Methodologies for Effective Writing Instruction in EFL and ESL Classrooms Al-Mahrooqi, Rahma, 2014-10-31 Educators continue to strive for advanced teaching methods to bridge the gap between native and non native English speaking students Lessons on written forms of communication continue to be a challenge recognized by educators who wish to improve student comprehension and overall ability to write clearly and expressively Methodologies for Effective Writing Instruction in EFL and ESL Classrooms brings together research and practices for successful written communication teaching among students of diverse linguistic backgrounds With technological advancements and resources educators are able to implement new tools into their lesson plans for the benefit of their students This publication is an essential reference source for professionals educators and researchers interested in techniques and practices for written communication in English language teaching geared towards non native English speaking students Making Progress in Writing Eve Bearne, 2003-08-29 Children s achievements in writing lag behind their achievements in reading speaking and listening National tests are beginning to expose this gap and inevitably it is raising concerns The issue is not without controversy but regardless of the politics of the situation national progress in children s writing is both needed and possible This new book from Eve Bearne makes a valuable contribution towards helping teachers close this gap Uniquely it follows the structure of the National Literacy Strategy whilst examining key areas such as bridging KS2 and KS3 writing and writing skills beyond the Literacy Hour Such a structure makes the book incredibly practical and easy to use providing essential information for both practitioners and academics

Learning-to-Write and Writing-to-Learn in an Additional Language Rosa M. Manchón, 2011-10-05 This book is a pioneer attempt to bridge the gap between the fields of second language acquisition SLA and second and foreign language L2 writing Its ultimate aim is to advance our understanding of written language learning by compiling a collection of theoretical meta reflections and empirical studies that shed new light on two crucial dimensions of the theory and research in the field first the manner in which L2 users learn to express themselves in writing the learning to write dimension and second the manner in which the engagement in written output practice can contribute to developing competences in an L2 the writing to learn dimension These two areas of disciplinary inquiry have up until now developed separately the learning to write dimension has been the cornerstone of L2 writing research whereas the writing to learn one has been theorized and researched within SLA studies hence the relevance of the book for exploring L2 writing SLA interfaces Teacher-Made Assessments Christopher Gareis, Leslie W.
