The Regional Law of Refugee Protection in Africa

Marina Sharpe,2018-07-18 This book analyses the legal framework for refugee protection in Africa including both refugee and human rights law as well as treaty and institutional elements The regime is addressed in two parts Part One analyses the relevant treaties the 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees the 1969 Organization of African Unity Convention Governing the Specific Aspects of Refugee Problems in Africa and the 1981 African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights The latter two regional instruments are examined in depth This includes the first fulsome account of the African Refugee Conventions drafting an interpretation of its unique refugee definition and original analysis of the relationships between the three treaties Significant attention is devoted to the systemic relationship between the international and the regional refugee treaties and to the discrete relationships of conflict and complementary relationships between the two refugee instruments as well as to the relationships between the African Refugee Convention and African Charter Part Two focuses on the institutional architecture supporting the treaty framework The Organization of African Unity is addressed in a historical sense and the contemporary roles of the African Union the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and the current and contemplated African human rights courts are examined This book is the first devoted to the legal framework for refugee protection in Africa

Nadira: We Belong To The Earth Nadira Omarjee, 2023-05-31 This book illustrates the ways in which the personal is political in the advancement of decolonising scholarship It explores the intimacies of coloniality entrenched in the narcissism of coloniality enabling the system through extraction subjugation and violence Pushing back against the narcissism of coloniality which is framed by the master slave dialectic or internalised oppression requires uhuru and ubuntu which are agentic strategies employed in reclaiming ontology and epistemology Uhuru insists on a decolonisation of self whereas ubuntu is determined by African radical communitarianism demanding new ways of knowing and seeing whilst re-examining epistemicides of the enslaved indentured and colonised Fanonian theory is used as a framework for understanding the colonial authority's management of the colonised determining the unhappiness quintessential in the colonial condition Freirian concepts of conscientisation and criticality are used as a form of resistance disrupting the system of racial capitalism and the coloniality of gender Subsequently flipping the classroom to resist the coloniality of knowledge allows scholars to connect with community encouraging engaged scholarship from the personal political perspective making the classroom a radical space for addressing trauma and healing whilst bridging art activism and scholarship Therefore the classroom is situated against the blind spots of the banking model with male dominated decolonial work silencing the feminist perspective Consequently uhuru and ubuntu promote voice agency and resistance as a pedagogical praxis paramount for the development of a decolonial feminist pedagogy historians who broke with mainstream academic positions by combining their professional activities with an explicit political partisanship or social engagement The second section focusses on the challenges historians are confronted with when entering the court room or more generally exposing their expertise to legal frameworks The third section focuses on the effects of policy driven demands as well as direct political interventions and regulations on the historical profession A fourth section looks at the challenges and opportunities related to the rise of new digital media Finally several authors offer their view on normative standards that may help to better respond to new demands and to define role models for publicly engaged historians This book aims at historians and other academics interested in public uses of history From Hope to Action through Knowledge Ramesh Bharuthram, Larry Pokpas, 2020-10-27 Its November 2001 A university in dire straits financially bankrupt burdening a debt in excess of R100 million a disillusioned and demoralised staff complement still reeling from the trauma of retrenchments coupled with an academic project facing collapse as student numbers dwindle by a third to less than 10 000 Is there a future for such an institution described by some as a basket case with very bleak prospects of survival This was the landscape that confronted the newly appointed Vice Chancellor and Chief Executive Officer CEO of the University of the Western Cape Fast forward to December 2014 The CEO retires from office bestowing upon his successor a financially sound institution with a flourishing academic project recording unprecedented achievements enriching the lives of more than 20 000 students and widely acknowledged as a research led university This book narrates how visionary leadership with the steadfast belief that your past does not determine your future galvanised an entire organisation into believing that a better outcome was indeed achievable and the will to move forward as a collective with a redefined purpose and commitment to achieve that which was once deemed impossible Proceedings of the International Conference on Education Research Reza Hosseini, Democracy Disconnected Fiona Anciano, Laurence Piper, 2018-10-03 Why is dissatisfaction with local democracy endemic despite the spread of new participatory institutions This book argues that a key reason is the limited power of elected local officials especially to produce the City City Hall lacks control over key aspects of city decision making especially under conditions of economic globalisation and rapid urbanisation in the urban South Demonstrated through case studies of daily politics in Hout Bay Democracy Disconnected shows how Cape Town residents engage local rule In the absence of democratic control urban rule in the Global South becomes a complex and contingent framework of multiple and multilevel forms of urban governance FUG that involve City Hall but are not directed by it Bureaucratic governance coexists alongside market developmental and informal forms of governance This disconnect of democracy from urban governance segregates people spatially socially but also politically Thus while the residents of Hout Bay may live next to each other they do not live with each other This book will be a valuable resource for students on programmes such as urban studies political science sociology development studies and political geography Research Anthology on Social Media's Influence on Government, Politics, and Social Movements Management Association, Information

Resources,2022-08-26 The advent of social media has had varying effects across fields industries and governments As more individuals rely on this technology its uses continue to develop and expand Social media has forever changed the way in which politics are discussed social movements are formed and how governments interact with the public To fully understand the future of social media further study is required The Research Anthology on Social Media s Influence on Government Politics and Social Movements investigates how social media is used within governments as well as the history behind the technology The book also examines best practices tactics and challenges associated with utilizing social media platforms for social movements Covering key topics such as communication interactive technology and social change this major reference work is ideal for government officials industry professionals policymakers administrators business owners managers researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students The Nation Form in the Global Age Irfan Ahmad,Jie Kang,2022-01-29 This open access book argues that contrary to dominant approaches that view nationalism as unaffected by globalization or globalization undermining the nation state the contemporary world is actually marked by globalization of the nation form Based on fieldwork in Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East and drawing among others on Peter van der Veer s comparative work on religion and nation it discuss practices of nationalism vis a vis migration rituals of sacrifice and prayer music media e commerce Islamophobia bare life secularism literature and atheism The volume offers new understandings of nationalism in a broader perspective The text will appeal to students and researchers interested in nationalism outside of the West especially those working in anthropology sociology and history Conflict and Concord Christopher Isike,Efe Mary Isike,2022-05-10 The book is a response to the dominant discourse of South Africa as unwelcoming to African immigrants Acknowledging the reality of xenophobia against African migrants in South Africa it explores the positive spaces of interactions between South Africans and African migrants that do not necessarily result in tension Hence the book is about conviviality cohabitation interdependency and the production of a multicultural rainbow nation South Africa its constitution and representation as a multicultural society is the perfect context to experiment with the ideas in the book Part of the objectives is therefore to demonstrate as contained in the title the ambivalence of this relationship which the popular discourse of xenophobia has silenced The Human Translator in the 2020s Gary Massey,Elsa Huertas-Barros,David Katan,2022-12-19 Has the language industry of the 21st century been racing ahead of the translation profession and leaving translators behind Or are translators adapting to new sociotechnical realities and societal demands and if so how The chapters in this volume seek to shed light on the profiles and position of human translators in the current decade This collection draws together the work of leading authors to reflect on the constantly evolving language industry The eight chapters present new perspectives on and concepts of translation in a digital world They highlight the shifts taking place in the sociotechnical environment of translation and the need to address changing buyer needs and market demands with new services profiles and training In doing so they share a common focus on the added value that human translators can and do bring to bear as adaptive creative digitally literate experts Addressing an international readership this volume is of interest to advanced students and researchers in translation and interpreting studies and professionals in the global language industry

Violence, Inequality and Transformation: Apartheid Survivors on South Africa's Ongoing Transition Jasmina Brankovic, Brian Mphahlele, Sindiswa Nunu, Agnes Ngxukuma, Nompumelelo Njana, Yanelisa Sishuba, 2020-01-29 Despite its lauded political transition in 1994 South Africa continues to have among the highest levels of violence and inequality in the world Organised survivors of apartheid violations have long maintained that we cannot adequately address violence in the country let alone achieve full democracy without addressing inequality This book is built around extensive quotes from members of Khulumani Support Group the apartheid survivors social movement and young people growing up in Khulumani families It shows how these survivors who bridge the past and the present through their activism understand and respond to socioeconomic drivers of violence Pointing to the continuities between apartheid oppression and post apartheid marginalisation in everyday life the narratives detail ways in which the democratic dispensation has strengthened barriers to social transformation and helped enable violence They also present strategies for effecting change through collaboration dialogue and mutual training and through partnerships with diverse stakeholders that build on local level knowledge and community based initiatives The lens of violence offers new and manageable ways to think about reducing inequality while the lens of inequality shows that violence is a complex web of causes pathways and effects that requires a big picture approach to unravel The survivors narratives suggest innovative strategies for promoting a just transition through people driven transformation that go well beyond the constraints of South Africa's transitional justice practice to date A result of participatory research conducted in collaboration with and by Khulumani members this book will be of interest to activists students researchers and policy makers working on issues of transitional justice inequality and violence

Conflict Transformation and the Palestinians Alpaslan Ozerdem, Chuck Thiessen, Mufid Qassoum, 2016-12-01 This book explores the challenges of transforming the violent conflict between the State of Israel and the Palestinians into just peace There are many challenges involved in the bottom up transformation of the violent structures that sustain the State of Israel's occupation of Palestinian territory This book examines these structures as it assesses the actors and strategies that are contributing to the termination of cycles of violence and oppression Consisting of contributions from both peace practitioners and academics who have conducted research within Israel and the occupied territory the volume utilises a multidisciplinary perspective to examine promising strategies for conflict transformation in Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory Moreover it spells out the types of nonviolent strategy that are being used to expose and undermine occupation structures and surveys the manner in which a variety of key actors are working towards the transformation of the ongoing conflict As a whole the volume presents a proposal for the transformation of the conflict between Palestinians and the State of Israel that embraces the constructive potential of conflict engages with power asymmetry and pushes for justice and accountability This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies Middle Eastern studies the Arab Israeli conflict and IR in general The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight, Christian M.
