Defence Diplomacy and National Security Strategy Ian Liebenberg, Dirk Kruijt, Shrikant Paranjpe, 2020-04-20 The post cold war era presented security challenges that at one level are a continuation of the cold war era at another level these phenomena manifested in new forms Whether the issues of economics and trade transfer of technologies challenges of intervention or humanitarian crisis the countries of the South previously pejoratively labelled Third World or developing countries have continued to address these challenges within the framework of their capabilities and concerns The volume explores defence diplomacies national security challenges and strategies dynamics of diplomatic manoeuvres and strategic resource management of Latin American southern African and Asian countries

Copper King in Central Africa Hyden Munene, 2022-01-31 Copper King in Central Africa offers a detailed account of the corporate history of the Rhokana Rokana Corporation and its Nkana mine Thematically and chronologically organised it explores the discovery of viable ores on the Northern Rhodesian Zambian Copperbelt in the late 1920s which attracted foreign capital from South Africa Britain and the USA prompting the development of the Nkana mine and the formation of the Rhokana Corporation in the early 1930s It follows through the evolution of the copper mining industry up to the re privatisation of the Zambian mining sector in 1991 The book ties into a single narrative the disparate themes of corporate organisation labour relations and profitability of Rhokana demonstrating how the firm was for a time the most important mining entity in the Northern Rhodesian Zambian mining industry Rhokana was both an investment firm on the Copperbelt and a mining company through Nkana mine Thus the Corporation was central to the development and profitability of the copper industry in Zambia Its corporate and labour policies influenced the Copperbelt as a whole Employing the largest labour force in the mining sector Rhokana spearheaded the labour movement on the Copperbelt Its Nkana mine was also the largest producer of copper in the Northern Rhodesian mining industry between 1940 and 1953 and contributed hugely to the war economies of Britain and the USA Throughout its history Nkana was also a major source of cobalt After nationalisation of the mining sector in 1970 Rhokana surrendered its investments in the wider copper industry but remained central to the Copperbelt's smelting and refining operations owning the biggest metallurgical facilities in the industry

Security and Human Rights Benjamin J Goold, Liora Lazarus, 2019-09-05 This is the second edition of the acclaimed Security and Human Rights first published in 2007 Reconciling issues of security with a respect for fundamental human rights has become one of the key challenges facing governments throughout the world The first edition broke the disciplinary confines in which security was often analysed before and after the events of 11 September 2001 The second edition continues in this tradition presenting a collection of essays from leading academics and practitioners in the fields of criminal justice public law privacy law international law and critical social theory The collection offers genuinely multidisciplinary perspectives on the relationship between security and human rights In addition to exploring how the demands of security might be reconciled with the protection of established rights Security and Human Rights provides fresh insight into the broader legal and political challenges that lie ahead as states attempt to control crime prevent terrorism and protect their citizens The volume features a set of new essays that engage with the most pressing questions facing security and human rights in the twenty first century and is essential reading for all those working in the area
