University Of Kwazulu Natal 20q16 Undergraduate Prospectus:

University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece, 2017-07-13 This book offers a conceptual re think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities While having a specific focus on the South African context it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university

Places of Privilege, 2018-07-19 Places of Privilege examines dynamics of privilege and power in the construction of place in a period of the rapid social transformation of places borders and boundaries Drawing on inter disciplinary perspectives the book examines place as a site for the making and re making of privilege while considering new meanings of community and examining spaces for cultural identity and resistance Chapters point to a range of conceptual resources that can be utilised to produce critical analyses of place making As the authors point out power and privilege shape place but these dynamics are in turn shaped by the specific place based histories and social dynamics within which they are located Contributors are Lutfiye Ali Alison M Baker Paola Bilbrough Tony Birch Jora Broerse Sally Clark Josephine Cornell Yon Hsu Lou Iaquinto Karen Jackson Shose Kessi Rebecca Lyons Chris McConville Nicole Oke Amy Quayle Alexandra Ramirez Kopano Ratele Christopher C Sonn and Ram n Spaaij

Global Science's Cooperation Opportunities, Challenges, and Good Practices Moussaoui, Mohamed, 2023-07-24 Science diplomacy gives possibilities for international diplomacy and science policy to collaborate to more directly address social and global challenges such as successful diplomatic engagement international scientific coordination and policy coherence in response to the COVID 19 pandemic However most academic scientists lack policy process training networking opportunities with science policymakers and the capacity to use their expertise in the field to advance policy or diplomacy These barriers limit scientists research impact inhibit science policy relations reduce science recommendations and restrict university engagement in national and international contexts The origins of science diplomacy have yet to be closely examined and its current format does not give a clear understanding of how it concretely translates into science policy actions Global Science s Cooperation Opportunities Challenges and Good Practices provides a comprehensive overview of science diplomacy and its evolution in history and analyzes the ways in which politics science and diplomacy intertwine The book also provides a critical review of science diplomacy by exposing its limitations in addressing global challenges and by reflecting on the specific questions relating to the adaptation of the science diplomacy concept to the context of the Global South Covering key topics such as climate change foreign policy and energy consumption this premier reference source is ideal for policymakers government officials politicians industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students

Afterimages of Apartheid Kylie Thomas, 2025-10-29 Afterimages of Apartheid shows how photographs of the past can be mobilised as a critical tool for understanding the ongoing effects of apartheid in contemporary South Africa Through close readings of significant images made during and after apartheid the book shows how photography works as a means of documentation commemoration and resistance Written by one of South Africa's leading scholars of visual history the book considers the ways in which photographs can be used to contest impunity for state violence Afterimages includes chapters on the Sharpeville and Marikana massacres on the re opening of cases of human rights violations that remain unresolved in the aftermath of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and on contemporary protests against the post apartheid state The book makes a powerful case for the role of photographs in drawing the viewer into the past time they represent issuing a call to the living to remember respond and react This vivid account of the photography of apartheid will be of interest to students and researchers across the fields of South African history visual studies memory studies art history photography studies and transitional justice

History through Narratives of Education in Africa , 2024-04-15 Who were the actors involved in colonial and post independence education in Africa This book on the history of education in Africa gives a special attention to narratives of marginalized voices With this original approach and cases from ten countries involving four colonial powers it constitutes a dynamic and rich contribution to the field The authors have searched for narratives of education from below through oral interviews autobiographies films and undiscovered archival sources Throughout the book educational settings are approached as social spaces where both contact and separation between colonisers and colonised are constructed through social interaction negotiations and struggles Contributors include Ant nia Barreto Lars Folke Berge Clara Carvalho Charlotte Courreye Pierre ric Fageol Fr d ric Garan Esther Ginestet Pedro Goulart Pierre Guidi Lydia Hadj Ahmed Kalpana Hiralal Mamaye Idriss Mihary Jaofeno Rehana Thembeke Odendaal Roland Rakotovao Maria da Luz Ramos Ellen Veia Rosnes Caterina Scalvedi Eva Van de Velde Pieter Verstraete

Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube, 2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book's blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development

Perspectives on Multigrade Teaching Linley Cornish, Matshidiso Joyce Taole, 2021-10-25

This book contains the results of research projects carried out in relation to multigrade teaching in Australia and South Africa Research in multigrade contexts is not commonly reported and rarely in book form The research results have implications for multigrade teachers government education personnel and university teacher educators The book also contains chapters with practical advice for multigrade teachers including examples of multigrade teaching used in an Australian seven grade class kindergarten to grade 6 Other chapters contain suggestions for practical strategies a multigrade teacher can use to reduce the workload involved in planning for multiple grades Very little is published in the area of multigrade teaching yet the number of multigrade schools worldwide is huge Developed countries still have a significant proportion of multigrade schools commonly one fifth to one third of all primary schools or classes Despite decades of centralisation of schools and expansion of transport networks the number of these schools remains high mostly in rural areas Developing countries established multigrade schools in rural areas in order to achieve the UN Millennium Development Goal of Universal Primary Education Yet specific training to teach a multigrade class remains virtually non-existent in initial teacher education programs worldwide The value of this book is thus to report specific research carried out in multigrade contexts but also to provide practical help for multigrade teachers This help is needed as the teachers strive to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goal of a quality education through helping their students develop the skills and behaviours required for 21st century learning

Sex, Sexuality and Sexual Health in Southern Africa Deevia Bhana, Mary Crewe, Peter Aggleton, 2022-07-15 This book Sex, Sexuality and Sexual Health in Southern Africa is structured around four major themes gender and sexuality diversity love pleasure and respect gender sexual violence and health and sexuality gender and sexual justice Chapters in this book analyse sexuality in relation to recent developments in the Southern African region and what this might mean for contemporary theory policy and practice Sex sexuality and sexual health are often viewed through a narrow biomedical lens ignoring the fact that they are profoundly social and historical in character The contributors in this book bring to light the entanglements of sexuality with respect recognition rights and mutual respectful pleasure Authors draw attention to partnerships allyships and feminist queer and trans coalitions in the pursuit of sexual health and justice in the region The book will be of interest to final year undergraduate and postgraduate students researchers and activists as well as those working in Women and Gender Studies Critical Sexuality Studies Sexual and Reproductive Health Development Studies Public Health Psychology Education Sociology and Anthropology
