The Saga of Tanya the Evil, Vol. 18 (manga) Carlo Zen, 2023-01-17 As the second and third phases of Operation Shock and Awe move forward Tanya and the designated company of the 203rd Battalion prepare for a leisurely flight home. The Empire's victory seems close at hand which only makes it more of a surprise when two battalions of aerial mages led by the Commonwealth's most storied ace of aces run into Tanya on their way to sneak attack Western Army Group HQ. While it's surely too late for the Commonwealth to turn the tide by finally entering the war, taking out this under-equipped quarter of the 203rd is far more achievable. The Saga of Tanya the Evil, Vol. 15 (manga) Carlo Zen, 2021-11-30 After surviving the hellish urban warfare in Arene, the members of the 203rd Battalion are ordered to move on to their next assignment: defending a tactical withdrawal of the entire army from the rear guard. They'll be up against the brunt of the Republican Army which now has a bone to pick with the hated Devil of the Rhine. The Republicans put up quite the fight in Arene and the threat they pose is greater than ever before. The Saga of Tanya the Evil, Vol. 9 (manga) Carlo Zen, 2020-01-28 Only a step away from their demise, the Regadonia Entente Alliance desperately pushes for a government in exile. Meanwhile, the notorious Rusted Silver Tanya von Degurechaff faces off against Colonel Anson Sue in another fatal battle that threatens to change the course of the entire war and her chances of promotion. The Saga of Tanya the Evil, Vol. 8 (manga) Carlo Zen, 2019-10-29 Finally, the Osfjord clash between Major Tanya von Degurechaff and Colonel Anson Sue of the Regadonia Entente Alliance reaches its climax. Who will emerge victorious in this fierce showdown between two world powers? With the fate of the entire aerial mage battalion and the Imperial fleet resting on her tiny shoulders, failure is not an option for this vertically challenged major, certainly not when her reputation's on the line. The Saga of Tanya the Evil, Vol. 17 (manga) Carlo Zen, 2022-08-23 The 203rd Battalion's manned V-1 rocket assault, a mission that will determine the fate of the Empire, has thrown the Franco-British Republic's headquarters into chaos, and Tanya, along with a company of her toughest elites, is right on its doorstep to finish the job. As the Commonwealth waffles over its next moves, lulled into complacency by the Empire's retreat from the Rhine, General Zettour unveils the next phase of his devilishly brilliant strategy. The Saga of Tanya the Evil, Vol. 19 (manga) Carlo Zen, 2023-04-18 After surviving the Commonwealth's assault, the 203rd Battalion advances toward Parisii, the capital of the Franco-British Republic. Mocking the Republican Army's feeble attempts at resistance, Tanya assures herself that there's no way the Empire could get Dunkirked like its equivalent from her previous life, but when her knowledge of history clues her in to something no one else can see, she may have to take matters into her own hands.

Repair the World Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years. In the age of trauma, culture, art, and literature have a new purpose: to do justice, to console, comfort, and heal. Drawing on works of twenty-first-century French language literature, this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy, help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood, and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen s wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature s effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre s post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly

that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature's mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK
