Application of LC-MS/MS in the Mycotoxins Studies Laura Gámiz-Gracia, Ana M. García-Campaña, Natalia Arroyo-Manzanares, 2020-06-17 Mycotoxins are secondary metabolites produced by the fungi of different species mainly Aspergillus Fusarium and Penicillium with toxic effects for humans and animals These mycotoxins can contaminate food and feed The European Union EU has established the maximum permitted or recommended levels for well known mycotoxins in different foodstuffs However there are other mycotoxins that are not included in the regulations the emerging mycotoxins whose toxicity is still not clear and the modified or masked mycotoxins produced as a consequence of a detoxification strategy of the host plant of the fungus or during food processing These mycotoxins could pose a risk and should also be taken into account In order to assure consumers health analytical methods for the accurate determination of mycotoxins in different food matrices and feeds are required In this sense liquid chromatography tandem mass spectrometry LC MS MS is a powerful tool for their unique identification and quantification Moreover the use of high resolution mass spectrometry HRMS allows one to identify novel mycotoxins and targeted untargeted approaches for study This Special Issue compiles recent applications of LC MS MS in mycotoxin studies as well as the development and validation of new analytical methods for their identification and quantification in different food matrices and feed occurrence studies and the biomonitoring of mycotoxins and their metabolites in biological fluids

Alternative Iron Ages Brais X. Currás, Inés Sastre, 2019-09-09 Alternative Iron Ages examines Iron Age social formations that sit outside traditional paradigms developing methods for archaeological characterisation of alternative models of society In so doing it contributes to the debates concerning the construction and resistance of inequality taking place in archaeology anthropology and sociology In recent years Iron Age research on Western Europe has moved towards new forms of understanding social structures Yet these alternative social organisations continue to be considered as basic human social formations which frequently imply marginality and primitivism In this context the grand narrative of the European Iron Age continues to be defined by cultural foci which hide the great regional variety in an artificially homogenous area This book challenges the traditional classical evolutionist narratives by exploring concepts such as non triangular societies heterarchy and segmentarity across regional case studies to test and propose alternative social models for Iron Age social formations Constructing new social theory both archaeologically based and supported by sociological and anthropological theory the book is perfect for those looking to examine and understand life in the European Iron Age We are so grateful to the research project titled Paisajes rurales antiguos del Noroeste peninsular formas de dominacion romana y explotacion de recursos Ancient rural landscapes in Northwestern Iberia Roman dominion and resource exploitation HAR2015 64632 P MINECO FEDER directed from the Instituto de Historia CSIC and also to the Funda ao para a Ciencia e a Tecnologia Foundation for Science and Technology postdoctoral project SFRH BPD 102407 2014 Information Services for a Sustainable Society Madeleine C. The Work of Repair Thomas Cousins, 2023-06-06 In the timber plantations in northeastern South Africa laborers work long hours among tall swaying lines of eucalypts on land once theirs In 2008 at the height of the HIV AIDS crisis timber corporations distributed hot cooked meals as a nutrition intervention to bolster falling productivity and profits But life and sustenance are about much more than calories and machinic bodies What is at stake is the nurturing of capacity across all domains of life physical relational cosmological in the form of amandla An Nguni word meaning power strength or capacity amandla organizes ordinary concerns with one s abilities to earn a wage to strengthen one s body and to take care of others

it describes the potency of medicines and sexual vitality and it captures a history of anti colonial and anti apartheid struggle for freedom The ordinary actions coordinated by and directed at amandla do not obscure the wounding effects of plantation labor or the long history of racial oppression but rather form the basis of what the Algerian artist Kader Attia calls repair In this captivating ethnography Cousins examines how amandla as the primary material of the work of repair anchors ordinary scenes of living and working in and around the plantations As a space of exploitation that enables the global paper and packaging industry to extract labor power the plantation depends on the availability of creative action in ordinary life to capitalize on bodily capacity The Work of Repair is a fine grained exploration of the relationships between laborers in the timber plantations of KwaZulu Natal and the historical decompositions and reinventions of the milieu of those livelihoods and lives Offering a fresh approach to the existential ethical and political stakes of ethnography from and of late liberal South Africa the book attends to urgent questions of postapartheid life the fate of employment the role of the state in providing welfare and access to treatment the regulation of popular curatives the queering of kinship and the future of custom and its territories Through detailed descriptions Cousins explicates the important and fragile techniques that constitute the work of repair the effort to augment one's capacity in a way that draws on acknowledges and reimagines the wounds of history keeping open the possibility of a future through and with others

Rethinking Linguistic Creativity in Non-native Englishes Sandra C. Deshors, Sandra Götz, Samantha Laporte, 2018-07-19 At a time when the paradigm gap Sridhar Sridhar 1986 between the EFL and ESL research areas is attracting much scholarly attention the contributions in the current volume explore this gap from the perspective of linguistic innovations across the two different types of non native Englishes In this endeavour this volume unveils the many facets of linguistic innovations in non native English varieties and explores the fine line between learners erroneous versus creative use of a target language Adopting empirical corpus based approaches to portray linguistic innovations characteristic of EFL and ESL varieties the contributions show how the interaction of linguistic and social forces influences the development of novel linguistic forms in both endonormative ESL contexts and exonormative EFL contexts This volume is of relevance to linguists who are interested in the features of non native English and who wish to gain a better understanding of the nature of innovations along the EFL ESL continuum Originally published as a special issue of International Journal of Learner Corpora Research 2 2 2016
