Mainstreaming Gender in Local Government Juliet Joseph, 2025-01-09 This book investigates the implementation of gender mainstreaming legislation and policies in South Africa focusing on their impact on women's empowerment in terms of representation participation and influence in municipal government The objective is to understand why women remain underrepresented in leadership roles and decision making at the district level of municipal governance Emphasizing how municipal councils incorporate gender mainstreaming into their decision making processes and the resulting impact the author focuses on understanding the developments that advance municipal governments toward equitable governance and how decision making has evolved This book will be of interest to students and researchers in gender studies African studies postcolonial feminist theory and politics as well as policy makers and government representatives

Disability, Health and Human Development Sophie Mitra, 2017-09-05 This open access book introduces the human development model to define disability and map its links with health and wellbeing based on Sen's capability approach The author uses panel survey data with internationally comparable questions on disability for Ethiopia Malawi Tanzania and Uganda It presents evidence on the prevalence of disability and its strong and consistent association with multidimensional poverty mortality economic insecurity and deprivations in education morbidity and employment It shows that disability needs to be considered from multiple angles including aging gender health and poverty Ultimately this study makes a call for inclusion and prevention interventions as solutions to the deprivations associated with impairments and health conditions

Handbook of Research on Creating Spaces for African Epistemologies in the Inclusive Education Discourse Maguvhe, Mbulaheni

Obert, Masuku, Mfundo Mandla, 2021-12-31 Students with disabilities who are not able to perform to the best of their abilities often find themselves learning in inaccessible environments and subjected to increased stress levels due to the haphazard provisioning of education characterized by physical communicative and unsuitable teaching and learning approaches Very often this is a result of various shortcomings including unfair assessment practices Misconceptions and a lack of knowledge with regard to the implementation of inclusive education detract from the successful admission of students with disabilities and their retention and active participation The Handbook of Research on Creating Spaces for African Epistemologies in the Inclusive Education Discourse explores the concept of inclusive education in an African context It advocates for the monitoring and evaluation of inclusive education and proposes interventions where reasonable accommodation or lack of accessibility is a reason for students with disabilities to not benefit from this system Covering topics such as barriers to learning rural schools and student support this major reference work is an essential resource for administrators advocates for students with disabilities policymakers researchers pre service teachers educators academicians and students

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Yearbook International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea,2014 Called and Queer Megan Robertson,2024-09-05 This book is the first in depth study of the lived experiences of queer Christian clergy in an African context Using a queer lived religion framing it draws on ethnographic research to analyse how six LGBTQ clergy understand and practice their vocation in the Methodist Church of Southern Africa MCSA Seemingly marginalised in a denomination which maintains that marriage is only between one man and one woman this book explores why LGBTQ clergy are motivated to live out their calling in the Church and how they make sense of their positions within it In doing so it looks beyond an analysis of a Church based on its official and doctrinal institutional positions on queer people and sexualities and instead uncovers the taken for granted ways that gender and sex are inscribed in the way we do things around here This book is relevant to students and researchers in gender and sexuality studies African religious studies and sociology of religion
