lesbian gay and bisexual LGB educators publicly left their classroom closets formed communities and began advocating for a place of openness and safety for LGB people in America s schools They fought for protection and representation in the National Education Association and American Federation of Teachers as well as building community and advocacy in major gay and lesbian teacher organizations in New York Los Angeles and Northern California In so doing LGB teachers went from being a profoundly demonized and silenced population that suffered as symbolically emblematic of the harmful bad teacher to being an organized community of professionals deserving of rights capable of speaking for themselves and often able to reframe themselves as good teachers This prescient book shows how LGB teachers and their allies broadened the boundaries of professionalism negotiated for employment protection and fought against political opponents who wanted them pushed out of America s schools altogether
