Access for All Melisa N. Choroszy,Theodor M. Meek,2019-01-23 For many students in Nevada and throughout the nation they are the first in their family to go to college these students are identified as first generation The population of first generation students continues to increase year over year and their unique needs have shaped the way education practitioners must approach serving future students effectively This collection of essays written by University of Nevada Reno UNR faculty and students is an examination of the programs and strategies created to support first generation and other underrepresented student populations In addition it serves as a dedication to the families and students whose hopes and dreams include the attainment of a college degree Readers will gain insight into the framework needed to provide accessible programs and services to a large and diverse student population before during and after college graduation as well as first hand success stories from the students themselves Each generation hopes for a better life for their children Higher education in particular has been a dream for many in this country that has been made possible through public and private financial support Every new generation of college bound students faces new and evolving challenges but the fierce dedication and commitment demonstrated in these pages define the key to developing a thriving and diverse institution that helps all students succeed

Reengagement Andrew O. Moore,2016-04-19 This book by practitioners policy analysts and young people for practitioners policy makers and researchers captures up to the moment experience and as yet unresolved issues in a newly emerging field dropout reengagement Key elements in this field include reaching out to young people who have left school for a myriad of reasons and providing individualized supports and services all the way through to successful re enrollment The development of coordinated citywide efforts to re engage out of school youth on positive educational pathways in several dozen cities in recent years spurred the effort to document practice and policy Readers will come away with an understanding of results to date as well as a sense of the variety and continuous improvement and innovation underway This book describes the impressive early accomplishments of reengagement efforts in several cities provides practical advice from a variety of perspectives for those seeking to launch or formalize local reengagement programs and describes how reengagement at scale could help solve the crisis of unfulfilled potential represented in America s millions of young people without high school credentials
