

A photograph of a person wearing a red cap and a light blue shirt, riding a motorcycle away from the camera on a dusty path. The motorcycle is heavily loaded with a large, flat bundle of long, dark sticks or branches. In the background, to the right, is a small, simple hut with a conical thatched roof. The surrounding landscape is arid and covered in dry, yellowish-brown grass.

Unpoverty Rich Lessons From The Working Poor:

Unpoverty Mark Lutz,2010-08-01 Author Mark Lutz conveys true stories of the working poor he s met through the years Lutz discovered that all they needed was a chance to help themselves When given that opportunity the author watched these innovative people undo the chains of poverty often with a large ripple effect that impacted their communities UnPoverty

Mark Lutz,2010-09-01 Five Foundations of Human Development Errol A. Gibbs,Philip A. Grey,2011-06-08 Five Foundations of Human Development FFHD is a philosophical religious and practical discourse on human development based on the following five foundations Spiritual Moral Social Intellectual and Physical The authors proffer that human beings possess the capacity to rise to a higher state of civilization when we allow Spiritual Intelligence to underpin human intelligence as our capable guide The indomitable spirit within human beings that brought civilization out of the Dark Ages and into an Age of Enlightenment demonstrates our capacity to transcend moral hope and optimism for a better world with peaceful coexistence among individuals families and nations This book will help inform enlighten and empower individuals and leaders in such fields as engineering science religion politics the military and other great institutions to engender solutions to the myriad of unsolved problems of past centuries problems of the present and emerging problems of the future Problems such as wars genocide greed and the exploitation of human beings begin within our destructive spiritual nature and manifest in the physical nature Therefore solutions also lie in the spiritual realm as a counterbalance to the natural realm of human existence FFHD is a blueprint for human survival based on adherence to physical laws and spiritual laws that transcend a belief in an omnipotent all powerful omnipresent everywhere and omniscient all knowing being It will awaken the conscience to comprehend the lifethreatening issues that face humankind The solutions therefore cannot merely be left only to the educated elite the military forces and those in high public and private office The global significance of this book is that it informs a more communal view of our world It is the only perspective that will allow us to enter the global village prepared for the racial social cultural environmental and economic challenges that lie ahead New Media and International Development Anke Schwittay,2014-09-19 New Media and International Development is the first in depth examination of microfinance s enduring popularity with Northern publics Through a case study of Kiva org the world s first person to person microlending website and other microfinance organizations the book argues that international development efforts have an affective dimension This is fostered through narrative and visual representations through the performance of development rituals and through bonds of fellowship between Northern donors and Southern recipients These practices constitute people in the global North as everyday humanitarians and mobilize their affective investments which are financial social and emotional investments in distant others to alleviate their poverty This book draws on ethnographic material from the US India and Indonesia and the anthropological and development studies literature on humanitarianism affect and the public faces of development It opens up novel avenues of research into the formation of new development subjects in the global North This book will appeal to researchers and students of international development anthropology media studies and related fields as well as practitioners and professionals in the field of international development Media and Communication in Nigeria Bruce Mutsvairo,Nnamdi T Ekeanyanwu,2021-12-30 Communication is changing rapidly around the world particularly in Africa where citizens are embracing digital technologies not only to improve not only interpersonal communication but also the state of their financial well being This book investigates these transformations in Nigeria s booming communication industry The book traces communications in Nigeria back to pre colonial indigenous communications through the development of telecommunication broadcasting networks the press the Nigerian film industry Nollywood and on to the digital era At a time when Western voices still dominate the academic literature on communication in Africa this book is noteworthy in drawing almost exclusively on the expertise of Nigerian based authors critiquing the discipline from their own lens and providing an important contribution to the decolonisation of communication studies The authors provide a holistic analysis of the sector encompassing print journalism broadcast journalism public relations advertising film development communication organisational communication and strategic communication Analysis of the role of digital technologies is woven throughout the book concluding with a final section theorising the future of communication studies in Nigeria in the light of the digital media revolution Robust in its theoretical and methodological underpinnings this book will be an important reference for researchers of media and communication studies and those working on Africa specifically Politics and Culture in the Developing World Richard J. Payne,Jamal R. Nassar,2015-10-15 From decolonization and democratization to religion and gender Politics and Culture in the Developing World is a comprehensive survey of the global context of development With in depth and current examples from Asia Africa Latin America and the Middle East this text examines the central political themes in the developing world Throughout Politics and Culture in the Developing World demonstrates how globalization both accelerates change and increases interdependence between developing and developed countries Christian Union Herald ,1903 How to Pass National 5 Modern Studies Paul Creaney, Frank Cooney,2014-02-28 Get your best grade with the SQA endorsed guide to National 5 Modern Studies This book contains all the advice and support you need to revise successfully for your National 5 exam It combines an overview of the course syllabus with advice from a top expert on how to improve exam performance so you have the best chance of success Refresh your knowledge with complete course notes Prepare for the exam with top tips and hints on revision technique Get your best grade with advice on how to gain those vital extra marks Indian Trade Journal ,2000-11-05 Food for All Uma Lele,Manmohan Agarwal,Brian C. Baldwin,Sambuddha Goswami,2021-10-15 Many developing countries are falling behind sustainable development goals food and nutrition levels have deteriorated due to conflict climate change and the Covid pandemic while global ambitions for achieving sustainable food security and adequate nutrition have increased But what are the prospects of achieving sustainable healthy food for all What is the best response to concerns about growing differentiation among developing countries in terms of domestic agricultural and industrial performance How have global institutions established during the post World War Two period helped developing countries to deal with the past economic fallout of food fuel and financial crises Food for All explores how developments since these organizations were established have led to changes in the provision of international financial and technical assistance in support of the global food and agriculture system and how developing countries own efforts have helped transform them These developments and the increase in the number of global actors have expanded and complicated global governance presenting both opportunities for as well as challenges to the improvement of food systems This volume provides an analysis of the structure coordination and management of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO the International Fund for Agricultural Development IFAD and the World Food Programme WFP It also looks at the World Bank the largest international funder of policy advice and investment projects and CGIAR a leading funder of international agricultural research This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Resource Conflict and Environmental Relations in Africa Kelechi Johnmary Ani,2023-03-15 The book discusses the failure of many African governments in providing the social needs of the masses thereby placing the citizenry on the desperate quest for economic resources Unfortunately in many African States mineral resources are owned explored and marketed by the machinery of the state The problem arises when the masses begin to challenge state access and ownership of resources that are domiciled within their ancestral land communities and constituencies Often the challenge and resistance to state ownership of resources is generated by communal or group sense of exploitation negligence and widespread poverty in the face of high resource endowment and waste by the government officials Paradoxically in Niger Delta of Nigeria as discussed in the book the state has unleashed unlimited might upon all social groups and agitators thereby leading to the increased act of taking arms by such groups When the informal resource agitators succeed in arming themselves they begin to demand social and environmental justice thereby leading to mass armed conflict between them and the government security agencies Sometimes the confrontation could be between them and other rival local resource actors in the informal sector of their country s economy bearing in mind that the resources within their jurisdiction have become the central determinant of national commonwealth It is at that state of desperado to control access extraction and sale of natural resources in a State by different armed groups that the process of natural resources extraction qualifies as the most visible cause of conflicts and crises around the African continent that is the centrepiece of the book This is quite understandable given that mineral resource is a gift of nature and nature is that phenomenon that every human group and nation claim to represent or believe to represent them The Boston Globe Index ,1995 The Indian Economy @ 75 Chatterjee Biswajit,Joydeb Sasmal,2024-06-11 This book focuses on the economic challenges India has been facing since its independence in 1947 It traces the country's journey of economic transition and critically analyzes themes such as the political economy of development agriculture macroeconomy industry and labor money and finance trade liberalization gender welfare energy and the environment The volume also addresses the issues of increasing income inequality mass unemployment and environmental degradation and suggests policies for efficient and desirable outcomes in socio economic development This is an important and timely contribution that it will be of interest to scholars and researchers in economics development studies political economy management studies public policy and political studies It will also be useful to policymakers Fighting for Survival Michael Renner,1997 Financial Times World Desk Reference 2005 DK,2005-01-17 Whatever you need
