

A photograph of a large, multi-story building with Gothic architectural features, including pointed arch windows and a central tower. The building is partially covered in ivy. In the foreground, there are trees with vibrant autumn foliage in shades of orange, red, and yellow. A paved walkway leads towards the building, and a few people can be seen walking in the distance. The overall scene is set during the day under a clear sky.

The Progressive Revolution Ellis Washington, 2016-12-13 His tenth book The Progressive Revolution Volume V continues his legal historical and literary series based on Natural Law, Natural Rights and the original political philosophy of the constitutional Framers and original jurisprudence of the U.S. Supreme Court. Washington systematically chronicles both the historical significance and political deconstruction that the Progressive Revolution or the Progressive Age circa 1860 present has perpetrated against Western Civilization and American society even to this day. These volumes are a collection of selected essays, articles and Socratic dialogues from Washington's weekly columns published in RenewAmerica.com, an essential news and opinion website of primarily conservative writers and ideas. This opus Volume V 2014-15 Writings which rather than being arranged chronologically by date are organized topically according to their subject matter of 16 intellectual disciplines including Law, Politics, Foreign Policy, Philosophy, Aesthetics, the Academy, Religion, Economics, Science, Medicine, Math, Engineering, Culture, Society, History and Legal Scholarship.

Academic Writing, Real World Topics Michael Rectenwald, Lisa Carl, 2015-05-28 Academic Writing Real World Topics fills a void in the writing across the curriculum textbook market. It draws together articles and essays of actual academic prose as opposed to journalism; it arranges material topically as opposed to by discipline or academic division and it approaches topics from multiple disciplinary and critical perspectives. With extensive introductions, rhetorical instruction and suggested additional resources accompanying each chapter, Academic Writing Real World Topics introduces students to the kinds of research and writing that they will be expected to undertake throughout their college careers and beyond. Readings are drawn from various disciplines across the major divisions of the university and focus on issues of real import to students today including such topics as living in a digital culture, learning from games, learning in a digital age, living in a global culture, our post human future, surviving economic crisis and assessing armed global conflict. The book provides students with an introduction to the diversity, complexity and connectedness of writing in higher education today. Part I, a short Guide to Academic Writing, teaches rhetorical strategies and approaches to academic writing within and across the major divisions of the academy. For each writing strategy or essay element treated in the Guide the authors provide examples from the reader or from one of many resources included in each chapter s Suggested Additional Resources Part II Real World Topics also refers extensively to the Guide Thus the Guide shows student writers how to employ scholarly writing practices as demonstrated by the readings while the readings invite students to engage with scholarly content

Poetry and the Question of Modernity Ian Cooper,2020-01-15 Interest in Martin Heidegger was recently reawakened by the revelations in his newly published Black Notebooks of the full terrible extent of his political commitments in the 1930s and 1940s The revelations reminded us of the dark allegiances co existing with one of the profoundest and most important philosophical projects of the twentieth century one that is of incomparable importance for literature and especially for poetry which Heidegger saw as embodying a receptiveness to Being and a resistance to the instrumental tendencies of modernity Poetry and the Question of Modernity From Heidegger to the Present is the first extended account of the relationship between Heidegger s philosophy and the modern lyric It argues that some of the best known modern poets in German and English from Paul Celan to Seamus Heaney and Les Murray are in deep imaginative affinity with Heidegger s enquiry into finitude language and Being But the work of each of these poets challenges Heidegger because each appeals to a transcendence taking place in language that is inseparable from the motion of encounter with embodied others It is thus poetry which reveals the full measure of Heidegger s relevance in redefining modern selfhood and poetry which reveals the depth of his blindness

Heidegger in the Face of the Environmental Question Enrique Leff,2023-12-22 This volume engages with the work of Heidegger to argue that the modern environmental crisis is fundamentally a crisis of understanding Life resulting from the symbolic codification of the world from the Logos of Greek philosophy to the rationality of the modern world and resulting in a metaphysics that privileges ontological thinking on the question of being over the environmental question and the concern for the conditions of life Exploring the work of the three principal thinkers of the Lebensphilosophie Bergson Dilthey and Husserl it charts the itinerary of Heidegger's work and exposes its conflicts with the work of Marx Plessner Haar and Derrida A critical argument against the colonization of the world by Eurocentric reason and for the deconstruction of Capital Heidegger in the Face of the Environmental Question draws on Latin American environmental thought to re think the conditions for life on Earth It will therefore appeal to scholars of philosophy political theory and political sociology with interests in environmental philosophy political ecology and socioeconomic transformation

Essays on Diverse Topics Kalman Dubov, 2021-12-23

This revised and updated volume includes twenty two essays on timely topics The volume begins with topics on Judaism and Jewish Ideology the book reviews the multiplicity of languages Jewish people used throughout their history At last count these number 55 an amazing way to create a localized language for daily interaction rather than use Hebrew the sacred language reserved for prayer and study The brief review of Lurianic Kabbalah follows together with a discussion of human suffering The mystery of Ashkenazic Jewry follows offering a serious question to this dilemma What follows is an exposition on the Jewish law of mosur the informer and the many issues affecting sexual predation in ultra Orthodox Judaism both in the United States and Australia as in Israel The Cairo Genizah reviews how two Scottish sisters brought the Book of Ecclesiasticus to Cambridge and the vast treasure of Cairo brought to Cambridge and other universities to examine this ancient repository The issue of Apostate Rabbis follows discussing several rabbis who converted to Christianity I then discuss the Radhanites the mysterious group of super merchants who traveled from France to China and back for about 500 years centuries before Marco Polo I then discuss Chabad Messianism a topic of interest as Chabad expands its message across the globe Several topics follow Medieval Blood Libel the mystery of Jews in Sri Lanka today a minimal number but in earlier centuries numbering several thousand I then discuss several topics on the human condition essays designed to reflect on Man's ethical dilemma of life in the post World War Two era I then discuss the two original ideas regarding religion One of these is attributed to the Patriarch Abraham whose reflection on Deity and how to relate to spirituality predominates in the three great Western religions The other original thought is found in Hinduism reflecting an entirely different way to relate to Deity Because Hinduism is a Far Eastern phenomenon not readily accessible in the West I've included an overview of Hinduism so that the Western and Jewish views can be appreciated A new topic reflect on the Atrocity Soul and its counterpart reflecting of the Son of Darkness and the Son of Light each bringing messages one of despair and darkness and the other of hope and redemption While these persons may be religious it is not a primary matter to the Son of Light but their message of hope predominates I conclude the book with a discussion on Calculating Zero an advancement only made twice in human history in the New World by the Maya and by the ancient Mesopotamians Each of the essays and reviews reflects my understanding of these and other diverse topics Each essay provides grist for discussion and reflection

The Question of Space Marijn Nieuwenhuis, David Crouch, 2017-09-29 The spatial turn has been deeply influential across the humanities and social sciences for several decades Yet despite this long term influence most volumes focus mainly on geography and tend to take a Eurocentric approach to the topic The Question of Space takes a multidisciplinary approach to understanding how the spatial turn has affected other disciplines By connecting developments across radically different fields the volume bridges the very borders that separate the academic space From new geographies through performance the internet politics and the arts the distinctive chapters undertake conversations that often surprisingly converge in approach questions and insights Together the chapters transcend longstanding disciplinary boundaries to build a constructive dialogue around the question of space

Continental Philosophy and the Palestinian Question Zahi Zalloua, 2017-02-23 From Sartre to Levinas continental philosophers have looked to the example of the Jew as the paradigmatic object of and model for ethical inquiry Levinas for example powerfully dedicates his 1974 book Otherwise than Being to the victims of the Holocaust and turns attention to the state of philosophy after Auschwitz Such an ethics radically challenges prior notions of autonomy and comprehension two key ideas for traditional ethical theory and more generally the Greek tradition It seeks to respect the opacity of the other and avoid the dangers of hermeneutic violence But how does such an ethics of the other translate into real everyday life What is at stake in thinking the other as Jew Is the alterity of the Jew simply a counter to Greek universalism Is a rhetoric of exceptionalism with its unavoidable ontological residue at odds with shifting political realities Within this paradigm what then becomes of the Arab or Muslim the other of the Jew the other of the other so to speak This line of ethical thought in its desire to bear witness to past suffering and come to terms with subjectivity after Auschwitz arguably brackets from analysis present operations of power Would then a more sensitive historical approach expose the Palestinian as the other of the Israeli Here Zahi Zalloua offers a challenging intervention into how we configure the contemporary
