

The Age of Imperialism

An Introduction & Imperialism Divides Africa

Old Imperialism

Imperialism — when one country controls the political, economic, or cultural life of another country.

Sphere of Influence — area in which an outside power claims exclusive trade privileges.

Old imperialism was led by Spain and Portugal during the 1500s. The imperialized territory was the New World of the Americas.

Spain and Portugal were motivated by the three "G's":

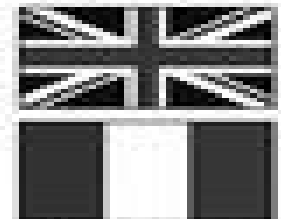

1. Gold

2. God

3. Glor

Causes of New Imperialism

The leaders of new imperialism were Britain, France, Italy, Germany, and Belgium. The setting for new imperialism was Africa and Asia, from approximately 1870 to 1940. Several important factors led to the new imperialism:

1. Militarism

Military power was commonly used to achieve a nation's goals. Resupply ports were needed along the west and east coasts of Africa. A nation with more colonies had more power, security, trade, money, and colonial men for their army.

2. Industrialization

Industrialists needed more raw materials to supply their factories, and foreign markets where they could sell their finished products. Industrialists also needed places to invest their profits, which would multiply their riches.

3. Nationalism

National pride led many nations to strive for a world empire. Most Europeans felt their nationality was superior to that of the Africans and Asians. The English boasted, "The sun never sets on the British Empire." Kaiser Wilhelm wanted Germany to have its "place in the sun."
