Voyeur At My Window English Edition:

Natural History Dan Chiasson, 2009-04-02 Dan Chiasson hailed as one of the most gifted poets of his generation upon the appearance of his first book takes inspiration for his stunning new collection from the Historia Naturalis of Pliny the Elder What happens next you won't believe Chiasson writes in From the Life of Gorky and it is fair warning This collection suggests that a person is like a world full of mysteries and wonders and equally in need of an encyclopedia a compendium of everything known The long title sequence offers entries such as The Sun There is one mind in all of us one soul who parches the soil in some nations but in others hides perpetually behind a veil The Elephant How to explain my heroic courtesy The Pigeon Once startled you shall feel hours of weird sadness afterwards and Randall Jarrell If language hurts you make the damage real The mysteriously emotional individual poems coalesce as a group to suggest that our natural world is populated not just by fascinating creatures who in any case are metaphors for the human as Chiasson considers them but also by literature by the ghosts of past poetries by our personal ghosts Toward the end of the sequence one poem asks simply Which Species on Earth Is Saddest a question this book seems poised to answer But Chiasson is not finally defeated by the sorrows and disappointments that maturity brings Combining a classic often heartbreaking musical line with a playful fresh attack on the standard materials of poetry he makes even our sadness beguiling and beautiful Hitchcock's Romantic Irony Richard Allen, 2007 Is Hitchcock a superficial though brilliant entertainer or a moralist Do his films celebrate the ideal of romantic love or subvert it In a new interpretation of the director's work Richard Allen argues that Hitchcock orchestrates the narrative and stylistic idioms of popular cinema to at once celebrate and subvert the ideal of romance and to forge a distinctive worldview the amoral outlook of the romantic ironist or aesthete He describes in detail how Hitchcock's characteristic tone is achieved through a titillating combination of suspense and black humor that subverts the moral framework of the romantic thriller and a meticulous approach to visual style that articulates the lure of human perversity even as the ideal of romance is being deliriously affirmed Discussing more than thirty films from the director's English and American periods Allen explores the filmmaker's adoption of the idioms of late romanticism his orchestration of narrative point of view and suspense and his distinctive visual strategies of aestheticism and expressionism and surrealism

Cinema-Interval Trinh T. Minh-ha, 2013-05-13 An image is powerful not necessarily because of anything specific it offers the viewer but because of everything it apparently also takes away from the viewer Trinh T Minh ha Vietnamese filmmaker and feminist thinker Trinh T Minh ha is one of the most powerful and articulate voices in independent filmmaking In her writings and interviews as well as in her filmscripts Trinh explores what she describes as the infinite relation of word to image Cinema Interval brings together her recent conversations on film and art life and theory with Homi Bhabha Deb Verhoeven Annamaria Morelli and other critics Together these interviews offer the richest presentation of this extraordinary artist's ideas Extensively illustrated in color and black and white Cinema Interval covers a wide range of issues many of them concerning the space between viewer and film image and text interviewer and interviewee lover and beloved As an added bonus the complete scripts of Trinh's films Surname Viet Given Name Nam and A Tale of Love are also included in the volume Cinema Interval will be an essential work for readers interested in contemporary film art feminist thought and postcolonial studies

The Imprint of Gender Wendy Wall, 1993 What did it mean to be published at the end of the sixteenth century While in polite circles gentlemen exchanged handwritten letters published authors risked association with the low born masses Examining a wide range of published material including sonnets pageants prefaces narrative poems and title pages Wendy Wall considers how the idea of authorship was shaped by the complex social controversies generated by publication during the English Renaissance

Tropics of Savagery Robert Thomas Tierney, 2010-05-20 Tropics of Savagery is an incisive and provocative study of the figures and tropes of savagery in Japanese colonial culture Through a rigorous analysis of literary works ethnographic studies and a variety of other discourses Robert Thomas Tierney demonstrates how imperial Japan constructed its own identity in relation both to the West and to the people it colonized By examining the representations of Taiwanese aborigines and indigenous Micronesians in the works of prominent writers he shows that the trope of the savage underwent several metamorphoses over the course of Japan's colonial period violent headhunter to be subjugated ethnographic other to be studied happy primitive to be exoticized and hybrid colonial subject to be assimilated

Paradox and Perspicacity Robert G. Eisenhauer, 2005 Paradox and Perspicacity Horizons of Knowledge in the Literary Text enters into a dialogue with recent scholarship on a number of fronts Taking into full account the role played by esotericism in shaping the thought of Leibniz Cardano and the Helmonts Robert Eisenhauer elaborates Lessing's cybernetic view of historical evolution The essay on Jean Paul's ars recombinationis discusses how the discourses of travel cosmology and millennial speculation are applied to a Diderot inspired project of encyclopedic emancipation concluding with remarks on the author's pedagogical relevance to German speaking Jews At mid century Margaret Fuller's feminist texts place a Fourierist edge on the consensual reading of Richter while The Blithedale Romance represents pastoral utopia as a site of mesmeric or indeed entropic dislocation Henry James's The Europeans revisits Blithedale as a ship of fools where the vehicular provides a metaphor for fiction and narrative itself becomes identified with iconic distress The remaining essays treat Pound in the context of gemology and courtliness quasi direct discourse in Dostoevsky and the role of Zeno's paradox in Claude Simon's fiction

The Erotic Thriller in Contemporary Cinema Linda Ruth Williams, 2005 This bold and original book examines in detail a relatively new genre of film the erotic thriller Linda Ruth Williams traces the genre's exploitation of pornography and noir discusses mainstream stars including Michael Douglas and Sharon Stone as well as genre branded direct to video stars charts the work of key producers and directors and considers home videos as a distinct form of viewing pleasure She maps the history of the genre analyzing hundreds of movies from blockbusters such as Basic Instinct Fatal Attraction and In the Cut to straight to video film titles such as Carnal Crimes Sins of Desire and Night Eyes Williams's witty and illuminating readings tell the story of this sensational genre and contribute to the analysis of mainstream screen sex and its censorship at the beginning of the 21st century She shows that as the erotic thriller plays out the sexual fantasies of contemporary America it also provides a vehicle for marketing those fantasies globally

Strayed Homes Edwina Attlee, 2021-12-16 Poetic and political Strayed Homes invites architects interior designers and urbanists to think again about common concepts in architecture private public and home Whereas most writing about the public private focusses on urban space this book focusses on the domestic exploring those overlooked everyday places where private and intimate activities take place in public With four chapters set in four small liminal spaces the launderette the greasy spoon the fire escape and the sleeper train the book is part architectural history part cultural history It follows a series of allusions and impressions to explore how films adverts books and anecdotes shape experiences of everyday architecture Making a case for the poetic interpretation of space the book can be used as a sourcebook for architects designers and theorists alike prompting the reader to rethink the emotional state of leaving home intimacy in public and lonely dreaming

European Cinema Thomas Elsaesser, 2025-10-01 In the face of renewed competition from Hollywood since the early 1980s and the challenges posed to Europe's national cinemas by the fall of the Wall in 1989 independent filmmaking in Europe has begun to re-invent itself European Cinema Face to Face with Hollywood re-assesses the different debates and presents a broader framework for understanding the forces at work since the 1960s These include the interface of world cinema and the rise of Asian cinemas the importance of the international film festival circuit the role of television as well as the changing aesthetics of auteur cinema New audiences have different allegiances and new technologies enable networks to reshape identities but European cinema still has an important function in setting critical and creative agendas even as its economic and institutional bases are in transition

Pint of Contention Susannah Nix, 2022-09-13 They've both got good reasons to fight falling in love but they can't resist the overpowering attraction pulling them together MAGGIE Wicked Witch Ballbuster The Terminator Those are just a few of the nicknames I've earned in my professional life As the executive consultant King's Creamery has brought in to save them from financial ruin I have to decide which employees get the ax I can't afford to make friends or get chummy with my new neighbors Try telling that to the enormous hunky fireman next door who's annoyingly determined to make friends with me It's not enough that the guy saves kittens from trees tosses tree trunks around while wearing a kilt and has a body that makes Thor look puny He also works out shirtless in full view of my kitchen window I might be secretly obsessed When a newspaper expos turns the whole town against me my hot fireman neighbor steps up to act as my protector and my secret obsession threatens to turn into a case of serious feelings But I can't allow that to happen when I'm only here temporarily I've got to keep my walls up to protect the heart everyone thinks I don't have RYAN My new neighbor might act like she wants nothing to do with me but I've seen her watching me from her window I can tell she likes what she sees and I love pushing her buttons a little too much I've got no restraint when it comes to this woman Now I'm screwed because I can't get her out of my head The more time I spend with Maggie the more I suspect she might be the soul mate I've been waiting for all my life Of course I'd find her now when I can't risk letting her get too close If she does she might discover the secret I've been keeping from everyone Soul mate or not I've got to let her go Even if it kills me PINT OF CONTENTION is book 3 in the King Family series set in the small town of Crowder Texas home of the King's Creamery ice cream company Each book is a standalone full length contemporary romance that follows one of the six King siblings as they find and fight for love

Life Was Simpler Then Michael Carolin, 2003-12 At a time when being poor was the norm and neighbors had a meaningful place in what is now referred to as just the hood growing up was much simpler Humor was the narcotic du jour and the poor to be pitied were in China or some other far off place Single parent families were almost unheard of Mothers were homemakers and fathers provided as best they could Without television or the Internet radio and a movie matinee would nurture a child's imagination providing limitless possibilities This provided an inexpensive high lost on today's younger generation The author will take you back on a humorous trip meeting his immediate family his colorful relatives and the adventurous friends with whom he grew up He writes of the cheerful optimism that was prevalent Depression was to him and his peers a financial term Making do was a way of life
