common heartbreak into love Heart Made Whole Christa Black Gifford, 2016-06-07 In Heart Made Whole Christa Black Gifford shares her own stories of loss betrayal and personal tragedy chronicling clear steps to redemption to help those in pain invite the true Healer into the tangled mess of their broken hearts Gifford reminds readers that pain is not their enemy however unhealed pain can become their greatest foe if it is not taken to Jesus Growing up as a preacher's kid Gifford had been submerged in Christian culture for decades when she uncovered the truth that there were broken parts of her heart that weren't on friendly terms with the God who lived inside Through disappointments and traumas she had learned to guard her heart from God keeping her angry entrapped and disconnected As struggles and hardships continued she finally learned to run towards her relationship with God when things got hard instead of running away from Him like she had in the past The more that she did this building her heart's capacity for intimacy and deep relationship the more her heart began to heal from the inside out She teaches the reader to access the solution that's already living inside of them the God who forever made their heart a home When trials and tragedy hit our lives in a fallen world our hearts can get smashed to bits and we end up putting God on trial and blaming Him for the mess But Christa helps readers understand that they don't have to live controlled by their circumstances or angry with God Instead she provides powerful insight and practical steps to turn the painful fire that comes to destroy us into an unexpected friend that can produce our greatest healing The condition of the heart determines the condition of life and the heart can be bound up and healed producing freedom and abundant life With personal workbook sections for each chapter Christa helps readers experience steps to turn their pain into the healing and wholeness available to every believer Hearts Made Whole (Beacons of Hope Book #2) Jody Hedlund, 2015-05-26 1865 Windmill Point Michigan Can She Forgive the Hurting Man Who Costs Her the Role She Loves After her father's death Caroline Taylor has grown confident running the Windmill Point Lighthouse But in 1865 Michigan women aren't supposed to have such roles so it's only a matter of time before the lighthouse inspector appoints a new keeper even though Caroline has nowhere else to go and no other job available to her Ryan Chambers is a Civil War veteran still haunted by the horrors of battle He's secured the position of lighthouse keeper mostly for the isolation the chance to hide from his past is appealing He's not expecting the current keeper to be a feisty and beautiful woman who's angry with him for taking her job and for his inability to properly run the light When his failings endanger others he and Caroline realize he's in no shape to run the lighthouse but he's unwilling to let anyone close enough to help Caroline feels drawn to this wounded soul but with both of them relying on that single position can they look past their loss to a future filled with hope and possibly love Walking by the Spirit George Macgiver, 2016-02-14 Truth Is

Wilcox,2015 According to conventional international relations theory states or groups make war and in doing so kill and injure people that other states are charged with protecting While it sees the perpetrators of violence as rational actors it views those who are either protected or killed by this violence as mere bodies ahistorical humans who breathe suffer and die but have no particular political agency In its rationalist variants IR theory only sees bodies as inert objects Constructivist theory argues that subjects are formed through social relations but leaves the bodies of subjects outside of politics as brute facts According to Wilcox such limited thinking about bodies and violence is not just wrong but also limits the capacity of IR to theorize the meaning of political violence By contrast to rationalist and constructivist theory feminist theory sees subjectivity and the body as inextricably linked This book argues that IR needs to rethink its approach to bodies as having particular political meaning in their own right For example bodies both direct violent acts violence in drone warfare for example and are constituted by practices that manage violence for example scrutiny of persons as bodies through biometric technologies and body scanners The book also argues that violence is more than a strategic action of rational actors as in rationalist theories or a destructive violation of community laws and norms as in liberal and constructivist theories Because IR theorizes bodies as outside of politics it cannot see how violence can be understood as a creative force for shaping the limits of how we understand ourselves as political subjects as well as forming the boundaries of our political communities By engaging with feminist theories of embodiment and violence Bodies of Violence provides a more nuanced treatment of the nexus of bodies subjects and violence than currently exists in the field of international relations
