Wassce Paper Cancelled:

Being and Becoming African as a Permanent Work in Progress B. Nyamnjoh, U. Nwosu, 2021-06-09 This book is a timely addition to debates and explorations on the epistemological relevance of African proverbs especially with growing calls for the decolonisation of African curricula The editors and contributors have chosen to reflect on the diverse ways of being and becoming African as a permanent work in progress by drawing inspiration from Chinua Achebe's harnessing of the effectualness of oratory especially his use of proverbs in his works The book recognises and celebrates the fact that Achebe's proverbial Igbo imaginations of being and becoming African are compelling because they are instructive about the lives stories struggles and aspirations of the rainbow of people that make up Africa as a veritable global arena of productive circulations entanglements and compositeness of being The contributions foray into how claims to and practices of being and becoming African are steeped in histories of mobilities and a myriad of encounters shaped by and inspiring of the competing and complementary logics of personhood and power that Africans have sought and seek to capture in their repertoires of proverbs The task of documenting African proverbs and rendering them accessible in the form of a common hard currency with fascinating epistemological possibilities remains a challenge yearning for financial scholarly social and political attention The book is an important contribution to John Mbiti's clarion call for an active and sustained interest in African proverbs

Academy Congress Publication ... Nigerian Academy of Education. Congress, 2001 Public Awareness of Malpractice during the Examinations by WAEC in Nigeria Busari Moshood, Oyediran Y.R.A., 2018-01-22 Academic Paper from the year 2017 in the subject Sociology Individual Groups Society language English abstract This paper examined the impact of awareness creation and administration of various sanctions on examination malpractice using the West African Examinations

Council as a case study The effects of the awareness level and the sanctions were also critically x rayed with a view to applauding the results if encouraging or suggesting an improved strategy for an effective control and noticeable reduction in the rate of examination malpractice in public examinations like the West African Senior Secondary Certificate Examinations WASSCE conducted by WAEC The rate of candidates involvement in malpractice during the public examinations conducted across West African subregion is of great concern to many stakeholders In spite of stringent measures taken to curb malpractice the rate of involvement seems to be increasing geometrically It is in reaction to this worrisome trend that this study was conducted to probe into the root cause of continuous indulgence in malpractice during the examinations conducted by the West African Examinations Council WAEC in Nigeria This is with a view to measuring the public awareness level as regards the implications of involvement in examination malpractice and appealing to their moral instinct to eschew this menace using the proposed theory of awareness creation and sanction strategy SACS The study employed purposive sampling technique in selecting 10 ten states where various stakeholders in education were sampled for the administration of a questionnaire designed to gauge their knowledge of implications of involvement in examination malpractice of different forms One thousand copies 1 000 of the instrument were administered in the States of Abia Katsina Kebbi Benue Kwara Cross River Bayelsa Nasarawa Niger and Edo among the Senior Secondary three Students their teachers and parents of the same students These states were purposively selected for their high level of malpractice recorded in the examination conducted by WAEC in recent times Out of the administered copies of the instrument nine hundred and forty two 942 were retrieved for analysis
