Routledge Handbook of the Climate Change Movement Matthias Dietz,Heiko

Garrelts,2014-01-10 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the growing transnational climate movement A dual focus on climate politics and civil society provides a hitherto unavailable broad and systematic analysis of the current global movement highlighting how its dynamic and diverse character can play an important role in environmental politics and climate protection The range of contributors from well known academics to activist scholars look at climate movements in the developed and developing world north and south small and large central and marginal The movement is examined as a whole and as single actors thereby capturing its scope structure development activities and influence The book thoroughly addresses theoretical approaches from classic social movement theory to the influence of environmental justice frames and follows this with a systematic focus on regions specific NGOs and activists cases and strategies as well as relations with peripheral groups In its breadth balance and depth this accessible volume offers a fresh and important take on the question of social mobilization around climate change making it an essential text for advanced undergraduates postgraduate students and researchers in the social sciences

Growing Up in an Urbanizing World Louise Chawla,2016-05-13 Half the world s children live in cities and the proportion is growing Their environment critically determines their futures and the world they will make as adults This text by an interdisciplinary team of international child environment authorities explores how crucial the relationship of the young and their surroundings is Covering eight countries it shows the enormous benefits for them for the wider society and for the future of involving children especially from underprivileged communities in planning and implementing urban improvements It continues and updates Kevin Leech s pioneering 1970s MIT project Growing Up in Cities

South Africa Foundation News South Africa Foundation,1975

Reflections of South African Student Leaders: 1994 to 2017 Ntokozo Bhengu,Denyse Webbstock,2020-05-13 Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 2017 brings together the reflections of twelve former SRC leaders from across the landscape of South African universities Reviews of the previous volume 1981 2014 suggested that it contributed significantly to a better understanding of the stringent demands of visionary and transformative leadership required by university leaders in the fastchanging and increasingly complex public higher education sector This volume is based on comprehensive interviews with former student leaders each of whom provided a personal account in their own words of their experience in the position of student leadership The interviewees are from different backgrounds and of diverse political persuasions The book is important for current and future leaders of higher education institutions as it provides insights into the thinking aspirations desires fears and modus operandi of student leaders Such insight can contribute to developing and implementing appropriate strategies for achieving meaningful and constructive engagement with current and future student leaders

Dear Comrade President André Odendaal,2022-08-01 In his annual presidential address on 8 January 1986 ANC president Oliver Tambo called on South Africans to make apartheid ungovernable through armed action and militant struggle But unknown to the world on that very day the quiet spoken mathematics teacher and aspirant priest turned reluctant revolutionary had also set up a secret think tank in Lusaka which he named the Constitution Committee giving it an ad hoc unique exercise that had no precedent in the history of the movement Knowing that all wars end at a negotiating table and judging the balance of forces to be moving in favour of the liberation movement Tambo wanted the ANC to hold the initiative after the fall of apartheid Assisted by Pallo Jordan he instructed his new think tank to formulate the principles and draft the outlines of a constitution that could unite South Africa when the time came to talk in the fledgling days of freedom and democracy The seven member team including Albie Sachs Kader Asmal and Zola Skweyiya started deliberating and reporting to Tambo In correspondence they typically addressed him as Dear Comrade President Drawing on the personal archives of participants Dear Comrade President explains how the purposeful first steps were taken in the making of South Africa's Constitution Why and how did this process happen What were the first written words When and where were they put on paper By whom What values did they espouse And how did the committee's work fit into the broader struggle This book answers these questions in new paradigm shifting ways

Black Enterprise, 1992-02 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Legitimacy, Legal Development and Change David K.

Linnan, 2016-04-22 This book addresses critical questions about how legal development works in practice Can law be employed to shape behavior as a form of social engineering or must social behavior change first relegating legal change to follow as ratification or reinforcement And what is legal development's source of legitimacy if not modernization But by the same token whose version of modernization will predominate absent a Western monopoly on change There are now legal development alternatives especially from Asia so we need a better way to ask the right questions of different approaches primarily in non Western Asia Africa the Islamic world plus South America Incoming waves of change like the Arab spring lie on the horizon Meanwhile debates are sharpening about law's role in economic development versus democracy and governance under the rubric of the rule of law More than a general survey of law and modernization theory and practice this work is a timely reference for practitioners of institutional reform and a thought provoking interdisciplinary collection of essays in an area of renewed practical and scholarly interest The contributors are a distinguished international group of scholars and practitioners of law development social sciences and religion with extensive experience in the developing world

South Africa News Update, 1992 Consists of reproductions of articles from South African newspapers Changing Curriculum Jonathan D. Jansen, Pam Christie, 1999 The introduction of Outcomes based Education OBE is the most controversial reform in the history of South African education This volume is a critical analysis of OBE its potential to succeed and its inherent implications for the education system The People Shall Govern! Antawan I. Byrd, 2020-10-13 A revelatory and informative presentation of the anti apartheid posters created by Medu Art Ensemble Formed in the late 1970s Medu Art Ensemble forcefully articulated a call to end the apartheid system's racial segregation and violent injustice through posters that combined revolutionary imagery with bold slogans Advocating for decolonization and majority nonwhite rule in South Africa and neighboring countries Medu members were persecuted by the South African Defense Force and operated in exile across the border in Botswana The People Shall Govern features nearly all the surviving posters that Medu created between 1979 and 1985 These objects are exceedingly rare as they were originally smuggled into South Africa and mounted in public places where they were regularly confiscated or torn down on sight Offering new insight into the conceptual framework of Medu s working practice and featuring a beautiful silkscreened cover this volume examines the continuing relevance and impact of its poster production Regionalism, Security and Development in Africa Ernest Tooche Aniche,Ikenna Mike Alumona,Inocent Moyo,2021-04-29 This book charts the history and contemporary landscape of African regionalism investigating how regional cooperation can be used to help to tackle security and development challenges in Africa Africa has a long tradition of regional cooperation with the oldest trade and monetary integration schemes in the developing world but its colonial period and partition of have caused lasting damage that still be seen in today s African economies Contemporary post colonial African regionalism deeply rooted in notions of pan Africanism has served as a means of collective self reliance and economic transformation and development This book starts with the history and theory behind African regionalism before discussing and comparing regional organisations such as the Economic Community of Central African States ECCAS the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS the Community of Sahel Saharan States CEN SAD Southern African Development Community SADC the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the East African Community EAC Finally the book considers how regional integration and cooperation can help to address security and development challenges This ambitious and broad ranging book will be a valuable resource for researchers working on African regionalism security African integration and development and comparative regionalism Policymakers should also consider it a useful guide to the background and contemporary landscape of African regionalism

Liberation in Southern Africa Tor Sellström,2002 The interviews in this book were conducted for the Nordic Africa Institute s research project National Liberation in Southern Africa The role of the Nordic countries Around 80 representatives of the Southern African liberation movements as well as Swedish and other opinion makers administrators and politicians reflect on the Nordic support to these struggles Prominent contemporary leaders among them Joaquim Chissano from Mozambique Kenneth Kaunda from Zambia and Thabo Mbeki from South Africa give their views on a relationship that largely developed outside the public arena and of which there is scant evidence in open sources The book is a reference source to a unique North South relationship in the Cold War period Movers & Shakers Reg Rumney,Janet Wilhelm,1999 Social Licensing and Mining in South Africa Sethulego Matebesi,2019-12-05 This book highlights the role of community trusts in social licencing through the lens of mining and mining disputes in South Africa Employing elements of trust acceptance and elite interaction as a framework this book critically investigates the underlying dynamics of community development trusts and also the response of host communities to the inherent dilemma of the SLO concept namely social legitimisation versus corporate profits Looking at formal versus informal regulatory requirements popular mobilisation and the interaction between the local population and mining companies this book constitutes a thorough look at the issues surrounding mining in South Africa and its effect on society This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African studies business in Africa corporate responsibility and development studies Guerrillas and Combative Mothers Siphokazi Magadla, 2023-12-01 Guerrillas and Combative Mothers is a narrative of women participating in the armed struggle against apartheid from 1961 to 1994 and their lives in a democratic South Africa Focusing on their agency commitment beliefs and actions it describes how women got politicised and the decisions and circumstances that led them to join the armed struggle in South Africa and exile Siphokazi Magadla discusses the forms of military training they received the combat activities and their transformation as women and soldiers Magadla also talks about their participation in the South African National Defence Force led demobilisation process and their contributions to the democratic transformation of the SANDF By illuminating the different eras and arenas of their participation this book shows the broadness of the armed struggle against apartheid as a historical truth and as a matter of gender equality and justice for an inclusive and more democratic future

Behold the Turtle Bonang Mohale, 2021-11-05 Behold the turtle he only makes progress when his neck is stuck out This proverb included in Bonang Mohale's best selling first book Lift As You Rise sets the tone for his second book which includes fresh insights and wisdom from one of South Africa's best loved leaders As a change agent defender of democracy and a social justice activist Bonang continues to stick his own neck out addressing issues of key societal importance Following on from the success of his first book his new book Behold the Turtle Thoughts on Ethically Principled Leadership expands on issues of leadership resilience ethics and social justice sounding a call for change Never one to avoid tough issues Bonang tackles the role that business institutions of higher learning and other organisations need to play in creating South Africa's future as well as the risk and responsibility required of each of us as individuals The book incorporates insights from Bonang's respected colleagues such as Mteto Nyati Adrian Gore Andile Nomlala Vukani Mngxati and Nicola Kleyn who add personal lessons and anecdotes creating a pool of wisdom from which readers can drink deeply Citing Alexander the Great Bonang says I am not afraid of an army of lions led by a sheep I am afraid of an army of sheep led by a lion This book focuses on ethical leadership and embracing our own agency A MUST READ Professor Bonang F Mohale is the Chancellor of the University of the Free State Professor of Practice at the Johannesburg Business School JBS College of Business and Economics Chairman of both Bidvest Group Limited and SBV Services President of Business Unity South Africa former CEO of Business Leadership South Africa and past president of the Black Management Forum There is no Supreme Constitution Koos Malan, 2019-10-04 None of the articles of faith of the South African Constitution is plausible The Constitution is not supreme and entrenched Subject to potent socio political forces it changes continuously and often profoundly regardless of stringent amendment requirements The trite threefold separation of powers is more metaphorical than real and therefore unable to secure effective checks and balances Though institutionally separated with their own personnel and functions the three powers are ordinarily integrated in a single dominant political leadership committed to achieving the same ideological goals The bill of individual rights cannot guarantee justice because rights are subject to the ideologically driven exercise of judicial interpretation often with damaging consequences for those relying on the bill of rights This situation does not only apply to South Africa but to all Constitutions premised on the same articles of faith in this book described as the doctrine of statist individualist constitutionalism An improved mode of constitutionalism is called for one which is equipped with a sounder system of checks and balances and better endowed towards the achievement of justice through a balanced constitution
