Wangari Maathai The Woman Who Planted Millions Of Trees:

Wangari Maathai Franck Prévot, 2015-01-06 Trees are living symbols of peace and hope Wangari Maathai Nobel Peace laureate Wangari Maathai changed the way the world thinks about nature ecology freedom and democracy inspiring radical efforts that continue to this day This simply told story begins with Green Belt Movement founder Wangari Maathai s childhood at the foot of Mount Kenya where as the oldest child in her family her responsibility was to stay home and help her mother When the chance to go to school presented itself she seized it with both hands She traveled to the US to study where she saw that even in the land of the free black people were not welcome Returning home Wangari was determined to help her people and her country She recognized that deforestation and urbanization was at the root of her country s troubles Her courage and confidence carried her through adversity to found a movement for peace reconciliation and healing Aur lia Fronty s beautiful illustrations show readers the color and diversity of Wangari s Africa the green trees and the flowering trees full of birds monkeys and other animals the roots that dig deep into the earth and the people who work and live on the land

Wangari Maathai Franck Prevot, 2017-06-06 Wangari Maathai received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2004 for her efforts to lead women in a nonviolent struggle to bring peace and democracy to Africa through its reforestation Her organization planted over thirty million trees in thirty years This b

Integrating Social and Emotional Learning with Content Katherine Kapustka, Sarah Bright, 2022-03-14 Integrating Social and Emotional Learning with Content builds a framework for creatively and effectively using picture books to integrate social and emotional learning SEL with teaching across content areas Thoughtful book choices in mixed ability early elementary classrooms have the power to not only support gifted students as they develop academically but also to provide an opportunity to address their unique social and emotional needs such as asynchronous development and an early awareness of complex and challenging issues in their lives and the world at large Picture books are an invaluable tool for this work because the characters topics and settings increasingly represent and celebrate the lived experiences of diverse student populations supporting culturally responsive teaching Packed with lesson plans book lists and more this book is perfect for teachers in gifted and mixed ability classrooms as well as homeschooling parents looking to help their children make meaningful connections between their culture languages and lived experiences and the academic content and SEL skills they are being taught in the classroom

Ecologies of Community in Performance Karen Savage, Dominic Symonds, 2025-10-02 In their previous book Economies of Collaboration in Performance Savage and Symonds explored the economy as a metaphor for understanding collaborative practices in the arts This book Ecologies of Community in Performance continues to explore arts practices focusing on communities and turning to the language of ecology to understand the complexities and working dynamics of arts communities The book provides a thoughtful analysis of how communities work as ecologies offering case studies of community processes by way of illustrating the main discussion In doing so it reveals how the triangulation of ecology community and performance allows for a deeper understanding of dynamic relations in the arts enabling scholars practitioners and policy makers to better conceptualise ecological thinking in relation to 21st century arts practices

Linking Picture Book Biographies to National Content Standards Liz Deskins,Christina H. Dorr,2015-11-23

Presenting beautifully illustrated picture book biographies this book pairs narrative nonfiction biographies rich in language and illustrations with national content standards in the social studies science and the arts The current focus on promoting nonfiction reading at all ages has brought to attention the value of narrative nonfiction in the form of new picture book biographies But which of the thousands of these types of titles will have maximum teaching impact and be interesting to students This book identifies the best of the best in new picture book biographies that are rich in language and illustrations and best support national content standards in science social studies and the arts Written by authors with a combined experience of more than 50 years in teaching as well as extensive knowledge of children s literature and the review of such books the book provides in a single resource the best in recently published picture book biographies that rely on primary and secondary sources the best in storytelling styles and the most engaging illustrations The unit and lesson ideas within can be used as is or modified as needed The selected biographies enable connections between the stories of individuals lives in history and required areas of study

Speak with the Earth and It Will Teach You Daniel Cooperrider,2022-11-30 I don t think it is enough appreciated how much an outdoor book the Bible is wrote Wendell Berry and author Daniel Cooperrider illustrates his point with beautiful narrative like a stroll through the woods Speak with the Earth analyzes the Bible s treatment of nature and intersperses this analysis with the author s own reflections on experiences in nature Organized in sections touching on the four elements the book engages with the multifaceted relationship between the Bible and nature through various media including art theology the natural sciences history and lived experience A timely work on the gift of the Earth that makes a strong case for environmental conservation as a cornerstone of religious life

Decolonizing Environmentalism Prakash Kashwan,Aseem Hasnain,2024-12-26 We live in a moment rife with mixed emotions existential anxieties about catastrophic climate change presumptuous confidence in planet hacking geoengineering technologies and hopefulness of youth climate activism Decolonizing Environmentalism helps us navigate these emotions and reimagine our approach to environmental stewardship The authors cast a critical eye on wealthy and influential environmental groups that committed to anti racist strategies in the wake of the racial awakening of 2020 Yet they continue to embrace false solutions like carbon markets and biodiversity offsets which carry deeply racialized consequences By tracing the roots of these misplaced priorities to detrimental modernity steeped in colonialism and capitalism the authors call for transformational changes in human nature relationships They distil lessons from the divestment movement which has questioned the fossil fuel industry s moral standing and food sovereignty activists who have mobilized global civil society to hold agribusiness corporations accountable Amidst calls for apocalyptic optimism Kashwan and Hasnain offer a radical vision grounded in intersectional ecofeminism Indigenous sovereignty and strategies honed in the trenches of transnational environmentalism In these extraordinary times Decolonizing Environmentalism invites readers to embark on a transformative journey to embrace anti racist emancipatory and regenerative approaches to environmentalism Wangari Speaks Out Wangari

Maathai,2023-09-05 Wangari Maathai was the first African woman and first environmentalist to receive a Nobel Peace Prize In 1977 in Kenya she started the Green Belt Movement Wangari s goals had been to use tree planting to restore the environment while providing income and resources to African women The group s objectives broadened to the protection of human and environmental rights civic education and the promotion of democratic values while valuing the cultural heritage of Africa The GBM has now planted tens of millions of trees In her acceptance speech Wangari explains that the state of any country s environment is a reflection of the kind of governance in place and without good governance there can be no peace The efforts of the GBM and other organizations led to the peaceful transition to a democratic society in Kenya and the tree became a symbol of the democratic struggle Her speech is strikingly illustrated and followed by an analysis written by Laia de Ahumada The Speak Out series publishes the most inspiring speeches of our times then deconstructs them to give young readers a deeper understanding of global issues and the power of language to influence them Key Text Features biographical information definitions explanation facts headings historical context illustrations informational note Correlates to the Common Core State Standards in English Language Arts CCSS ELA LITERACY RI 4 2 Determine the main idea of a text and explain how it is supported by key details summarize the text CCSS ELA LITERACY RI 6 3 Analyze in detail how a key individual event or idea is introduced illustrated and elaborated in a text e g through examples or anecdotes CCSS ELA LITERACY RI 6 6 Determine an author s point of view or purpose in a text and explain how it is conveyed in the text CCSS ELA LITERACY RI 6 9 Compare and contrast one author s presentation of events with that of another e g a memoir written by and a biography on the same person Old Words for a New World Walter Brueggemann,2025-02-04 Walter

Brueggemann has been so effective for so long precisely because he has consistently called upon the church to see beyond the taken for granted realities it confronts by imagining God s alternative reality to recognize that the bars of its entrapment were social constructs and could just as easily be deconstructed so we could be once again enchanted by God s good news To challenge the taken for granted reality of the church and to imagine an alternative reality Brueggemann consistently takes us back to the biblical text He moves between a description of the reality that appears in front of the church and the alternative that God is preparing for God s people that begins now and moves into God s eschatological future In so doing Brueggemann seeks to unleash the power of God s words to create a new world here and now Radical Utu Besi Brilliant

Muhonja,2020-06-09 Wangari Muta Maathai was a scholar activist known for founding the Green Belt Movement an environmental campaign that earned her the Nobel Peace Prize While many studies of Maathai highlight her activism few examine Maathai as a scholar whose contributions to various disciplines and causes spanned more than three decades In

Radical Utu Critical Ideas and Ideals of Wangari Muta Maathai Besi Brillian Muhonja presents the words and works of Maathai as theoretical concepts attesting to her contributions to gender equality democratic spaces economic equity and global governance and indigenous African languages and knowledges Muhonja s well rounded portrait of Maathai s ideas offers a corrective to the one dimensional characterization of Maathai typical of other works Mental Slavery: The Liberation Chant , Legends of the African Sun Nana Adowaa Boateng,2021-10-13 The African continent where life began has gifted us with amazing legends who have stood up against injustice and inspired us to be brave They are kings and queens warriors and environmentalists writers and artists inventors and innovators thinkers and athletes Some are women who have led battles against powerful enemies Others have unique talents which allow them to do things that no one else can do Legends of the African Sun tells the stories of thirty legendary African women and men They come from various parts of Africa East West South and North From Queen Nzingha of Ndongo Angola to Lupita Nyong o of Nairobi Kenya to Desmond Tutu of Klerksdorp South Africa these legends defied the odds against them enacted bold ideas showed tremendous compassion and bravery and serve as powerful role models for children This collection of short biographies helps teach young children about legendary Africans and the problems and issues they confronted on their journeys Making a Difference Stacy C Bauer,2025-08-05 Young Changemakers is an inspirational series all about real kids from around the globe doing extraordinary things to make a difference in their communities and the world Making a Difference is filled with stories of kids who are making the world a better place by following their hearts and chasing their dreams Whether planting a billion trees bringing joy to others through music fundraising for sick children or starting an inclusive dance team these determined youth are using their talents to do amazing things The Woman's Book of Hope Eileen Campbell,2018-09-01 A book to put a smile on your face and hope in your soul World events these days can make us feel anxious or even hopeless But thisinspirational book is here to remind us that we must not give up hope because hope is what transforms the world It also helps us regain a sense of control in our lives and remember that we are in control The Woman s Book of Hope offers not only daily meditations to guide you toward a better future withquotes from women such as Marie Curie Anne Frank Maya Angelou Oprah Winfrey and more but also stories of great fearless women of our time that bring these meditations to life A source of light and clarity during stressful or traumatic times these meditations motivate us to heal from hurt find purpose and pursue joy each and every day Trees for Peace Felicia Carmelita Hardy,2018-05-15 The work of the Green Belt Movement stands as a testament to the power of grassroots organizing proof that one person s simple idea that a community should come together to plant trees can make a difference first in one village then in one nation and now across Africa President Barack Obama Wangari Muta Maathai April 1 1940 September 25 2011 was an internationally renowned political environmental and social activist In 1971 she became the first woman in both East and Central Africa to earn a doctorate University of Nairobi In 2004 Maathai became the first African woman as well as environmentalist to receive the Nobel Peace

Prize During her lifetime Maathai worked tirelessly to end the devastation of Kenya's forests and lands caused by development In 1977 she founded The Green Belt Movement a non governmental organization focused on environmental conservation planting trees and women's rights Maathai conducted seminars about civic and environmental education and taught women the power of collaboration for peace economic sustainability and democracy Women needed income and they needed resources because theirs were being depleted Maathai explained to People magazine So we decided to solve both problems together Because of Maathai's leadership sacrifice and commitment more than 30 million trees have been planted in Kenya Moreover over 30 000 women have been empowered with new skills and opportunities Lead with Heart in Mind Joan Marques,2019-08-09 This enlightening and inspiring book shows both accomplished and aspiring leaders how to harness Buddhist philosophies to practice more effective and sustainable leadership Illustrated through the stories of visionary and innovative leaders in many fields including Elon Musk Tesla Malala Yousafzai human rights Howard Schultz Starbucks and Muhammad Yunus microfinance and development this volume links an ancient Buddhist concept known as the Noble Eightfold Path to contemporary needs to develop an alternative paradigm to the excessive bottom line focus and winner take all approach that has come to dominate leadership practice in recent decades The stunning rejection by the United Kingdom of the European Union and the divisive US presidential race of 2016 serve as a dramatic backdrop to complex social issues that require creative solutions bringing together stakeholders from different fields and points of view The Eightfold Path characterized by the following elements Right View Right Intention Right Speech Right Action Right Livelihood Right Effort Right Mindfulness and Right Concentration is an approach to leadership that balances individual and collective concerns while aligning pragmatic and spiritual priorities Joan Marques an accomplished author speaker and educator on spirituality in organizations with extensive experience in teaching and applying Buddhist principles demonstrates how the Eightfold Path can inform practices and decisions that result in long term communal benefits and in the process develop more mindful and conscientious leaders capable of tackling multifaceted challenges She Can STEM Liz Lee Heinecke,2024-02-13 Inspire young scientists with the biographies of 50 fascinating women in science past and present each paired with a hands on experiment that brings the history and principles of science to life Informal Public Transport in Practice Meleckidzedek Khayesi,Fredrick Muyia Nafukho,2016-03-03 Transport discourse often concentrates on what is missing from transport policy and practice in developing countries vis vis high income countries rather than articulating local creativity in responding to transport needs as revealed in informal public transport modes such as matatu motorcycle bicycle and animal transport This book helps to correct some of the tendency of inadequate contextualization of knowledge technology and practice learning and transfer from one setting to another in transport and other development programmes While countries such as Kenya have ambitions to develop their transport systems to fit into the globalized transport system they also need to plan transport for ordinary life in both urban and rural areas The matatu service provided by privately owned transport carriers can be seen as a mirror of the life of Kenya revealing how indigenous African entrepreneurship and capitalism straddles various economic political and social systems This book offers a phenomenological and situated analysis of the matatu entrepreneurship in the political economy of Kenya and its embeddedness in society By adopting a social science approach this book highlights a number of political social and practical issues to demonstrate the matatu is not a decontextualized disembodied and lifeless piece of moving metal carrying people and goods but rather part of a self organizing industry with its own logic of practice This book is dedicated to Ajanga Khayesi Social Justice and the Power of Compassion Marguerite Guzman Bouvard, 2016-07-11 Social Justice and the Power of Compassion looks at how a single person or a small organization working at the grassroots level can make great strides in helping the marginalized and disenfranchised Marguerite Guzman Bouvard weaves the personal stories of the founders and directors of such organizations as the Polaris Project MADRE and the Harpswell Foundation to show how they have dealt with social problems of many kinds that have been invisible for too long From dealing with climate change to giving housing and giving medical care to the homeless these people and their organizations have created models that have been replicated around the country and successfully given widespread attention to these important issues Wake Up to Wonder Karen Wright Marsh, 2023-07-11 In her quest to live a vibrant spiritual life Karen Wright Marsh had a revelation she didn't need to find and follow the perfect plan she needed people she could follow In Wake Up to Wonder Marsh introduces you to those people faithful yet oh so human Christians from across centuries and cultures Inspired by their example she offers playful simple practices that bring deeper meaning and purpose to everyday life In the company of diverse spiritual companions you'll journey through physical health prayer activism Scripture reading creativity and beyond Each chapter includes hands on invitations such as writing prompts space for personal reflection and Try This a collage of spiritual and personal experiments anyone can do As you wake up to wonder you'll discover what these twenty two historical figures already knew that a life of spiritual depth amazement and connection is within reach today and every day Historical Figures Covered Henri J M Nouwen Martin Luther Thomas Merton Hildegard von Bingen Margery Kempe Wangari Maathai Caedmon Amanda Berry Smith Augustine Liliastrotter Fannie Lou Hamer Patrick of Ireland Hans Scholl and Sophie Scholl Howard Thurman Pandita Ramabai Ephrem the Syrian Ignatius of Loyola Benedict and Scholastica Brother Lawrence Francis of Assisi and Clare of Assisi Dorothy Day Mabel Ping Hua Lee
