and 1 Peter from Majority World Perspectives Sofanit T. Abebe, Elizabeth W. Mburu, Abeneazer G. Urga, 2024-09-19 The contributors to this volume offer a bold re-reading of Hebrews and 1 Peter from the perspective of the Global South. The chapters provide enriching new hermeneutical and theological insights revealing facets of the text that may not at first be apparent to readers within a Eurocentric context. The volume is thus able to explore topics ranging from the authorship of Hebrews in the Ethiopian Orthodox tradition and the Batak reading of Christus Victor to a Xhosa perception of the solidarity and sacrifice of Jesus and intercultural readings of Christian identity in the context of persecution. With an introduction and final response by scholars from the Global North, this volume encourages awareness of how the Global South contributes to world Christianity.

COVID-19, Tourist Destinations and Prospects for Recovery Kaitano Dube, Ishmael Mensah, Lazarus Chapungu, 2023-03-16 Despite the fact that the African tourism industry is prone to disturbances such as diseases, extreme weather events, civil unrest, wars, and other shocks, nothing could have prepared this destination for the devastating effect of the COVID-19 pandemic. In the absence of government or international agency budget support, the pandemic challenged the African tourism market to its core. The focus of this book is to assess the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the African tourism destination market as well as its prospects for recovery. A chapter written by the editorial team introduces the book. Following the introduction, the book offers chapters evaluating the pandemic's impact on African tourism. Chapters in the second part of the book discuss tourism recovery and how some destinations have survived the pandemic. The book concludes with a chapter providing policy recommendations and practical implementation advice. The book is part of a 3-volume series.

Bioactive Compounds in Mangroves and their Associates Hosakatte Niranjana Murthy, 2025-09-29 This reference work offers a comprehensive overview of the chemistry and bioactivity of mangrove ecosystems, focusing on their specialized metabolites and biological activities. Through this volume, readers will discover the novel secondary metabolites from mangrove flora and their potential applications in various fields. The chapters cover a wide range of topics, including the phytochemistry and biological activities of specific mangrove species such as Acanthus ilicifolius, Avicennia marina, and Rhizophora mucronata. The chapter authors present an expert analysis of the bioactive compounds found in these species, exploring their pharmacological and toxicological properties. Particular attention is given to the anticancer activities of certain compounds as well as the role of mangrove-associated bacteria and fungi in health management and bioremediation. Readers will also encounter discussions on the synthesis of nanomaterials from mangroves and their antimicrobial properties. This book is an essential resource for researchers, scholars, and practitioners in the fields of botany, pharmacology, and environmental science. It invites readers to think through critical questions about the ecological and medicinal significance of mangroves, offering diverse perspectives from expert contributors.

Participatory Methodologies to Elevate Children's Voice and Agency Ilene R. Berson,Michael J. Berson,Colette Gray,2019-03-01 This volume of the Research in Global Child Advocacy Series explores participatory methodologies and tools that involve children in research Perspectives on the role of children have transitioned from viewing children as objects of research to children as subjects of research to acknowledgement of children as competent contributors and agents throughout the inquiry process Researchers continue to explore approaches that honor the capacity of children drawing on diverse methodologies to elevate children s voices and actively engage them in the production of knowledge Nonetheless despite these developments questions over the extent to which children can be free of adult filters and influence merits sustained scholarly attention The book includes chapters that critically examine methodological approaches that empower children in the research process Contributions include empirical or practitioner pieces that operate from an empowerment paradigm and demonstrate the agenic capacity of children to contribute their perspectives and voices to our understanding of childhood and children's lives. The text also features conceptual pieces that challenge existing theoretical frameworks, critique research paradigms, and analyze dilemmas or tensions related to ethics, policy, and power relations in the research process.
