University Of Johannesburg Registration Form 2015:

ECCWS2015-Proceedings of the 14th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security 2015 Dr Nasser Abouzakhar,2015-07-01 Complete proceedings of the 14th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Hatfield UK Published by Academic Conferences and Publishing International Limited Transforming Universities in South Africa,2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage Osseous Projectile Weaponry Michelle C. Langley,2017-01-27 This volume presents the current state of knowledge on the osseous projectile weaponry that was produced by Pleistocene cultures across the globe Through cross cultural and temporal comparison of manufacturing methods design use methods and associated technology chapters in this volume identify and discuss differences and similarities between these Pleistocene cultures The central research questions addressed in this volume include a how did osseous weaponry technology develop and change through time and can these changes be tied to environmental and or social influences b how did different Pleistocene cultures design and adapt their osseous weaponry technology to their environment as well as changes in that environment and c can we identify cultural interaction between neighboring groups through the analysis of osseous weapons technology and if so can we use these items to track the movement of peoples and or ideas across the landscape Through addressing these three central research questions this volume creates an integrated understanding of osseous technology during a vital period in Modern Human cultural development which will be useful for students and advanced researchers alike Construction in 5D: Deconstruction, Digitalization, Disruption, Disaster, Development Theo C. Haupt,Mariam Akinlolu,Fredrick Simpeh,Christopher Amoah,Zakheeya Armoed,2022-06-21 This book gathers the latest advances innovations and applications in built environment as presented by international researchers at the 15th Built Environment Conference held in Durban South Africa on September 27 28 2021 and organized by the Association of Schools of Construction of Southern Africa ASOCSA The overarching theme of the conference was Construction in 5D Deconstruction Digitalization Disruption Disaster Development with contributions focusing on current trends innovations opportunities and challenges policies and procedures legislation and regulations practices and case studies in both the public and private sectors The volume will contribute to the existing body of knowledge relative to the science and practice of construction not only in South Africa but wherever the products of construction are produced even in these new challenging times of fear and uncertainty Fees Must Fall

Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt Does The Black Middle Class Exist And Are We

Members? Grace Khunou, Kris Marsh, Polite Chauke, Lesego Plank, Leo Igbanoi, Mabone Kgosiemang, 2019-11-22 Does the Black Middle Class Exist And Are We Members makes two contributions into the research of the black middle class First it explores how Black South Africans conceptualize middle classness Second it demonstrates how this conceptualization informs researchers social identity within the Black middle class Nadira: We Belong To The Earth Nadira

Omarjee, 2023-05-31 This book illustrates the ways in which the personal is political in the advancement of decolonising scholarship It explores the intimacies of coloniality entrenched in the narcissism of coloniality enabling the system through extraction subjugation and violence Pushing back against the narcissism of coloniality which is framed by the master slave dialectic or internalised oppression requires uhuru and ubuntu which are agentic strategies employed in reclaiming ontology and epistemology Uhuru insists on a decolonisation of self whereas ubuntu is determined by African radical communitarianism demanding new ways of knowing and seeing whilst re examining epistemicides of the enslaved indentured and colonised Fanonian theory is used as a framework for understanding the colonial authoritys management of the colonised determining the unhappiness quintessential in the colonial condition Freirian concepts of conscientisation and criticality are used as a form of resistance disrupting the system of racial capitalism and the coloniality of gender

Subsequently flipping the classroom to resist the coloniality of knowledge allows scholars to connect with community encouraging engaged scholarship from the personal political perspective making the classroom a radical space for addressing trauma and healing whilst bridging art activism and scholarship Therefore the classroom is situated against the blind spots of the banking model with male dominated decolonial work silencing the feminist perspective Consequently uhuru and ubuntu promote voice agency and resistance as a pedagogical praxis paramount for the development of a decolonial feminist pedagogy Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink,Heidi

Whitford,Natasha C. Stubbs,2017-03-13 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction This issue explores The global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that focus on the development and implementation process of community colleges amid various social political and economic contexts This is the 177th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents vice presidents deans and other leaders in today s open door institutions New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission ECCWS 2018 17th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security V2 Audun

Dalberto,Richard Banégas,2021-05-09 In the context of a global biometric turn this book investigates processes of legal identification in Africa from below asking what this means for the relationship between citizens and the state Almost half of the population of the African continent is thought to lack a legal identity and many states see biometric technology as a reliable and efficient solution to the problem However this book shows that biometrics far from securing identities and avoiding fraud or political distrust can even participate in reinforcing exclusion and polarizing debates on citizenship and national belonging It highlights the social and political embedding of legal identities and the resilience of the documentary state Drawing on empirical research conducted across 14 countries the book documents the processes practices and meanings of legal identification in Africa from the 1950s right up to the biometric boom Beyond the classic opposition between surveillance and recognition it demonstrates how analysing the social uses of IDs and tools of identification can give a fresh account of the state at work the practices of citizenship and the role of bureaucracy in the writing of the self in African societies This book will be of an important reference for students and scholars of African studies politics human security and anthropology and the sociology of the state International Handbook of Emotions Claude-Hélène

Mayer,Elisabeth Vanderheiden,2025-05-10 Volume 2 of this two volume handbook extends the foundational understanding of emotional well being through the lens of positive psychology into the realms of cultural diversity societal impacts and the influence of technology This volume offers an in depth examination of the societal impact of emotions cultural interpretations and the emerging significance of digital and robotic interactions with emotions It encompasses a wide range of topics including the effects of global crises on emotional well being the role of art and literature in understanding emotions and the future of emotional intelligence in the age of digital technology Studies featured in this Volume 2 provide insight into emotional experiences across diverse cultures the resilience of immigrants and refugees and the psychological dynamics of collective behaviour alongside considerations of how technology is reshaping our emotional lives The volume stands as a critical academic resource enriching the discourse on the global and transcultural dimensions of emotional well being It highlights the pivotal role of cultural and technological considerations in advancing our understanding of emotions and sets a new benchmark for research and practice in the field Aimed at scholars researchers and practitioners in psychology cultural studies and technological innovation this volume also addresses educators policymakers and anyone with a keen interest in understanding the complex interplay between emotion culture and technology By bridging gaps between disciplines this volume fosters a more comprehensive and nuanced understanding of emotional well being across different cultural contexts and technological environments It prompts interdisciplinary dialogue offering evidence based insights for mental health practices educational strategies and policymaking Emotion science has progressed enormously in the last decade For those wishing to get insight into the depth and breadth of this progress this is a terrific edited 2 volume overview brought together by two internationally recognised emotion researchers It takes a biopsychosocial approach exploring the multiple dimensions of emotion science and how it can be applied to many different aspects of human life from therapy through to the organisation of communities It will be a must have book for anyone interested in understanding the complexities of emotions Prof Paul Gilbert PhD FBPsS OBE Centre for Compassion Research and Training College of Health Psychology and Social Care University of Derby United Kingdom Food Security in South Africa Sakiko Fukuda-Parr,Vivienne

Taylor,2015-11-10 The right to food is guaranteed in South Africa s Constitution as it is in international law Yet food insecurity remains widespread and persistent at levels much higher than in countries with similar levels of per capita GDP and development such as Brazil In this book leading local and international researchers on food security and related policy work have come together to create the first systematic and trans disciplinary analysis of food security and its multiple dimensions in South Africa and the southern African region Drawing on Amartya Sen s entitlement theory to identify the key drivers of hunger they see food insecurity as a chronic structurally based condition rather than only resulting from natural environmental disasters temporary economic shocks and household vulnerabilities The authors focus on a range of policy options and choices to provide short term and longer term solutions to the systemic causes of unemployment failing rural livelihoods and traditional subsistence production They also emphasise the linkages between the social and economic dimensions of food insecurity and use an integrative interdisciplinary approach to analyse the reasons why these conditions persist and what can be done to address them Importantly the book brings together work undertaken at local and national levels in new ways so that policy makers researchers human rights advocates and social and economic scholars are better able to make the links between macro and micro processes of development Campus Student Activism, Politics, and

Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu,2025-04-03 Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change As a result student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape Individually and through the student councils students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship Through student activism and citizenship students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education s decision making processes Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth Campus Student Activism Politics and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives academia public private and civil society sectors It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers government officials sociologists political scientists academicians and researchers

Self-Directed Learning in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic Josef de Beer, Neal Petersen, Elsa Mentz, Robert J. Balfour, 2023-03-01 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education with a specific focus on research into the enhancement of self directed learning and contributes to the discourse on creating a disposition towards self directed learning during the social and academic integration of first year students within higher education institutions Two chapters also deal with research on the development of self directed learning and nuanced understandings of the chosen professions of Law and Health Sciences students The target audience is scholars working in the fields of teacher education self directed learning engaging pedagogies problem based learning cooperative learning and gamification Whereas social constructivist learning theory served as an overarching theoretical framework for the virtual excursions the various chapters in the book also draw on other secondary theories such as self determination theory social interdependence theory gender theory and the with fitness model of Kounin 1970
