Non-tariff Barriers, Regionalism And Poverty: Essays In Applied International Trade Analysis L Alan Winters,2015-03-26 Non Tariff Barriers Regionalism and Poverty is a collection of key articles in three important areas of applied international trade research measuring non tariff barriers and their effects the consequences of regional trading arrangements especially on the countries excluded from them and the connection between international trade and poverty Drawing from 30 years of research and experience L Alan Winters illustrates the development of techniques of this field and his continued commitment to answering real policy questions at the times at which they are debated The collection shows the ways in which economic and econometric analysis can be used to answer real world problems rigorously in the area of international trade and trade policy Readers will find that some of the research included is of current methodological relevance and some of more historical significance This volume is invaluable to anyone who is keen on developing their knowledge on trade policy regionalism or poverty three pressing issues in today s globalized world China Versus The Us, World Bank And Imf In Sub-saharan Africa Lynne Ciochetto,2022-12-07 This timely book provides a comprehensive overview of the activities of the major foreign forces active in contemporary Sub Saharan Africa Stimulated by the abundance of reports in the media criticizing China s presence in Sub Saharan Africa there is an analysis of China s involvement in the region compared to the largest Western players the United States the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund China has only been economically active in Sub Saharan Africa since the 1990s while the United States the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund have been active since the 1950s Indeed the World Bank has been the major lender for development during the whole period The book explores how these foreign interests have assisted with or hindered progress towards addressing the challenges facing the region These challenges include high rates of poverty and low levels of human development loss of political and economic sovereignty periodic sluggish economic development government indebtedness illegal financial flows and corruption the resource curse environmental destruction and climate change The approach is interdisciplinary and emphasises the key development issues social economic and environmental sustainability An audit approach is used to explore changes within China and the West since the 1950s and evaluate their impact on Sub Saharan Africa China versus the US World Bank and IMF in Sub Saharan Africa is an important reference for academics researchers and students It is also written in an accessible style that is suitable for the general reader Higher Education, Public Good and Markets Jandhyala B. G. Tilak,2017-10-16 This book critically examines some of the major trends in the development of higher education It demonstrates how in the context of liberalisation globalisation and marketisation the crisis in higher education has assumed different dimensions in all advanced and emerging societies The author shows how the state tends to slowly withdraw from the responsibility of higher education including in the arena of policy making or simply adopts a policy of laissez faire of non involvement which helps in the rapid unbridled growth of private sector in higher education The notion of higher education as a public good is under serious contestation in current times The book argues for the need to resurrect the compelling nature of higher education along with its several implications for public policy and planning while providing a broad portrayal of global developments comparative perspectives and key lessons The volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers of education political science public policy and administration governance development studies economics and those working in the higher education sectors think tanks policymakers as well as NGOs Economic Development E. Wayne Nafziger, 2006 In this fourth edition of his textbook E Wayne Nafziger analyzes the economic development of Asia Africa Latin America and East Central Europe This comprehensive and clearly written text explains the growth in real income per person and income disparities within and between developing countries The author explains the reasons for the fast growth of Pacific Rim countries Brazil Poland and recently India and the increasing economic misery and degradation of large parts of sub Saharan Africa The book also examines China and other post socialist economies as low and middle income countries without however overshadowing the primary emphasis on the third world The text is replete with real world examples The exposition emphasizes the themes of poverty inequality unemployment the environment and deficiencies of people in less developed countries The guide to the readings through bibliography and websites with links to development resources makes the book useful for students writing research papers Social Technologies for Inclusive
