Larsson, Teemu T. Mantsinen, 2019-10-07 The Handbook of Leaving Religion introduces a neglected field of research with the aim to outline previous and contemporary research and suggest how the topic of leaving religion should be studied in the future The handbook consists of three sections 1 Major debates about leaving religion 2 Case studies and empirical insights and 3 Theoretical and methodological approaches Section one provides the reader with an introduction to key terms historical developments major controversies and significant cases Section two includes case studies that illustrate various processes of leaving religion from different perspectives and each chapter provides new empirical insights Section three discusses presents and encourages new approaches to the study of leaving religion      Sacred Encounter Lisa L. Grushcow, 2014-03-01 This wide ranging anthology takes a close look at the breadth of human sexuality from a Jewish perspective The essays begin with a look at biblical and rabbinic views on sexuality and then proceed to explorations of sexuality at different moments in the life cycle sexuality and the marital model diverse expressions of sexuality examples of sexuality education the nexus of sexuality and theology and the challenges of contemporary sexual ethics The Sacred Encounter is a thought provoking and important Jewish resource Perfect for personal study or for high school or adult classes Published by CCAR Press a division of the Central Conference of American Rabbis      Forward! Lynn Elizabeth Walker, 2023-07-21 While there are many books containing essays on ordinary life from a spiritual or religious perspective there are only a few with a perspective grounded in the trans identity Moreover a number of books for or about trans people have to do with the exceptional aspects of life of individual trans folks This book offers the perspective of a trans identified clergy member in gaining greater understanding of ordinary life seen through the specific lens of her lived experience Forward is a series of essays addressing issues that might arise for trans women during their transition journey In general the focus is on such aspects of day to day living as religion philosophy society church people love alienation families aging and work      Women of Valor Karen E. H. Skinazi, 2018-09-07 Honorable Mention for the Robert K Martin Prize 2019 Media portrayals of Orthodox Jewish women frequently depict powerless silent individuals who are at best naive to live an Orthodox lifestyle and who are at worst coerced into it Karen E H Skinazi delves beyond this stereotype in Women of Valor to identify a powerful tradition of feminist literary portrayals of Orthodox women often created by Orthodox women themselves She examines Orthodox women as they appear in memoirs comics novels and movies and speaks with the authors filmmakers and musicians who create these representations Throughout the work Skinazi threads lines from the poem Eshes Chayil the Biblical description of an Orthodox Woman of Valor This proverb unites Orthodoxy and feminism in a complex relationship where Orthodox women continuously question challenge and negotiate Orthodox and feminist values Ultimately these women create paths that unite their work passions and families under the framework of an Eshes Chayil a woman who situates religious conviction within her own power      Depth Psychology, Cult Survivors, and the Role of the Daimon Linda R. Quennec, 2024-06-10 This book explores the possibilities that exist for navigating out of and away from multiple levels of oppression through memoir based research It considers how those raised in oppressive high demand communities colloquially referred to as cults can emancipate themselves from controls and expectations inculcated from early childhood and examines processes surrounding the psychological reclamation of self Exploring and metaphorically tending to an orienting psychological dynamic that the ancient Greeks related to as the daimon and using the perspectives of Jungian and post Jungian depth psychology the author investigates how subjects can reclaim agency and avoid excessive control over their thoughts attention and life s intentions They suggest that depth psychologically oriented modes can be used to this attunement and explore this notion through a study of memoirs of individuals who were raised in cults. Suggesting a more aligned approach to working with varying levels of psychological constraint and utilizing a phenomenological hermeneutic study, it will appeal to scholars and professionals in depth psychology and other psychological orientations as well as individuals who are interested in more deeply understanding the psychological mechanisms involved in leaving a high demand group or other oppressive situations.

Regimes of Terror and Memory Manfred Henningsen, 2023-07-31

Regimes of Terror and Memory: Beyond the Uniqueness of the Holocaust illustrates how convenient it has become in not recognizing other regimes of terror in recent history. Manfred Henningsen compares the memory of Nazi Germany's macro criminal record with the remembrances of Stalin's Russia and Mao's China, the Japanese Empire, Pol Pot's Cambodia, Sukarno's Indonesia. He discusses the cultural reasons for these memory distortions in the West and in the societies that have experienced these macro crimes of genocidal violence. Henningsen has embedded his search in an autobiographical context that begins with his birth, upbringing, and education in Germany from 1938 to 1969, continues after his move to Hawaii in 1970 in the American political culture, and becomes more realized through extensive traveling in Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Bringing Up Kids When Church Lets You Down Bekah McNeel, 2022-10-11

This book is about the various places and ways that uncertainty shows up for parents who have left or altered the faith they once knew; now they must decide what to give their kids. It's about church attendance, Bible memorization, school choices, and sex talks. It's about forging new paths in racial justice and creation care while the intractable voices in your head call you a pagan Marxist for doing so. After the spectacular implosion of her ministry career, Bekah McNeel was left disillusioned and without the foundation of certainty she had built her life on. But rather than leaving the Christian faith altogether, she hung out around the edges, began questioning oversimplified categories of black and white that she had been taught were sacred, and became comfortable living in gray areas while starting a new career in journalism. Then she had kids. From the moment someone asked if she was going to have her first child baptized, Bekah began to wonder if the conservative evangelical Christianity she grew up with was really something she wanted to give her children. That question only became more complicated when she had her second child months before White evangelicals carried Donald Trump to victory in the 2016 presidential election. Soon Bekah found that other parents were asking similar questions as they broke with their fundamentalist religious upbringing and took on new values. Could they raise their kids to live with both the security of faith and the freedom of open-mindedness? To value both Scripture and social justice? To learn morality without shame?

In Bringing Up Kids When Church Lets You Down, Bekah gathers voices from history, scholarship, and her own community to guide others who like her are on a quest to shed the false certainty and toxic perfectionism of their past to become better, healthier parents while still providing strong spiritual foundations for their children. She writes with humor and empathy, providing wise reflections but not glib answers on difficult parenting topics while reminding us that we are not alone even when we break away from the crowd.

All Religion Is

Inter-Religion Kambiz GhaneaBassiri, Paul Robertson, 2019-07-11 All Religion Is Inter Religion analyses the ways inter religious relations have contributed both historically and philosophically to the constructions of the category of religion as a distinct subject of study Regarded as contemporary classics Steven M Wasserstrom's Religion after Religion 1999 and Between Muslim and Jew 1995 provided a theoretical reorientation for the study of religion away from hierophanies and ultimacy and toward lived history and deep pluralism This book distills and systematizes this reorientation into nine theses on the study of religion Drawing on these theses and Wasserstrom's opus more generally a distinguished group of his colleagues and former students demonstrate that religions can and must be understood through encounters in real time and space through the complex relations they create and maintain between people and between people and their pasts The book also features an afterword by Wasserstrom himself which poses nine riddles to students of religion based on his personal experiences working on religion at the turn of the twenty first century

Salvage Poetics Sheila E. Jelen, 2020-04-14 An interdisciplinary approach to American Jewish ethnic identity in post Holocaust America This volume explores how American Jewish post Holocaust writers scholars and editors adapted pre Holocaust works such as Yiddish fiction and documentary photography for popular consumption by American Jews in the post Holocaust decades These texts Jelen argues served to help clarify the role of East European Jewish identity in the construction of a post Holocaust American one In her analysis of a variety of hybrid texts those that exist on the border between ethnography and art Jelen traces the gradual shift from verbal to visual Jewish literacy among Jewish Americans after the Holocaust S Ansky's ethnographic expedition 1912 1914 and Martin Buber's adaptation and compilation of Hasidic tales 1906 1935 are presented as a means of contextualizing the role of an ethnographic consciousness in modern Jewish experience and the way in which literary adaptations and mediations create opportunities for the creation of folk ethnographic hybrid texts Salvage Poetics looks at classical texts of the American Jewish experience in the second half of the twentieth century such as Maurice Samuel's The World of Sholem Aleichem 1944 Abraham Joshua Heschel's The Earth Is the Lord's 1950 Elizabeth Herzog and Mark Zborowski's Life Is with People 1952 Lucy Dawidowicz's The Golden Tradition 1967 and Roman Vishniac's A Vanished World 1983 alongside other texts that consider the symbiotic relationship between pre Holocaust aesthetic artifacts and their postwar reframings and reconsiderations Salvage Poetics is particularly attentive to how literary scholars deploy the notion of ethnography in their readings of literature in languages and or cultures that are considered dead or dying and how their definition of an ethnographic literary text speaks to and enhance the scientific discipline of ethnography This book makes a fresh contribution to the fields of American Jewish cultural and literary studies and art history
