Library,1971 Parks and People in Postcolonial Societies M. Ramutsindela,2006-01-14 Against the background of colonial and postcolonial experiences this volume shows that power relations and stereotypes embedded in the original Western idea of a national park are a continuing reality of contemporary national and transnational parks The volume seeks to dispel the myth that colonial beliefs and practices in protected areas have ended with the introduction of new nature conservation policies and practices It explores this continuity against the backdrop of the development of the national park idea in the West and its trajectories in colonial and postcolonial societies particularly southern Africa This volume analyses the dynamic relations between people and national parks and assesses these in southern Africa against broader experiences in postcolonial societies It draws examples from a broad range of situations and places It reinserts issues of prejudices into contemporary national park systems and accounts for continuities and interruptions in national parks ideals in different contexts Its interpretation of material transcends the North South divide This volume is accessible to readers from different academic backgrounds It is of special interest to academics policymakers and Non Governmental Organisations This book can also be used as prescribed or reference material in courses taught at university Peri-Urban Developments and Processes in Africa with Special Reference to Zimbabwe Innocent Chirisa,Elias Mazhindu,Elmond Bandauko,2016-05-23 This book focuses on peri urban development processes in Africa with special emphasis on Zimbabwe The debates included highlight a number of issues in the peri urban context such as access to water appropriate technologies and land management political economy in the peri urban space peri urban agriculture and place marketing in peri urban development among others The debates raised by the authors in this book revolve around locating the peri urban space within the context of sustainability in which key issues are addressed The book essentially examines peri urban development processes from various angles in an effort to understand how peri urban areas develop function and how their residents survive Peri urban dwellers currently face numerous challenges including land tenure insecurity poor infrastructure and services land use conflicts stringent planning law and land use planning regulations This work seeks to address the knowledge gap on peri urban development processes in Africa and is also intended to inform urban policy practice in the African Cities and beyond Offering policy makers valuable insights on the peri urban space it provides guidance for decision making in the contexts of service delivery land management housing new town development and place marketing among others The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library, 1984

Transfrontier Conservation in Africa Maano Ramutsindela, 2007 Transfrontier conservation is a global concept which encompasses the protection of biodiversity spanning the borders of two or more countries in ways that support local economic development international relations and peace Nowhere is this more relevant but highly debatable than in Africa which is home to a third of the world's terrestrial biodiversity while at the same time hosting its poorest nations This is one of the first books to account for the emergence of transfrontier conservation in Africa against international experiences in bioregional planning The roles of the state and local populations are analyzed as well as the ecological socio economic and political implications The Library of Congress Author Catalog Library of Congress, 1953 Mud, Sands and Seas

Denis Montgomery, 2008-11 This is a collection of travel stories over nearly sixty years from 1949 to 2007 During that time the author saw many changes in Africa and recorded them with his observations often with the goal of extending his knowledge of history and pre history of the region These stories fill gaps between previous books devoted to particular expeditions

Worlds of Human Rights Bill Derman, Anne Hellum, Kristin Sandvik, 2013-04-15 This book engages with contemporary African human rights struggles including land property gender equality and legal identity Through ethnographic field studies it situates claims making by groups and individuals that have been subject to injustices and abuses often due to different forms of displacement in specific geographical historical and political contexts Exploring local communities complexities and divided interests it addresses the ambiguities and tensions surrounding the processes whereby human rights have been incorporated into legislation social and economic programs legal advocacy land reform and humanitarian assistance It shows how existing relations of inequality domination and control are affected by the opportunities offered by emerging law and governance structures as a plurality of non state actors enter what previously was considered the sole regulatory domain of the nation state Strength Beyond Structure Mirjam De Bruijn, Rijk Van Dijk, Jan Bart Gewald, 2007 Drawing on a wide range of historical and anthropological case studies from various parts of Africa this anthology provides an understanding of the importance of agency in processes of social transformation especially in the context of crisis and structural constraint
