Loveworks Brian Sheehan, 2013-05-28 In 2004 Kevin Roberts wrote Lovemarks the future beyond brands It was admired by many as a breakthrough in marketing thinking but was also controversial because of its surprisingly obvious thesis that emotional connections are at the heart of sustained relationships between producers retailers and consumers While many companies were using the language of war in their marketing target penetrate ambush Roberts was using the language of love mystery sensuality intimacy He explained in simple terms what people are often loath to admit we make decisions with our emotions over our reason Lovemarks described the journey by which brands could move from consumer respect based on intellect to consumer love based on emotion and in return gain loyalty beyond reason In 2010 Advertising Age magazine named Lovemarks one of their ideas of the decade while noting that the roadmap for brands to achieve Lovemark status was still not entirely clear Loveworks How the world s top marketers make emotional connections to win in the marketplace adds to the original Lovemarks by showcasing real world business examples and outlining the roadmaps followed by several world renowned brands to achieve Lovemark status Procter Gamble Toyota Visa General Mills Miller T Mobile and Lenovo are just a few examples of businesses winning in the marketplace through the application of the Lovemarks theory maintaining laser like focus on making and sustaining emotional connections with consumers Loveworks features 20 case stories from clients and markets worldwide in widely varying categories My book shows that Lovemarks thinking works anywhere anytime All it takes is having the brains to implement it the guts to see it through and an abiding faith in emotion as your compass says Brian Sheehan

Towards a New Order in the Global Automotive Industry: How Asian Companies Catch Up to Their Western Peers Daniel Wäldchen, 2013-08 The global automotive industry faces the most influential changes since the revolutionary introduction of mass production a century ago Latecomer firms from Asia are challenging the western incumbents They can change the rules of the game in the industry by leapfrogging several steps in their development process This study seeks to contribute to the discussion of latecomer firms

by gaining insights into the catch up processes of five automotive companies in the passenger car segment namely BYD PRC Chery PRC Geely PRC Tata Motors India and Mahindra and Mahindra India Based on learning theories and the core processes of car manufacturers the author develops a catch up framework in order to compare automotive latecomers The Korean manufacturer Hyundai serves as an example for a successful catch up and provides a contextual framing for catch up processes in the automotive sector An analysis of empirical data provides evidence for the evaluation of the catch up status of the five challenger firms The author emphasizes the influence of institutional settings in China and India and the role of business groups that can act as facilitators for the catch up process Finally the study clusters the catch up strategies of the five observed companies in order to compare their approach
