the dominant and dominated side and the legitimacy of the ideology in power apartheid or Zionism Although the politics and roles of protest groups in both cases share some similarities differences remain Whilst white protest groups moved towards an inclusive peace agenda that adopts the ANC vision of a united non racial democratic South Africa the Jewish Israeli protest groups are still by majority entrenched in their support for an exclusive Jewish state And as such they support separation between the two peoples and a limited division of mandatory Palestine Eretz Israel This timely book sheds light on a controversial and explosive political issue Israel being compared to apartheid South Africa Feminist Collections ,1995

A Place That Matters Yet Sara Byala,2024-05-31 A Place That Matters Yet unearths the little known story of Johannesburg s MuseumAfrica a South African history museum that embodies one of the most dynamic and fraught stories of colonialism and postcolonialism its life spanning the eras before during and after apartheid Sara Byala in examining this story sheds new light not only on racism and its institutionalization in South Africa but also on the problems facing any museum that is charged with navigating colonial history from a postcolonial perspective Drawing on thirty years of personal letters and public writings by museum founder John Gubbins Byala paints a picture of a uniquely progressive colonist focusing on his philosophical notion of three dimensional thinking which aimed to transcend binaries and thus quite explicitly racism Unfortunately Gubbins died within weeks of the museum s opening and his hopes would go unrealized as the museum fell in line with emergent apartheid politics Following the museum through this transformation and on to its 1994 reconfiguration as a post apartheid institution Byala showcases it as a rich and problematic archive of both material culture and the ideas that surround that culture arguing for its continued importance in the establishment of a unified South Africa Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Museum.
