

TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 1874.

May 11, 1875

On looking over this diary of the year last year, I see that on the last page I said the last I had strength or courage to say in all that year. It was on the night of the 27 of April 74 that I first realized that my troubles had struck the nerve centers. The spine between the shoulder blades became greatly inflamed. This was the first time in my life that I ever felt I had a spine, always so strong. The mental agony I underwent of this day and those that followed I can never describe. Even now after more than a year, it distresses me to remember it.

It is only three weeks ago, that I could commence to lie or even turn onto my back even for a half minute, since that sad day which dates the top of this page almost thirteen months. I am much more able now than then, but not as wretched in mind, calmer, nerves perhaps less excited, blood & fiber weaker & worse, an old invalid now, have passed much suffering and learned a little how to bear it.
