Miscellaneous Documents United States. Congress. House, 1885 Writing Battles Máire Ní Mhaonaigh, Rory Naismith, Elizabeth Ashman Rowe, 2020-05-14 Battles have long featured prominently in historical consciousness as moments when the balance of power was seen to have tipped or when aspects of collective identity were shaped But how have perspectives on warfare changed How similar are present day ideologies of warfare to those of the medieval period Looking back over a thousand years of British Irish and Scandinavian battles this significant collection of essays examines how different times and cultures have reacted to war considering the changing roles of religion and technology in the experience and memorialisation of conflict While fighting and killing have been deplored glorified and everything in between across the ages Writing Battles reminds us of the visceral impact left on those who come after The Worst Passions of Human Nature Paul D. Escott, 2020-03-10 The American North's commitment to preventing a southern secession rooted in slaveholding suggests a society united in its opposition to slavery and racial inequality The reality however was far more complex and troubling In his latest book Paul Escott lays bare the contrast between progress on emancipation and the persistence of white supremacy in the Civil War North Escott analyzes northern politics as well as the racial attitudes revealed in the era's literature to expose the nearly ubiquitous racism that flourished in all of American society and culture Contradicting much recent scholarship Escott argues that the North's Democratic Party was consciously and avowedly the white man's party as an extensive examination of Democratic newspapers as well as congressional debates and other speeches by Democratic leaders proves The Republican Party meanwhile defended emancipation as a war measure but did little to attack racism or fight for equal rights Most Republicans propagated a message that emancipation would not disturb northern race relations or the interests of northern white voters freed slaves it was felt would either leave the nation or remain in the South as subordinate laborers Escott's book uncovers the substantial and destructive racism that lay beyond the South's borders Although emancipation represented enormous progress racism flourished in the North and assumptions of white supremacy remained powerful and nearly ubiquitous throughout America Who Is This God Wayne J. Coleman, 2023-11-23 The Bible tells us God is loving and kind He sent his only Son Jesus to save the world from sin But is God really loving and kind How do we understand the seeming cruelty of God who asked Abraham to sacrifice his son Isaac How do we understand a seemingly unjust God who accepted Abel's offering but rejected Cain's. Is this the God who loves us? How can we love and trust such a God? Does God care what happens to us? Are Nations under his control? What happens to a Nation that turns its back on God? Are there signs of a falling Nation? There are answers to these questions and more. Stories from the Old Testament of what looks like God's cruelty and unjustness on the surface are examined deeply to reveal God's presence and purpose. The words of Jesus and the apostles in the New Testament are highlighted as proof of God's love and kindness. We are told to pray. Does prayer make any difference? How do I find time for prayer? Coleman offers us stories from his own life to illuminate how he has experienced God's love. We are invited to go on a journey to understand who this God is and to live in that reality. In a world of turmoil and pain, Coleman describes the problem and presents a hope.

Destroying Democracy Jane Duncan, Linda Gordon, Gunnett Kaaf, Dale T. McKinley, Alf Gunvald Nilsen, Devan Pillay, Mandla J. Radebe, Alfredo Saad-Filho, Ingar Solty, 2021-08-01. A history of the erosion of democracy across the globe. Democracy is being destroyed. This is a crisis that expresses itself in the rising authoritarianism, visible in divisive and exclusionary politics, populist political parties and movements, increased distrust in fact-based information and news, and the withering accountability of state institutions. Over the last four decades, democracy has radically shifted to a market democracy in which all aspects of human, non-human, and planetary life are commodified, with corporations becoming more powerful than states and their citizens. This is how neoliberal capitalism functions at a systemic level, and if left unchecked, is the greatest threat to democracy and a sustainable planet. Volume six of the Democratic Marxism series focuses on how decades of neoliberal capitalism have eroded the global democratic project and how, in the process, authoritarian politics are gaining ground. Scholars and activists from the political left focus on four country cases: India, Brazil, South Africa, and the United States of America, in which the COVID-19 pandemic has fuelled and highlighted the pre-existing crisis. They interrogate issues of politics, ecology, state security, media access to information, and political parties, and affirm the need to reclaim and rebuild an expansive and inclusive democracy. Destroying Democracy is an invaluable resource for the general public, activists, scholars, and students who are interested in understanding the threats to democracy and the rising tide of authoritarianism in the global south and the global north.

Romanticism, Rhetoric and the Search for the Sublime Craig R. Smith, 2018-11-07. Relying on the author's established expertise in rhetorical theory and political communication, this book re-contextualizes Romantic rhetorical theory in the late 18th and early 19th centuries to provide a foundation for a Neo-Romantic rhetorical theory for our own time. In the process, it uses a unique methodology to correct misconceptions about many Romantic writers. The methodology of the early chapters uses a dialectical approach to trace Romanticism and its opposition, the Enlightenment, back through Humanism and its opposition, Scholasticism, to St. Augustine. These chapters include a revisionist analysis of the church's treatment of Galileo in the course of showing how difficult it was for scientific study to be accepted in the academic world. The study also re-conceptualizes Jean-Jacques Rousseau, David Hume, and Edmund Burke as bridge figures to the Romantic Era, instead of as Enlightenment figures This move throws new light on the major artists of the Romantic Era who are examined in chapters seven and eight Chapter nine focuses on Percy Bysshe Shelley and his development of the rhetorical poem and thereby provides a new genre in the Romantic catalogue Chapter ten uses the foregoing to analyse and reconceptualize the rhetorical theories of Hugh Blair and Thomas De Quincey The concluding chapter then synthesizes their theories with relevant contemporary rhetorical theories thereby constructing a Neo Romantic theory for our own time In the process this book links the Romantics love of nature to the current environmental crisis
