East Asia Under Challenge

1800–1914

Key Events

As you read this chapter, look for the key events in the development of East Asia.

- Western nations used political persuasion and military strength to gain trading privileges with China and Japan.
- China's internal problems made it easier for Western nations to penetrate the country and strengthen their influence.
- Japan's ability to adopt Western ways and to maintain its own traditions enabled it to develop into a modern, powerful nation.

The Impact Today

The events that occurred during this time period still impact our lives today.

- The issues raised by the Opium War continue to be addressed, since drug addiction is still a major international problem.
- Japan has one of the world's largest industrialized, free-market economies.
- China's large market continues to attract Western business and trade.

World History Modern Times Chapter 7 East Asia Under Challenge Answers:

A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2013-09-13 So far histories of historiography have concentrated almost exclusively on the West This is the first book to offer a history of modern historiography from a global perspective Tracing the transformation of historical writings over the past two and half centuries the book portrays the transformation of historical writings under the effect of professionalization which served as a model not only for Western but also for much of non Western historical studies At the same time it critically examines the reactions in post modern and post colonial thought to established conceptions of scientific historiography A main theme of the book is how historians in the non Western world not only adopted or adapted Western ideas but also explored different approaches rooted in their own cultures

Rethinking Sino-Japanese Alienation Barry Buzan, Evelyn Goh, 2020-01-09 Bitterly contested memories of war colonisation and empire among Japan China and Korea have increasingly threatened regional order and security over the past three decades In Sino Japanese relations identity territory and power pull together in a particularly lethal direction generating dangerous tensions in both geopolitical and memory rivalries Buzan and Goh explore a new approach to dealing with this history problem First they construct a more balanced and global view of China and Japan in modern world history Second building on this they sketch out the possibilities for a 21st century great power bargain between them Buzan puts Northeast Asia s history since 1840 into both a world historical and a systematic normative context exposing the parochial nature of the China Japan history debate in relation to what is a bigger shared story about their encounter with modernity and the West within which their modern encounter with each other took place Arguing that regional order will ultimately depend substantially on the relationship between these two East Asian great powers Goh explores the conditions under which China and Japan have been able to reach strategic bargains in the course of their long historical relationship and uses this to sketch out the main modes of agreement that might underpin a new contemporary great power bargain between them in a variety of future scenarios for the region The frameworks adopted here consciously blend historical contextualisation enduring concerns with wealth power and interest and the complex relationship between Northeast Asian states evolving encounters with each other and with global international society

The Japanese-Soviet Neutrality Pact Boris Slavinsky, 2004-03-01 The neutrality pact between Japan and the Soviet Union signed in April 1941 lapsed only nine months before its expiry date of April 1946 when the Soviet Union attacked Japan Japan's neutrality had enabled Stalin to move Far Eastern forces to the German front where they contributed significantly to Soviet victories from Moscow to Berlin Slavinsky suggests that Stalin's agreement with Churchill and Roosevelt to attack Japan after Germany's surrender allowed him to keep Japan in the war until he was ready to attack and thus avenge Russia's defeat in the war of 1904-1905 The Soviet Union's violation of the pact and the detention of Japanese prisoners for up to ten years after the end of the war created a sense of victimization in Japan to the extent that there is still no formal Peace Treaty between the two countries to this day Slavinsky draws on recently opened Russian archival material to demonstrate that the Soviet Union was passing information about the Allies to Japan during the Second World War He also persuasively argues that vengeance and the re-acquisition of land were the primary motives for the attack on Japan The book contains empirical data previously unavailable in English and will fascinate anyone with an interest in the history of Japan the Soviet Union and the events of the Second World War

The Rise of Discourse Markers Bernd Heine, Gunther Kaltenböck, Tania Kuteva, Haiping Long, 2021-06-24 Discourse markers constitute an important part of linguistic communication and research on this phenomenon has been a thriving field of study over the past three decades However a problem that has plagued this research is that these markers exhibit a number of structural characteristics that are hard to interpret based on existing methodologies such as grammaticalization This study argues that it is possible to explain such characteristics in a meaningful way It presents a cross linguistic survey of the development of discourse markers their important role in communication and their relation to the wider context of sociocultural behaviour with the goal of explaining their similarities and differences across a typologically wide range of languages By giving a clear definition of discourse markers it aims to provide a guide for future research making it essential reading for students and researchers in linguistics and anyone interested in exploring this fascinating linguistic phenomenon

The Evolution of Faith Thomas R. McFaul, Al Brunsting, 2021-07-21 A new understanding is developed in this book about the relationship between the Christian faith modern science and the world religions The authors call their new position Evolutionary Pluralism By combining the Christian faith with modern science and the global growth of religious diversity Evolutionary Pluralism provides Christians with an alternative to current interpretations such as Young Earth Creationism Old Earth Creationism Intelligent Design Creationism and Evolutionary Creationism This new understanding stands solidly within the history and traditions of the Christian faith and builds on the life and ministry of Jesus Christ Asia-Pacific in the New World Order Christopher Brook, Anthony McGrew, 2013-11-05 Asia Pacific in the New World Order critically explores the notion that a distinctive regional power bloc is developing linking countries bordering the Pacific with East Asia at its core This student friendly volume sheds light on the complex interplay between global regional and national forces which have transformed the Asia Pacific area into one of the most vibrant and economically successful regions in the world Historical narratives alongside geopolitical and geoeconomic perspectives are deployed to examine the shifting pattern of power relations and security structures across the region set within a wider world context Key issues addressed include what are the primary security problems of the region and how are they being resolved does the dynamic growth of the region and particularly the rise of China pose a challenge to existing structures of world order The text has a strong interdisciplinary flavour drawing on analytical approaches from the international relations political economy and political geography literature Authors have been drawn from the Asia Pacific region and the UK and all are established scholars in their specialist fields

Modern World History Jackson J. Spielvogel, 1998 Re-cultivating Agricultural Science Or what I've Learned in 40 Years of Professional Life J. Lindsay Falvey, 2011 This book owes its origins to a collation of some of my publications for which a higher doctorate Doctor of Agricultural Science was awarded by the University of Melbourne in 2004 In that guise it was titled Integrating Reductionist Research into International Agricultural Development Re conceiving Agricultural Research for Development Technical Support for Development Thai Agriculture International Agriculture Agricultural Education It was thus an attempt to seek continuity across my research and development activities around various countries up until that time and to distill from it some conclusions that might inform future directions for international agricultural research and development The citation from the higher doctorate read to John Lindsay Falvey who from 30 years research combining technical social environmental policy and historical research in the developing world challenged the simple importing of agricultural technology He demonstrated that indigenous knowledge and culture is critical to sustainability food security and human development thereby potentially benefitting millions of persons participating in international development projects The citation is both an exaggeration and an understatement It may or may not have assisted millions of persons how can anyone know But in another sense the work revealed the lost element of wholeness that once characterized good science good lives and wisdom The information presented here is snippets from papers and books that strive to make that revelation explicit Its partial prototype benefitted in presentation and explication from my colleagues who formed the panel for the higher doctorate deliberations Professors David Chapman Adrian Egan and Robert White Resources in Education , 1998 Reimagining Public Sector Management John Diamond, Joyce Liddle, 2022-11-18 Reimagining Public Sector Management delves into the crisis and emergency management of the pandemic exploring the ways in which different agencies responded to the pandemic and the lessons learnt in terms of disaster planning and co ordination The Asian Century Jan Romein, 2023-04-28 The Asian Century A History of Modern Nationalism in Asia examines the transformation of Asia from a region defined by disparate cultural traditions to one unified by its response to Western imperialism and its revolutionary embrace of modernity The author argues that until the 19th century Asia lacked a cohesive history fragmented into Islamic Hindu Buddhist and Sinic cultural spheres with limited interaction However European dominance from the 19th century onward imposed a new unity catalyzing a revolutionary period of political independence social transformation and scientific and technological progress The book traces Asia s rediscovery of its own identity through its engagement with Europe highlighting the pivotal 20th century movements that ended colonial rule and set the stage for modernization Central to this narrative are the revolutionary changes in Japan China India and other nations which embraced science reformed social structures and pursued political sovereignty The impact of the Russian Revolution and Soviet influence also played a critical role in shaping modern Asian societies While acknowledging the destructive legacy of colonialism the author also recognizes the infrastructure education and administrative frameworks introduced by imperial powers as factors that facilitated Asia s modernization The study integrates perspectives from across the continent including Soviet Asia and emphasizes the ongoing challenge of creating a global unity that transcends historical antagonisms Ultimately the work views the Asian revolution not only as a regional awakening but as a significant step toward the unification of humanity and a more equitable global order This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1962 The Cinema of Stephen Chow Gary Bettinson, Vivian P.Y. Lee, 2024-09-05 An in depth exploration of the stardom and authorship of Stephen Chow Sing chi one of Hong Kong cinema s most enduringly popular stars and among its most commercially successful directors In the West Stephen Chow is renowned as the ground breaking director and star of global blockbusters such as Kung Fu Hustle 2004 and Shaolin Soccer 2001 Among Hong Kong audiences Chow is celebrated as the leading purveyor of local comedy popularising the so called mo lei tau gibberish brand of Cantonese vernacular humour and cultivating a style of madcap comedy that often masks a trenchant social commentary This volume approaches Chow from a diverse range of critical perspectives Each of the essays written by a host of renowned international scholars offers compelling new interpretations of familiar hits such as From Beijing with Love 1994 and Journey to the West 2013 The detailed case studies of seminal local and global movies provide overdue critical attention to Chow s filmmaking highlighting the aesthetic power economic significance and cultural impact of his films in both domestic and global markets Demystifying Globalization C.
