

The background of the entire cover is a photograph showing the aftermath of a structural failure. A concrete building has collapsed, leaving a dense, chaotic network of blue-painted steel reinforcement bars (rebar) exposed. The sky is a clear, bright blue. The overall image conveys a sense of disaster and structural instability.

Surging Democracy Adriana Cavarero, 2021-08-31 What does a truly democratic experience of political action look like today In this provocative new work Adriana Cavarero weighs in on contemporary debates about the relationship between democracy happiness and dissent Drawing on Arendt's understanding of politics as a participatory experience but also discussing texts by mile Zola Elias Canetti Boris Pasternak and Roland Barthes along with engaging Judith Butler Cavarero proposes a new view of democracy based not on violence but rather on the spontaneous experience of a plurality of bodies coming together in public Expanding on the themes explored in previous works Cavarero offers a timely intervention into current thinking about the nature of democracy suggesting that its emergence thrives on the nonviolent creativity of a widespread participatory and relational power that is shared horizontally rather than vertically From digital democracy to selfies to contemporary protest movements Cavarero argues that we need to rethink our focus on individual happiness and turn toward rediscovering the joyful emotions of birth through plural interaction Yes let us be happy she urges but let us do so publicly politically together

Inventing Americans in the Age of Discovery Michael Householder, 2016-05-06 Inventing Americans in the Age of Discovery traces the linguistic rhetorical and literary innovations that emerged out of the first encounters between Europeans and indigenous peoples of the Americas Through analysis of six texts Michael Householder demonstrates the role of language in forming the identities or characters that permitted Europeans English speakers primarily to adapt to the unusual circumstances of encounter Arranged chronologically the texts examined include John Mandeville's Travels Richard Eden's English language translations of the accounts of Spanish and Portuguese discovery and conquest George Best's account of Martin Frobisher's voyages to northern Canada Ralph Lane's account of the abandonment of Roanoke John Smith's writings about Virginia and John Underhill's account of the Pequot War Through his analysis Householder reveals that English colonists did not share a universal homogenous view of indigenous Americans as savages but that the writers confronted by unfamiliar peoples and situations resorted to a mixed array of cultural beliefs myths and theories to put together workable explanations of their experiences which then became the basis for how Europeans in the colonies began transforming themselves into Americans

Foucault on Freedom Johanna Oksala, 2005-06-16 Oksala identifies the different interpretations of freedom in Foucault's philosophy and examines its three major divisions

Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford, 2007-04-26 Children's books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children's Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children s literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures

Greek Philosophy On the Art of War, the Logos Antonios Peripatitis,2025-08-29 In the work Art of War the strategy of warfare is presented not as a cold academic theory but as a living daily act of love and care akin to preparing a nourishing soup for your child Just as a chef carefully selects ingredients combines them with mastery and offers them with love to nourish their child so too must a strategist wisely choose their forces coordinate them with precision and use them with prudence for the good of the whole The book highlights how preparation patience and wisdom are essential ingredients for every battle in life whether military personal or related to the organization of a State The Logos that divine mind which guides is the secret ingredient that transforms simple effort into art and conflict into a process of growth and evolution always aiming for harmony and prosperity Through this familiar analogy the work makes the principles of strategy and leadership accessible demonstrating that true strength stems from love and wisdom and not solely from brute force

The Massacre of St. Bartholomew Alfred Soman,2012-12-06 On 18 August 1572 Marguerite de Valois sister of King Charles IX was married in Paris to Henri de Navarre first prince of the blood and a Protestant This union which was to cement the provisions of the Peace of St Germain 1570 ending the third of the French wars of religion was the occasion of an extraordinary influx of French Calvin ists into the notoriously Catholic capital Hundreds of Huguenots had journeyed to Paris to honor their titular leader and participate in the wedding celebrations Tensions were already running high when the court made the fatal decision to take advantage of the situation and assassinate the admiral of France Gaspard de Coligny the recognized leader of the Huguenot armies which had helped plunge the country into ten years of intermittent civil war and who now threatened to embroil the kingdom in a full scale foreign war with Spain On Friday the twenty second as he returned from the Louvre to his lodgings Coligny paused in the street some say to receive a letter others to doff his hat to an acquaintance or to adjust his hose and was fired on by a hired assassin hidden in a house known to belong to one of the ultra Catholic Guise faction The arquebus shot missed its mark and succeeded only in wounding the admiral in his hand and arm where upon he was carried by his followers to his bed Altazor (Revised Edition).
