Levelling Up Left Behind Places Ron Martin, Ben Gardiner, Andy Pike, Peter Sunley, Peter Tyler, 2021-12-24 This book aims to understand the predicaments of left behind places and the scale of the policy challenge of levelling up their economic prosperity Drawing out lessons of wider international significance it examines how places cities towns and localities have grown apart over recent decades amidst deindustrialisation post industrial transition and the disruptive shocks of the global financial crisis and COVID 19 pandemic Using the UK case to illustrate its arguments the analysis identifies the different types of left behind places and their distinctive economic experiences The key features of urban and regional institutions and policies are reviewed to understand more about why despite some successes geographical inequalities remain an entrenched feature of the UK blighting the life chances and quality of life of its citizens and national economic progress as a whole The weaknesses of past policies are highlighted and the case is made for a new mission oriented policy model because only a radical shift in economic thinking governance and management is likely to achieve the levelling up that is now a prominent refrain in the political lexicon
