Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society Masenya, Tlou

Maggie, Bhuda, Monicca Thulisile, 2025-05-08 Indigenous knowledge is the comprehensive body of knowledge that locals accumulate from life experience, unofficial research and close observation of their surroundings within a particular culture. It connects the entirety of nature and the components that sustain life to the survival of every human being. Additionally, it gives specific community conditions in respect to the environment and offers workable answers to people's problems. As a result, by preserving indigenous knowledge systems, indigenous knowledge may provide value to the community by offering innovative solutions to social, environmental, and economic issues. Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society explores the role of indigenous knowledge in the contemporary society. Furthermore, it discusses the importance of preserving and sharing indigenous knowledge for community development. Covering topics such as epistemic diversity, traditional load, and indigenous curricula, this book is an excellent resource for sociologists, policymakers, government officials, environmentalists, educators, records managers, professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, and more. Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi

Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education, identity formation, and language in post-apartheid South Africa, with specific attention to higher education. It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping, reproducing, and perpetuating sectoral, class, sub-national, and national identities, which in turn, in the peculiar South African setting, are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity. The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies, overt and/or covert, largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions. Together, the chapters examine the roles played by higher education, by language policies, and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded. The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections. The middle chapters describe the so-called White Universities, Black Universities, and Middle Man Minorities Universities. The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa's higher education.
