Redefining Myself: The beginning of my spiritual growth Nsovo Manganyi ,2022-10-01 In this book Nsovo Manganyi has outlined that redefining comes after one has identified that the title given to them has been mistaken for or they have identified that they are not functioning as they are supposed to Nsovo Manganyi is hoping to guide people who are struggling with identity crisis who do not know who they are and their value to redefine themselves By reading this book it will no longer be her redefining herself but them redefining themselves Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan,2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba Commercial Law Reports 2012 ,2012-12-31 African Language Media Phillip Mpofu,Israel A. Fadipe,Thulani Tshabangu,2023-03-13 This book outlines how African language media is affected by politics technology culture and the economy and how this media is creatively produced and appropriated by audiences across cultures and contexts African language media can be considered as a tool for communication socialization and community that defines the various identities of indigenous people in Africa This book shows how vernacular media outlets including radio and television as well as native formats such as festivals rituals and dance can be used to influence all facets of local peoples experience and understanding of community The book also explores the relationship between African language media sources and contemporary issues including the digitalization conundrum peace and conflict resolution identity formation hate speech and fake news Furthermore it shows how local media can be used for development communication purposes during health and environmental crises The book includes cases studies demonstrating the uses experiences and activities related to various forms of media available in African languages This book will be of interest to scholars in the field of communication and media studies health and environmental communication journalism African studies and anthropology

The Future of African Customary Law Jeanmarie Fenrich,Paolo Galizzi,Tracy E. Higgins,2011-07-18 Customary laws and traditional institutions in Africa constitute comprehensive legal systems that regulate the entire spectrum of activities from birth to death Once the sole source of law customary rules now exist in the context of pluralist legal systems with competing bodies of domestic constitutional law statutory law common law and international human rights treaties This book promotes discussion and understanding of customary law and explores its continued relevance in sub Saharan Africa The volume considers the characteristics of customary law and efforts to ascertain and codify customary law and how this body of law differs in content form and status from legislation and common law It also addresses a number of substantive areas of customary law including the role and power of traditional authorities customary criminal law customary land tenure property rights and intestate succession and the relationship between customary law human rights and gender equality The Western Christian Advocate ,1911 White Lies Denis Herbstein,2004 Behind the clerical dog collar he wore as Canon of St Paul's Cathedral in London John Collins ran a single minded constantly creative campaign over several decades to provide material support to those waging the struggle against apartheid assisting leaders like Nelson Mandela and thousands of township and rural activists as well as families who suffered because their loved ones were in prison in exile or dead The success of the organisations he founded the International Defence and Aid Fund IDAF and Christian Action depended on a network of volunteers across the world and a small group of South African exiles and British workers in London South African intelligence agents tried to penetrate these networks but to no avail BOOK JACKET Colonial Sequence 1949 to 1969 Margery Perham, 2023-05-03 Colonial Sequence 1949 to 1969 1970 continues the sequence begun in Colonial Sequence 1930 to 1949 and presents a valuable body of evidence for the enquiry into Britain's colonial actions written at a time when Britain was retreating from empire In these collected articles we see Britain's colonial service in action snapshots from the time and place revealing colonialism with all its limitations and mistakes achievements and ideals Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society and Monthly Record of Geography Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain), 1872

Responsible Research Practice Norma RA Romm, 2018-04-21 This book explores ways in which creative research practice can be explicitly and mindfully geared to make a difference to the quality of social and ecological existence It offers a range of examples of how different research methods can be employed and re-tuned with this intention The book suggests that what Romm names active research involves using the research space responsibly to open up new avenues for thinking and acting on the part of those involved in the inquiry and wider stakeholders The book includes a discussion of a range of epistemological ontological methodological and axiological positions or paradigms that can be embraced by inquirers implicitly or explicitly It details the contours of an epistemology where knowing is recognized to be grounded in social relations as a matter of ethics While focusing on discussing the transformative paradigm and attendant view of research ethics it considers to what extent the borders between paradigms can be treated as being permeable in creative and active inquiries Apart from considering options for enhancing responsible research practice during the process of inquiry and reconsidering mixed research designs the book also considers options for responsible theorizing that is inspirational for pursuing goals of social and ecological justice Remembering Colonialism in Zimbabwe Ivan Marowa, Ushehwe

Kufakurinani, 2023-12-14 This book examines the various ways in which colonialism in Zimbabwe is remembered looking both at how people analyse perceive and interpret the past and how they rewrite that past elevating some players and their historical agency Inspired by the ongoing movement on decoloniality this book examines the ways in which generations of today question and challenge colonialism's legacies and their role in Zimbabwe's collective memories and history The book analyses the memorialising of both Mugabe and Mnangagwa in their speeches and during the political transition before going on to trace the continuing impact of colonialism across areas as diverse as dress code place naming agriculture religion gender and in marginalised communities such as the BaKalanga Drawing on the expertise of Zimbabwean scholars

this book will appeal to researchers of decolonisation and of African history and memory A GUIDE TO BEING AN EXTRAORDINARY STUDENT Jeremia Lelosa, Mahlodi Kgatle, Morongwa Maifo, Sibusiso Gama, Treasure Mokalapa, Tieho Hans, 2017-03-04 This is an inspirational and motivational book for students at University and or College as well as those who have aspirations of furthering their studies at university and or college post matric The contributors from various institutions of higher learning in South Africa share their secrets to success in this collection of experiences The contributors share their philosophies of success they share strategies they have employed which managed to assist them in graduating Students in particular junior students will benefit immensely from the comprehensive coverage of core study skills and learning strategies presented in a straightforward and relatable manner The book also helps students avoid academic exclusion and inspires them to achieve academic excellence However this book does not only cover academic success It also covers leadership and entrepreneurship which are necessary elements in today's fast and changing world Unlike any other student success guide books that are currently on the market this book is unique and offers a broad perspective from many students Again the book is written by people with a lived experience It offers an insider view This book was written by leaders of Faculty of Best Advisory FBA published and is distributed by Club Readership New Histories of South Africa's Apartheid-Era Bantustans Shireen Ally, Arianna Lissoni, 2017-06-26 The bantustans or homelands were created by South Africa's apartheid regime as ethnically defined territories for Africans Granted self governing and independent status by Pretoria they aimed to deflect the demands for full political representation by black South Africans and were shunned by the anti apartheid movement In 1972 Steve Biko wrote that politically the bantustans are the greatest single fraud ever invented by white politicians With the end of apartheid and the first democratic elections of 1994 the bantustans formally ceased to exist but their legacies remain inscribed in South Africa's contemporary social cultural political and economic landscape While the older literature on the bantustans has tended to focus on their repressive role and political illegitimacy this edited volume offers new approaches to the histories and afterlives of the former bantustans in South Africa by a new generation of scholars This book was originally published as various special issues of the South African Historical Journal Dancing with Doctoral Encounters Yusef Waghid, 2014-10-01 This book offers an exposition of the author's professional encounters with doctoral candidates In reflecting upon his supervision of these candidates individuals each with their own ideas the author likened these unique relationships with a dance Aging in Sub-Saharan Africa National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on Population, Panel on Policy Research and Data Needs to Meet the Challenge of Aging in Africa, 2006-11-10 In sub-Saharan Africa older people make up a relatively small fraction of the total population and are supported primarily by family and other kinship networks They have traditionally been viewed as repositories of information and wisdom and are critical pillars of the community but as the HIV AIDS pandemic destroys family systems the elderly increasingly have to deal with the loss of their own support while absorbing the additional responsibilities of caring for their orphaned grandchildren Aging in Sub Saharan Africa explores ways to promote U S research interests and to augment the sub Saharan governments capacity to address the many challenges posed by population aging Five major themes are explored in the book such as the need for a basic definition of older person the need for national governments to invest more in basic research and the coordination of data collection across countries and the need for improved dialogue between local researchers and policy makers This book makes three major recommendations 1 the development of a research agenda 2 enhancing research opportunity and implementation and 3 the translation of research findings General Index to the Proceedings Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1920 Proceedings of the Royal Geographical Society of London Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1920 Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger,Thera Rasing,2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes Official Index to the Times ,1929 The Gospel in All Lands ,1899
