Migration and Diaspora Formation Ciprian Burlăcioiu,2022-09-20 The role of migration for Christianity as a world religion during the last two centuries has drawn considerable attention from scholars in different fields The main issue this book seeks to address is the question whether and to what extent migration and diaspora formation should be considered as elements of a new historiography of global Christianity including the reflection upon earlier epochs By focusing on migration and diaspora the emerging map of Christianity will include the dimension of movement and interaction between actors in different regions providing a more comprehensive map of agency of individuals and groups previously regarded as passive Furthermore local histories will become parts of a broader picture and historiography might correlate both local and transregional perspectives in a balanced manner Behind this approach lies the desire to broaden the perspective of Ecclesiastical History and religious history in general in a more systematic manner by questioning the traditional criteria of selection This might help us to recover previously lost actors and forgotten dynamics Civil Engineering ,1993 Contemporary Approaches to

Commemorative Public Art Brenda Schmahmann,2025-06-12 In this collection a diverse range of international contributors examine commemorative monuments from the late twentieth and twenty first centuries The book reveals how those monuments enable new perspectives and understanding of histories as well as a heightened involvement of viewers through not simply their subject matter but also most crucially their actual form and design While some contributors explore new approaches to the art of commemoration that artists and designers have deployed in recent monuments others examine how artists have undertaken creative engagements with historical statuary and sites using these interventions to offer critique and commentary Additionally the contributions consider the impact of political change on ways in which an inherited commemorative landscape is interpreted and negotiated Questions considered by the contributions include How might new monuments be shaped and how might they function differently from those of the past Is there a place for portraiture in the contemporary commemorative landscape Should commemorative monuments be envisaged as permanent fixtures or are temporary approaches more viable How effectively have artists disrupted the meanings of historical monuments and sites through installation performance video and other media How has political change played out at historical sites affecting how commemorative monuments from prior dispensations are understood in the 2020s This collection will be of value to researchers in Art History Visual Studies and Heritage Studies as well as scholars in all disciplines and fields who are interested in public art public memory and the politics of commemoration Towards an Ubuntu University Yusef Waghid,Judith Terblanche,Lester Brian Shawa,Joseph Pardon Hungwe,Faiq Waghid,Zayd Waghid,2023-04-19 This book explores the argument to reconsider the idea of a university in light of the African ethic of ubuntu literally human dignity and interdependence The book discusses through the context of higher education discourse of philosophy and comparative education how global universities have evolved into higher educational institutions concerned with knowledge re production for various end purposes that range from individual autonomy to public accountability to serving the interests of the economy and markets The question can legitimately be asked Is an ubuntu university different from an entrepreneurial university thinking university and ecological university While these different understandings of a university accentuate both the epistemological and moral imperatives in relation to itself and the societies in which they manifest it is through the ubuntu university that emotivism in the forms of dignity and humaneness will enhance a university s capacity for autonomy responsibility and criticality This book would be of academic interest to university educators and students in philosophy of education comparative education and cultural studies Social Licensing and Mining in South Africa Sethulego

University Of Wits Prospectus 2015: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. University Of Wits Prospectus 2015 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
