Sarojini Nadar, Tinyiko Maluleke, Dietrich Werner, Vicentia Kgabe, Rudolf Hinz, 2021-10-07 This inspiring collection of 72 critical and creative contributions honouring the life and work of Desmond Mpilo Tutu comprises a rich and diverse array of reflections on the ecumenical global struggle against Apartheid and Archbishop Tutu's role therein as a political priest prophet and intellectual. The encounters with the Arch and his work has shaped ongoing faith-based activist and academic pursuits for justice, peace and dignity. Anyone familiar with his outstanding contributions to the promotion of justice, dignity and peace will know that a hallmark of Desmond Tutu's celebrated style is his use of narrative and real-life stories. In honour of his unique and remarkable example, the contributions in this book combine oral history and written history paradigms as well as sociological, philosophical and theological approaches. While the book is meant to be a memorial recollection of encounters with the Arch, the hope is that these recollections will continue to inspire collective struggles and hopes for justice, peace and dignity.

Belonging Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2025-09-23 What does it mean to belong? Across oceans and centuries, this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London, the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj. The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860. Thousands were to follow. In haunting detail, the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals. At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever-present threat of repatriation. Sensitive to shifting political terrains, the book weaves together seismic events: the independence of India, the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions, with the texture of everyday life. The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots. Yet out of this despair, barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope. In the final chapters, the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence. Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong? It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism. This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to belong.

Hunter-Gatherer Adaptation and Resilience Daniel H. Temple, Christopher M. Stojanowski, 2019 Explores the variety of ways in which hunter-gatherer societies have responded to external stressors while maintaining their core identity.

Care for the Sorrowing Soul Duane Larson, Jeff Zust, 2017-10-26 Moral Injury is now recognized as a growing major problem for military men and women. Operant conditioning can overwhelm moral convictions and yet the question of whether to shoot or not to shoot often will never have a settled answer. Certain theories and treatment models about MI have been well developed but too often overlook root issues of religious faith. The authors propose a new model for understanding moral injury and suggest ways to mitigate its virtually inevitable occurrence in pre-combat training and ways to resolve MI post-trauma with proven spiritual resources. People outside the military too, among whom the incidence of MI also is a growing threat, will benefit from this analysis. The stories of the injured, their shaping and their telling are the key, and there are many illuminating stories of moral injury and recovery. Those who suffer MI their families and caregivers including counselors pastors and faith communities will find hope giving first steps toward the healing of MI in this book Recent advances in hazelnut (corylus spp.) Valerio Cristofori, Shawn A.
