To Be A Hero Literature And Thought:

On the Literature and Thought of the German Classical Era Hugh Barr Nisbet, 2021-05-20 This volume provides a valuable contribution to our knowledge of eighteenth and nineteenth century intellectual life inside and outside Germany Prof Karl S Guthke Harvard University This elegant collection of essays ranges across eighteenth and nineteenth century thought covering philosophy science literature and religion in the Age of Goethe A recognised authority in the field Nisbet grapples with the major voices of the Enlightenment and gives pride of place to the figures of Lessing Herder Goethe and Schiller These eleven essays range widely in their compass of thought and intellectual discourse dealing incisively with themes including the philosophical implications of literature and the relationship between religion science and politics The result is an accomplished reflection on German thought but also on its rebirth as Nisbet argues for the relevance of these Enlightenment thinkers for the readers of today The first half of this collection focuses predominantly on eighteenth century thought where names like Lessing Goethe and Herder but also Locke and Voltaire feature The second has a wider chronological scope discussing authors such as Winckelmann and Schiller while branching out from discussions of religion philosophy and literature to explore the sciences Issues of biology early environmentalism and natural history also form part of this volume The collection concludes with an examination of changing attitudes towards art in the aftermath of the Age of Goethe The essays in this volume have been previously published separately but are brought together in this collection to present Nisbet's widely acclaimed perspectives on this fascinating period of German thought It will be of interest to scholars and students of the intellectual life of Europe during the Enlightenment while its engaging and lucid style will also appeal to the general reader

Evil: A History in Modern French Literature and Thought Damian Catani, 2013-02-14 In this original interdisciplinary approach to evil in French literature Damian Catani links literary depictions of evil with cultural events to chart a history of the concept in some of the most important texts in modern literature Beginning with Balzac and Baudelaire Catani covers the restoration and the Second Empire before interpreting how Catholic stereotypes of the evil feminine and new scientific theories impacted the work of Lautr amount and Zola Moving into the twentieth century evil is then explored in terms of the Self power knowledge and politics through readings of Proust C line Sartre and Foucault By seamlessly bringing together aesthetic philosophical historical and ideological concerns to read key French writers from the 18th to the 21st century this study argues why a broader treatment of literary evils is vital to understanding our contemporary moral and political climate

Mind as Reflected in Their Literature from 1870 to 1914 Fanny Johnson, 1922 Thinking and Learning through Children's Literature Miriam G. Martinez, Junko Yokota, Charles Temple, 2017-04-18 Much of teachers attention these days is focused on having students read closely to ferret out the author's intended meaning and the devices used to convey that meaning But we cannot forget to guide students to have moving engagements with literature because they need to make strong personal connections to books of merit if they are to become the next generation of readers literate people with awareness of and concern for the diversity of human beings around them and in different times and places Fortunately guiding both students personal engagement with literature and their close reading to appreciate the author's message and craft are not incompatible goals This book enthusiastically and intelligently addresses both imperatives first surveying what is gained when students are immersed in literature then celebrating and explicating the main features of literature students need to understand to broaden their tastes and deepen their engagement at the same time they meet external standards then presenting a host of active methods for exploring all major genres of children's books and finally presenting suggestions for interdisciplinary teaching units grounded in literature Created by noted leaders in the fields of children's literature and literacy the book is enlivened by recurring features such as suggested reading lists issues for discussion links to technology and annotations of exemplary books

The Mind-body Problem in German Literature 1770-1830 Catherine J. Minter, 2002 With reference to the treatment of mind body problems in the novels and non fictional writings of Johann Karl Wezel Karl Philipp Moritz and Jean Paul this impressive study follows the development of and demonstrates the continuity in the history of ideas in Germany between the Late Enlightenment and Romanticism Affect, Emotion and Sensibility in Modern Japanese Literature Reiko Abe Auestad, 2024-07-29 This book takes the unique approach of combining cognitive approaches with more established close reading methods in analysing a selection of Japanese novels and a film They are by four well known male authors and a director Natsume S seki Shiga Naoya e Kenzabur Ibuse Masuji and Imamura Sh hei and five female authors Kirino Natsuo Kawakami Mieko Murata Sayaka Tsushima Y ko and Ishimure Michiko from the early twentieth century up to the early millennium It approaches the different artistic strategies that oscillate between emotional immersion and critical reflection Inspired by new developments in cognitive theory and neuroscience the book seeks to put a spotlight on the aspects of modern Japanese novels that were not fully appreciated earlier the eclectic and fluid nature of the novel as a form and the vital roles played by affects and emotions often complicated under the impact of trauma Rejuvenating previously established cultural theories through a cognitive and emotional lens narratology genre theory historicism cultural study gender theory and ecocriticism this book will appeal to students and scholars of modern literature and Japanese literature

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1856 The Intelligent Unconscious in Modernist Literature and Science Thalia Trigoni, 2020-11-16 This book reassesses the philosophical psychological and above all the literary representations of the unconscious in the early twentieth century This period is distinctive in the history of responses to the unconscious because it gave rise to a line of thought according to which the unconscious is an intelligent agent able to perform judgements and formulate its own thoughts The roots of this theory stretch back to nineteenth century British physiologists Despite the production of a number of studies on modernist theories of the relation of the unconscious to conscious cognition the degree to which the notion of the intelligent unconscious influenced modernist thinkers and writers remains understudied This study seeks to look back at modernism from beyond the Freudian model It is striking that although we tend not to explore the importance of this way of thinking about the unconscious and its relationship to consciousness during this period modernist writers adopted it widely The intelligent unconscious was particularly appealing to literary authors as it is intertwined with creativity and artistic novelty through its ability to move beyond discursive logic The book concentrates primarily on the works of D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and T S Eliot authors who engaged the notion of the intelligent unconscious reworked it and offered it for the consumption of the general populace in varied ways and for different purposes whether aesthetic philosophical societal or ideological Shortlisted for the Modernist Studies Association MSA First Book Prize and for the 2021 British Society for Literature and Science Book Prize The Mirror of Literature, Amusement, and Instruction ,1846 Containing original essays historical narratives biographical memoirs sketches of society topographical descriptions novels and tales anecdotes select extracts from new and expensive works the spirit of the public journals discoveries in the arts and sciences useful domestic hints etc etc etc Literature and Event Mantra Mukim,Derek Attridge,2021-11-29 If event is a proper name we reserve for monumental changes crises transitions and ruptures that are by their very nature unnameable or unthinkable then this volume is an attempt to set up an encounter between such eventhood as it comes to have a bearing on literary works and the work of reading literature As the event continues to provide a valuable analytical paradigm for work undertaken within the newer subdisciplines of literary and critical theory including close reading bio politics world literature and eco criticism this volume makes a concerted effort to update the scholarship in this area and foreground the recent resurgence of interest in the concept The book provides both a retrospective appraisal of the significance of events to literary studies and the literary humanities as well as contemporary and prospective appraisals of the same and thus would appeal scholars and instructors in the areas of literary theory comparative literature and philosophical aesthetics alike Along with a specialist focus on thinkers such as Derrida Badiou Deleuze and Malabou the essays in this volume read a wide corpus of literature ranging from Han Kang Homer Renee Gladman Proust and Flaubert to Yoruba ideophones Browning Anne Carson Jenichiro Oyabe and Ben Lerner The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1878 C.T. Hsia on Chinese Literature Chih-tsing Hsia,2004 Best known for the groundbreaking works A History of Modern Chinese Fiction 1961 and The Classic Chinese Novel 1968 C T Hsia has gathered sixteen essays and studies written during his Columbia years as a professor of Chinese literature Wider in range and scope C T Hsia on Chinese Literature stands beside his two earlier books as part of his critical legacy to all readers seriously interested in the subject C T Hsia's writings on Chinese literature express a candor rare among his Western colleagues Thus the first section of the book contains three essays that place Chinese literature in critical perspective examining its substance and significance and questioning some of the critical approaches and methods adopted by Western sinologists for its study and appreciation The second section has two essays on traditional drama one on the Yuan masterpiece The Romance of the Western Chamber and the other a sophisticated study of the plays of the foremost Ming dramatist Tang Hsien-tsu The third section is the richest and longest of the book containing six essays on traditional and early modern fiction At least four of these on The Military Romance and the novels Flowers in the Mirror The Travels of Lao Ts'an and Jade Pear Spirit are among the author's finest works Finally the fourth section of the book covering modern fiction includes one essay on the novel The Korchin Banner Plains an essay on women in Chinese communist fiction and three concise yet illuminating studies of the short story during the three republican decades before Mao the first dozen years under Mao and in Taiwan during the 1960s

Encyclopaedia Britannica, Or a Dictionary of Arts, Sciences, and Miscellaneous Literature, 1810 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English Harry Blamires, 2021-06-23 First published in 1983 A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is a detailed and comprehensive guide containing over 500 entries on individual writers from countries including Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean India Ireland New Zealand Pakistan Sri Lanka and the UK The book contains substantial articles relating to major novelists poets and dramatists of the age as well as a wealth of information on the work of lesser known writers and the part they have played in cultural history It focuses in detail on the character and quality of the literature itself highlighting what is distinctive in the work of the writers being discussed and providing key biographical and contextual details A Guide to Twentieth Century Literature in English is ideal for those with an interest in the twentieth century literary scene and the history of literature more broadly The Search for Selfhood in Modern Literature M. Roston, 2001-09-05 The scientific achievements of the modern world failed to impress the leading writers of this century leaving them instead profoundly disturbed by a sense of lost values and of the insignificance of the individual in a universe seemingly indifferent to human concerns In The Search for Selfhood in Modern Literature Roston explores the strategies adopted by such mid-century authors as Greene Salinger Osborne Baldwin and others in their attempt to cope with the spiritual vacuity strategies including the emergence of the anti-hero and of literary existentialism and offer in the course of the investigation fascinatingly new insights into their work
